And in Edinburgh, by

REV. D. T. K. DRUMMOND, and REV. D. BAGOT.

 The Committee of the Church Missionary Society beg to suggest to the Committees and Officers of Associations, that the most convenient and economical mode of making their Remittances is through the medium of a Banker in the Country to the Society's Bankers, through the Banking-house in town with which the Country Banker corresponds, advising the Secretaries of the payment.

ANNUAL REPORT.

WITH a view to economize expenditure in Printing the Annual Report, the Committee request that Copies not required by the possessors may be returned to the Church Missionary House: and would suggest, whether, in those cases where more than one member of a family is entitled to the Report, one copy of it might not suffice for the information of the whole.

PROPER FORM OF A BENEFACTION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

I GIVE and bequeath the sum of unto the Treasurer for the time being of a voluntary Society meeting in or near London, commonly called or known by the name of "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East:" the same to be paid within months next after my decease, out of such part only of my Personal Estate as shall not consist of Mortgages or Chattels Real, in Trust, to be applied to the uses and purposes of that Society; and for which the receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge.

 Devises of land, or of money charged on land, or secured on mortgage of lands or tenements, or to be laid out in lands or tenements, are void; but money or stock may be given by Will, if not directed to be laid out in land.

At the Forty-third Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May the 2d, 1843—

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY ONE OF THE CLERICAL SECRETARIES AND THE REV. JOHN VENN—

On the Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, seconded by the Venerable Walter A. Shirley, Archdeacon of Derby,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. William John Brodrick, for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to His Grace the Vice-Patron; to the Right Hon. the President and the Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf: and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies: (See LIST, p. iv.)

On the Motion of the Viscount Sandon, M.P., seconded by the Rev. Augustus William Hanson, Chaplain of Cape-Coast Castle, a Native of Accra,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the steady progress of the first-formed Mission of the Society in Sierra Leone, amidst peculiar trials and sufferings, affords abundant encouragement to perseverance in that interesting field of Missionary Labour; and that the prospect of access to the Interior of Africa from Sierra Leone, which is presented by Mr. Thomson's journey to Timbo and Sego, while it illustrates the value of the position of that Colony in its bearing on the Evangelization of Africa, demands on the part of this Society the most prompt and strenuous exertions to improve to the utmost, in furtherance of that end, the advantages which are thus presented to it.

On the Motion of the Hon. & Very Rev. the Dean of St. Patrick's, seconded by the Rev. John J. Weitbrecht, Missionary from Burdwan, North India,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the remarkable providential events of the last year in China having strongly fixed the attention of the Members of the Society on the obligation of Christian England to use the means of imparting to its vast population the Gospel of the grace of God; and one individual, who desires to remain unknown, having placed in the hands of the Committee the munificent donation of 6000l. Consols, expressly in aid of a Mission to China; the Committee have felt bound to take preparatory measures for the resumption of the Society's Mission to that country. But while the Meeting recommends this object to the liberality of the Members, it feels constrained, by a due regard to the interests of the existing Missions of the Society, most earnestly to urge the necessity of so aiding this object as not to injure the General Fund of the Society, on which, under God, the old Missions depend.

On the Motion of John Campbell Colquhoun, Esq. M.P., seconded by the Rev. Francis Close, Incumbent of Cheltenham,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Society desires to acknowledge, with mingled feelings of deep humility and lively gratitude to the God of all grace, the large pecuniary means poured into its Treasury in the past year: at the same time, it would urge on the Members, perseverance in exertions and liberality, to sustain and extend its operations; and especially in prayer, for that promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit, which is the source of all spiritual life and fruitfulness.

At a Meeting of the Society, held in Exeter Hall, on Tuesday Evening, May 2, 1843—

The Most Hon. the MARQUESS of CHOLMONDELEY, Vice-President, in the Chair,

On the Motion of the Rev. George Hazlewood, Visiting Secretary of the Hibernian Auxiliary Church Missionary Society, seconded by Pascoe St. Leger Grenfell, Esq,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the experience of each year affords fresh evidence of the necessity for prayer to the God of all grace for the outpouring of His Holy Spirit upon all the Labourers of the Society, that they may be enabled faithfully to proclaim the Gospel of Christ in all its fulness, simplicity, and freeness.

On the Motion of the Rev. Augustus W. Hanson, seconded by Rev. Charles B. Leupolt, Missionary from Benares, North India,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That while the Meeting thanks God for the great success of Missionary operations in Tinnevelly and Krishnaghur, it would remember with sympathy the patient perseverance of those Missionaries whose labours have not hitherto been crowned with visible fruit; and would not cease to pray that the day of the Lord may shortly come, to refresh and reward their faithful labours.

On the Motion of the Rev. John C. Miller, Minister of Park Chapel, Chelsea, seconded by the Rev. Francis Close,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the largeness of the Income for the past year, so far from being a plea for the relaxation of the exertions of the friends of the Society, should rather be regarded as an encouragement to sustain their efforts, and as a pledge that the Lord has a great work for the Society to do, for which He is preparing her, by setting her free from her former incumbrances, and encouraging her by the manifest tokens of His favour.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS OF THE
CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by a Patron or Patrons, a Vice-Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRON of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection; and that of VICE-PATRON for His Grace the Primate of all England, if, being a Member of the Society, he shall accept the office. The PRESIDENT shall be such Temporal Peer or Commoner as may be appointed to that office; and VICE-PRESIDENTS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such Temporal Peers and Commoners as, being also Members, shall be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upward, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upward per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upward shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the general Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued: The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which, special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary *.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made, to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule :—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries—these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT.

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX.

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

IT is the object of the following Remarks, to show that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognised in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognised co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions IN MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant church, a lay-Patron selects and presents "his Clerk" — as the Clergyman is technically called — to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen —whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen" — men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the FOUR following Heads:—

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, and THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachment upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged, that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because, spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment: and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a controul over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates: and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their foreign location.— In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign Stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognised the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour; so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President—December 17, 1835—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the Minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognised Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-Patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions, when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ask [to receive]."

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms:—"You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly. . . . . This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June, 1836.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries: the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837:—

"We are not to take for granted that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely—and probability is the guide of life—to arise to impede or cramp the Committee, since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, The choice of men—The appointment of spheres of labour—The temporal power, including pecuniary support."

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands toward its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is in a sense perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—"The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-Patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary, after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-Patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

* The Three Bishops of India, and the Bishop of Australia, are the Presidents of the Corresponding Committees in their respective dioceses.

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i.e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras, to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission in Travancore; which, as an independent state, not forming a part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made on behalf of the New-Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia; who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me, that our friends at home are taking a view of these things, which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert, that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered, that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 26, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society: and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta —"The principles of our new relations are now fully recognised: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June, 1836.

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and discipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church.* Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianized. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that, in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this TRANSITION STATE—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour. This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach. In an interview with the Bishop of Barbados—April 1835—this point was expressly alluded to; and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, "that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary's services." (Extract from Committee's Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society, according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee's using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licences and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceeding.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and "the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls," unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—"that all and every of these may, IN THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and painfully, to the glory of His name!"

Suggested Order of Proceedings at a Meeting preparatory to the Formation of an Association in aid of the Church Missionary Society.

1.—Mr. will move, and Mr. will second, a Resolution, "That be requested to take the Chair."

2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.

3.—After prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the First Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

SECOND RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That an Association be now formed, and entitled, "The Church Missionary Association;" and that the following be its Officers and Rules.

PRESIDENT. VICE-PRESIDENTS.

TREASURER. SECRETARY.

COMMITTEE:

with power to add to their number.

RULES.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward; or if Clergymen, Half a Guinea; and also such persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward; or if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas; and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at its General Meetings. Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Record"; of Sixpence a-week and upward, of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Gleaner"; and Juvenile Collectors of One Shilling a-month, a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Juvenile Instructor." Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society. Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors. Contributors of 1*d.* a week and upward will be entitled to receive the Parent Society's "Quarterly Paper."

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society—to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society, in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mahomedan Nations.

A

PREACHED AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH,

FLEET STREET,

ON MONDAY EVENING, MAY 1, 1843,

BEFORE THE

Church Missionary Society,

BY THE

REV. WILLIAM JOHN BRODRICK, M.A.

RECTOR OF BATH.

SERMON,

&c. &c.

III. JOHN, 7, 8.

FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE THEY WENT FORTH, TAKING NOTHING OF THE GENTILES. WE THEREFORE OUGHT TO RECEIVE SUCH, THAT WE MIGHT BE FELLOW-HELPERS TO THE TRUTH.

THE Third Epistle of John was addressed to Gaius, one of his children in the faith, whom he loved for the truth's sake.

The Apostle had heard a report of his spiritual state and Christian charity, so favourable as to call forth the expression of an earnest wish, that his health of body, which would appear to have been infirm, might be equal to his health of soul:—Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. Afterwards he expresses his commendation of the general conduct of Gaius, as being according to the truth:—For I rejoiced greatly, when the Brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth. I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. The Apostle then particularly notices the help which Gaius afforded to certain persons, whom he calls the Brethren, and strangers:—Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the Brethren, and to strangers; which have borne witness of thy charity before the Church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well: because that for His name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. And he speaks of this help as the common duty of all the followers of Christ, according to their various means and opportunities:—We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth. There is some difference of opinion with respect to these Brethren and strangers, who were thus entertained by Gaius with Christian hospitality. Some have thought that the Brethren were believers, whether Jew or Gentile, who had gone out from the Church of Ephesus; and that the strangers were persons from other quarters, who were scattered abroad by persecution, without any other claim upon his liberality except their present need. But there is reasonable ground, as I conceive, to suppose that these Brethren and strangers were actual preachers of the Gospel of Christ; for we read not only that for His name's sake they went forth, but that they took nothing of the Gentiles. Now, had these persons merely been in want, under ordinary circumstances, there was no reason why they should decline such relief as the Lord might provide for them, through the kindness of the Gentiles: whereas, if they were Evangelists—that is, Missionaries—they could not as yet receive a maintenance from those among whom they went for the purpose of preaching the Gospel; because, for a time at least, the Gospel itself would not be known, much less the obligations due to those who preached it recognised; and therefore they had an undeniable claim upon all who named the name of Christ. It is a further presumption that these Brethren and strangers had gone forth to publish the glad tidings of Salvation, that the Apostle urged the duty of receiving them upon the ground of their being fellow-helpers to the truth; because the term here translated fellow-helpers appears to be used in the New Testament always in reference to the preaching of the Gospel.

If this point be admitted, namely, that these Brethren and strangers were engaged in preaching among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, and if it be borne in mind that those whom the Apostle designated as Gentiles we should designate as the heathen, then the application of the text to the object which has brought us together at this time is clear and obvious.

Among the various subjects which presented themselves to my mind, in the prospect of addressing you, I have been led to select what may be characterized as one of the first principles of the Missionary subject; because it is by means of simple appeals to the heart and conscience, grounded upon the love of Christ, that the Lord usually excites an interest on behalf of the heathen world. I would desire, therefore, to avoid all subjects which have a tendency to cause divisions among us,—all novelties, all curious questions, all attempts to unfold the mysteries of the prophetic portions of the Scriptures in their bearing upon Missionary prospects,—interesting as I feel this question to be in the present eventful days; and to draw your attention to the great Christian duty, enjoined by our Lord on His Apostles and their successors in the ministry in every age; Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; in dependence upon the assurance, Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

In accordance with this view, I shall dwell

First—Upon the office of a Christian Missionary:—he goes forth among the Heathen, in the name, and for the sake, of Christ.

Secondly—Upon the circumstances under which he makes the first proclamation of the Gospel to the Heathen: —taking nothing of them.

Thirdly—I shall enforce the duty which consequently devolves upon all the professed followers of Christ, to assist such Ministers; and, through them, to promote the preaching of the Gospel of the grace of God:—We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

And here, my Christian Brethren, if I were to give utterance to my own feelings, I should dwell upon a sense of personal incompetency to do justice to this subject; but I am deeply impressed with the conviction, that it will most consist with real humility, that I should at once proceed to fulfil the duty which devolves on me, in a simple dependence upon God's grace, and with a single eye to His glory.

May the Lord, the Spirit, whose special office it is, to take of the things of Christ, and to show them unto us, bear fresh testimony, at this time, to the power of His own Word!

I. The office of a Christian Missionary:—he goes forth among the Heathen, in the Name, and for the sake, of Christ.

We, my Brethren, who exercise our ministry where the order of the Christian Church has been established, amidst all the comforts and encouragements of home, are little qualified to judge of the trials to which those Ministers are exposed, who labour among the Heathen. To give up country, kindred, and home, the friends and associations of early years, is no slight test of principle; and the history of that honoured servant of the Lord, Henry Martyn, strikingly exhibits the intensity of that struggle to a mind endued with peculiar sensibility. This trial will, of course, vary in degree, according to the sacrifices which a Missionary is constrained to make, in leaving his native land. It can in no case be small; and we may learn from our experience in other matters, that it is from those who in the first instance make the greatest sacrifices, that the most strenuous and self-denying exertions may eventually be expected. Reflect, also, upon the difficulties by which the Missionary is surrounded. Idolatry, with the various habits and combinations of iniquity connected with it,—sanctioned, too, in the minds of its deluded votaries, by its antiquity and extent,—is a state of things which, of itself, opposes difficulties of no ordinary kind; as the history of our Missions in India bears ample testimony. There is one peculiar suffering, too, connected with some forms of idolatry, even more painful, to one who loves the Saviour, than the contempt and trial of cruel mockings to which he is personally exposed:—I mean the casting out as evil that Blessed Name, for the sake of which he has gone forth. To hear revilings and blasphemies, of the most fearful character, poured forth against HIM, whom it is the Lord's will that every tongue should confess to be JEHOVAH,—THIS, especially, harrows up every feeling of his soul. Reflect, likewise, upon the hardships to which a Missionary may be exposed. Witness our faithful men who have been labouring in the North-West of America: they can truly say, that they have often gone through sufferings, from the severity of the climate, which nothing short of strong faith could have enabled them to endure; and that they have been obliged to rest in literal dependence upon the promise, Bread shall be given him, and his waters shall be sure.

The Missionary's post is also a post of danger; whether it regard his standing, as has often been the case, in jeopardy every hour,—that is, in actual risk of the loss of life by violence, from the ferocity or the suspicions of savages; or whether it regard the deadly influence of climate upon a constitution which is not inured to it, in some quarters of the world. No one can have traced the early history of our New-Zealand Mission, or taken an interest in the work attempted in Southern Africa, without perceiving that the Missionary must be prepared to take his life in his hand: and none can be acquainted with our losses in Western Africa,—that grave of Missionaries, as it has been too truly called,—without feeling that nothing short of the prospect of the Resurrection, with all its blessed hopes, and the glorious appearing of the Great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ, could lead men to supply the places of those who have fallen victims to the climate; and thus, as the Apostle would seem to imply by the expression, be baptized for the dead.

There is another element, too, required in the character of a Missionary,—the rarity of which is only exceeded by its necessity,—I mean, the possession of his soul in patience. It is visionary to suppose, that, the moment the Gospel is proclaimed, those who hear will all be ready to receive it. How was it when the Great Apostle of the Gentiles expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading those whom he addressed concerning Jesus?

Some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not. How was it when Paul and Barnabas addressed the Gentiles at Antioch? As many as were ordained to eternal life, believed. The preacher of the Gospel in the present day, especially one who labours among the Heathen, is often tempted to adopt the language of the Prophet, speaking in the name of the Lord respecting Israel, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people. Is it to be wondered at, as the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain, that he who is engaged in the more difficult work of spiritual husbandry should need the same patience? The Missionary must expect to see year after year roll on, without numbering, perhaps, above one or two converts: still, he is always to labour, as well as to pray, and not to faint. Though the blessing tarry, he must wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Still, this waiting-time is a time which requires a spirit like that of Abraham, not to stagger at the promise through unbelief.

The office of a Missionary, then, requires great personal sacrifices; exposes him to difficulty, hardship, danger; and demands the grace of patience in no ordinary measure. Every thing in nature, therefore, is opposed to the original selection of such a mode of serving the Lord Christ, and to the subsequent discharge of the duty with diligence and faithfulness. Divine grace must be vouchsafed, in rich abundance, to that man who is prepared to be faithful unto death, in so persevering and perilous a conflict. I speak not here of such impetuous and ill-directed efforts as a man may make, for a time, under the impulse of naturally warm temperament, or sudden excitement of the feelings: though the Lord may overrule even such efforts for the promotion of His own glory, still no solid or permanent effect can reasonably be expected to arise from them. I speak of the calm, deliberate, faithful determination of that man who, looking at the awful state of the heathen world, without hope and without God; reflecting, too, that, notwithstanding their darkness, the Apostle declares that they are without excuse—the man who, believing that God the Holy Spirit has called him to minister among the Heathen, devotes himself to that work, body, soul, and spirit;—I say, that, in the case of such a man, it is not nature, but grace only, which can prepare and qualify him for a duty, the highest and the most honourable, in my own conception, in which a Minister of Christ can be engaged.

Yes, Brethren, there is one only principle, one only motive, which can permanently sustain a man undertaking the office as unto Christ; and that is, the influence of a Saviour's love, constraining him to live no longer to himself, but unto Him which died for him, and rose again. The motive of those concerning whom the Apostle wrote is thus expressed by him,—for HIS name's sake they went forth; that is, in the name, and for the sake, of Christ. It is observable, Brethren, that the name of Jesus had not been previously mentioned; and while the omission of it does not leave us in any doubt that He is the adorable person to whom reference is here made, it would seem to afford indirect evidence of the continual presence of that blessed name to the mind and heart of the Apostle, and of Gaius likewise, to whom he wrote.

It is clear, then, to my own mind, that they who had been hospitably entertained by Gaius had gone forth, in the name of Christ, to declare that name among the Gentiles; to preach HIM whom the Father has set at His own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come; and in that same worthy name,—as the Apostle James expresses it,—as well as under the same banner, the banner of the Cross, every soldier of Christ must go forth upon his Missionary warfare. If he hope to be faithful to his Lord and Master, his own soul must be filled with the love of Christ: he must know, by experience, the fulness and freeness of His salvation, the efficacy of His blood, the perfection of His righteousness, the grace which He supplies to His people here, and the glory which shall be revealed in them hereafter; so that, when the Lord's voice is heard, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? he is constrained to say, Here am I; send me: and he is ready, with the Apostle Paul, not to be bound only, but also to die, if need be, for the name of the Lord Jesus. But not only is love for that name the animating principle of his own soul: he knows it to be the name, and the only name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. He labours to carry out, as far as in him lies, the divine purpose, that at that name which is above every name, the name of Jesus, every knee should bow,—to make known that name in its full import,—Jesus Christ, the Anointed Saviour,—Emmanuel, God with us,—The Lord our Righteousness. That name, therefore, is the Alpha and Omega of his ministry. He determines not to know any thing among those to whom he goes, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified; to proclaim Him as made to His people wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption,—in other words, as bestowing on them knowledge, pardon, holiness, and glory. He feels the Gospel,—preaching, as it does, peace by Jesus Christ,—to be the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; and, knowing this by his own personal experience, he proclaims to others the riches of God's love in Christ, exalting Jesus, in dependence upon His own promise,—And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

And here, Brethren, let me take occasion to impress upon you, that though at all times a Crucified Saviour must be the centre of our spiritual system,—or, to use another figure, the Fountain whence doctrines spring and duties flow; yet there are times when we are called upon to be more than commonly jealous over this doctrine with godly jealousy. Sure I am, that just in proportion as the doctrine of Justification by Faith in the atonement and righteousness of the Lord Jesus Christ, and that alone, is made the ground of our teaching, both at home and abroad, will the Lord confirm our word, not indeed by miraculous signs following, but by adding to the Church daily, through our ministry, such as shall be saved;—that it is because of faithfulness to this fundamental doctrine that our Society has been hitherto owned and honoured by the Great Head of the Church; and so long as we hold fast by this doctrine, we may rest in full confidence that the Lord will provide. And sure I am, also, that if ever, through spiritual declension, or any other of the innumerable devices of Satan, we should be induced either to corrupt, or explain away, or hold back, or be ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, in its simple majesty of truth,—Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved,—from that moment the Lord will be ashamed of us, and our prosperity as a Society will crumble into dust. It is in the purity of Gospel truth, and the bold uncompromising preaching of the name of Christ,—it is in the exhibition of His glory, in His person, office, work, and character, which is, I may truly say, the grand principle of the Church Missionary Society,—that the secret of its strength lies; and should it ever be shorn of this, its excellency, it will become weak, as every other Institution has become, which has departed from the Truth as it is in Jesus.

The office of a Christian Missionary, then, is this:—he goes forth among the Heathen, in the name, and for the sake, of Christ; pouring forth that name by the preaching of the Gospel; his own soul filled with its blessed unction, and his life ever breathing out the odour of the ointment.

II. Secondly, we were to consider the circumstances under which a Missionary must make the proclamation of the Gospel to the Heathen:—taking nothing of them.

It must ever be borne in mind, that it is absolutely essential to the nature of Missionary operations, that the Gospel of Christ should be at first made known without charge to those who are invited to receive it. The case before us is sometimes stated, as if it were identical with that of the Apostle Paul, at Corinth and Thessalonica; but the cases are very different; and it is important that the difference should be noticed, inasmuch as it constitutes one of the strongest claims on us to support those who are gone forth in the name of Christ, and thus to become fellow-helpers to the Truth. In those places where the Apostle refused to receive a maintenance, the Gospel had been for some time preached, and Churches were already founded; and there Ministers of the Word of Life had an undoubted right to claim subsistence;—the labourer was worthy of his hire. But this is not, and cannot be, the case with Missionaries to the Heathen: they have to make the proclamation of the Gospel where its glad tidings have never yet been heard, and therefore where those who hear cannot possibly recognise any claim upon them on behalf of those who preach it. Until the Church has been actually planted, and the message of grace and peace appreciated, an Evangelist cannot look for a maintenance from those to whom he ministers.

And here, Brethren, it is but due to the Church Missionary Society, that I should distinctly state its anxious desire to conduct all its operations, with a view to the permanent establishment of the Church, wherever its Missionaries have been sent. Of this fact, the present condition of the Island of New Zealand is an abundant proof. No one can deny to our Society the blessed privilege of having been instrumental, in the hands of God, in first planting the Church in that Colony. I would state, also, the Society's full conviction, that the only way in which the Church can be ultimately maintained, and its efficiency permanently secured, is by local resources, and native agency. The Society is only standing in its appropriate Missionary character, when it expresses a cheerful readiness to act as a pioneer, and prepare the way; to sow, that others may reap; to labour, that others may enter into its labours; in the full expectation, that, in due time, the several Settlements will be maintained, each by its own converts. Of the Society's views in this respect, its educational labours in the several Missions are the clearest evidence: nay, the Institution at Fourah Bay, for the instruction of Native-African Youths, is established for the accomplishment of this very object. The result of the late Niger Expedition has proved two facts of great practical importance: first, that there is little hope of any extensive good being done in Africa, except by means of Native Agency; and, secondly, that, with due previous preparation, Native Teachers are fully capable of imparting Christian instruction to their Brethren; and, more than that, that the cognizance of these very Teachers having formerly been sold as Slaves, is no barrier to their being very highly esteemed in love for their work's sake, in their Missionary character. While the Society, then, looks forward to the Church being subsequently established in every spot where its agents are now employed, and thenceforth to the carrying out that principle which is scripturally sanctioned,—that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel,—yet its present operations proceed upon the evident presumption, that in the first instance, and for a very considerable period of time, Missionaries must be rendered wholly independent of support from those to whom they go as Ambassadors for Christ.

It is too well known to need any lengthened argument, that there must exist, from various causes, as well as in different degrees, great suspicion against those who are the first to proclaim the message of Salvation to a population which have hitherto been strangers to it. Not to dwell upon the appalling fact, that, in very many instances, the wicked lives of nominal Christians have indisposed the Heathen toward a religion which they have seen thus lamentably disgraced,—as the Apostle says, the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you; independently of this, the Preachers of the Gospel, however blameless and exemplary their lives, when they first settle in a heathen land, are doubtless suspected of having some personal interest in the work in which they are engaged. How should it be otherwise? The mind, untaught by the Holy Spirit, does not, nay, cannot, upon its earthly principles, even understand purely disinterested labours for the good of others. Now, in order to counteract this prejudice, we must render the Missionary perfectly independent of any maintenance from those whom he desires to bring to the knowledge of Christ. He must be able to appeal to their own experience of him, that he has no desire to make a gain of them, but rather to gain them to the Lord. To win souls to Christ must be evidently to others, as well as consciously to himself, the one object for which he lives. It is most desirable, therefore, that he should be as far as possible removed from the necessity of engaging in any worldly occupations, for fear of giving even a semblance of colour to the charge of his having a mercenary object. Missionaries are but men; and as they cannot be supplied by those to whom they sow spiritual things, the temptation to involve themselves in carnal things, that is, in worldly occupations, is necessarily powerful, unless an adequate provision be made for themselves and for their families from other sources. From such temptations,—the strength of which that man who best knows his own heart can most feelingly appreciate,—the Missionary should be as much as possible protected. He should go with a single heart, as well as a single eye, to his Master's service: he should be relieved, as far as it is practicable, from worldly anxieties and cares, that he may give himself wholly, with undivided energies, to his work. The spiritual character and efficiency of a Missionary must suffer loss, just in proportion as his mind is careful and troubled about the supply of his daily bread, or the uncertainty of a future maintenance. I am well aware that it is his duty to rely cheerfully and contentedly upon the providence of God; but still, the fact of its being his duty to cast all his care upon God, does not preclude the use of proper means, on the part of those by whom he is employed, to render his present supply secure, and his future prospects unclouded by solicitude, so far as lies in their power.

Upon this ground, I would commend to your special regard the Fund for the support of the Widows and Orphans of Missionaries: as well as those men themselves, who, having borne the burden and heat of the day, in a peculiarly toilsome portion of the Lord's vineyard, are now disabled from active labour. If it be one evidence of pure religion and undefiled, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction,—and to visit for the purpose of relieving them,—are there any widows, I would ask you, any fatherless children, who have a stronger claim upon Christian sympathy and support? Their widowed and orphan state arises, in the providence of God, from the loss of husbands, or parents, early snatched away from them; whose deaths were occasioned, it may be, by mental anxiety,—it may be, by excessive labour,—it may be, by unhealthiness of climate,—it may be, by the hand of violence, while they were engaged in the Lord's work. Shall we leave them, then, in helpless destitution? Shall we not rather view them as a charge, equally honourable and affecting, committed to us, for the exercise of our faith and love? And is there one here present, so dead to every feeling which should animate a Christian bosom, as to allow a disabled Missionary to return from those duties, in the exercise of which his health and strength are lost, and coldly tell him, that his claim on us has ceased with his ability to labour? No, Brethren, it cannot be: provision must be made, not only for present livelihood, but, if need be, for future support, in the case of those who, in Christ's name, go forth among the Heathen. It is in this way that I would meet the objections made by some persons to our sending out married Missionaries. It is argued, that, of necessity, they care for the things that are of the world, rather than the things of the Lord; but if the fact be, as, upon a view of the whole case, I believe it to be, that it is not good for the Missionaries to be alone; if it be well, generally speaking, that they have helps meet for them; and this not only, nor even mainly, for their personal comfort and assistance, but for effectually carrying out the operations of a Mission among the females and children of the Heathen;—if this be so, the remedy against distraction and worldliness is to be found, not in sending out men who, by the absence of family ties, are more unfettered for their work; but in sending out men who, from having the ties of life themselves, are better able to sympathize with others; and who can exhibit, moreover, in their own domestic circles, a pattern and model to the Heathen, of the charities of a Christian household. And it is no less a wise policy, than it is a clear and imperative duty,—an act of justice, I would say, to those whose income, while employed by the Society, is not more than sufficient for a decent maintenance,—to make such a provision for those whom they may leave behind, as may enable them to be, —as the Lord would have them,—without carefulness.

In every sense, then, Missionaries in the present day should go forth, as they did in the Apostle's time, taking nothing of the heathen; not seeking their supply from those who cannot yet be expected to understand the principle, or value the consideration, upon which they claim it; not affording any ground for the suspicion that they have a worldly object, while they are professedly carrying on a spiritual work; and being kept by you free from every temptation, whether as regards the present or the future, to entangle themselves with the affairs of this life. Surely, if our Missionaries are to exhibit this practical disinterestedness to the Heathen, and are to be really free from all needless cares, a duty arises out of these circumstances, incumbent upon all the professed followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, to assist, as they may, such Ministers, and, through them, the preaching of the Gospel of the grace of God. We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the Truth.

III. This was the third point proposed for our consideration.

The language of the original implies not only a DUTY, but a DEBT. The Apostle Paul felt that he was a debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise; and we, in our day, and according to our measure, should feel ourselves under the same solemn obligation. Not that all are to be Preachers of the Gospel; but all are bound to be fellow-helpers to the Truth, by receiving those who are so;—not indeed by receiving them into our houses, as Gaius did, but by providing that they may be received among the Heathen; and thus enabling the ignorant and perishing to hear the proclamation of the Saviour, Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth! For what is it that we are bound to communicate to the Heathen? It is THE TRUTH. That which they now hold,—be the form of their idolatry what it may,—is A LIE: nay, they change the truth of God into a lie, and this lie they believe. He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand? What, then, is it that can deliver the Heathen from these chains of falsehood?—the truth, and the Truth ALONE, can make them free. We are to give them the Word of God,—Thy word is truth. We are to give them the knowledge of HIM to whom the Word bears testimony, the knowledge of Christ,—I am the Truth. Assuming, then, as I have a right to assume, that, with the solemn injunction of our Blessed Lord before us, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature, no Christian can doubt the duty of imparting its blessed truths to every living soul; assuming, also, that we are agreed upon the necessity of its being proclaimed to the Heathen freely; assuming, moreover, that the Missionary, generally speaking, is not one of those to whom the Lord has given such a sufficiency as would enable him to support himself; and therefore that he must be supported by others, who, though neither called to, nor qualified for, the actual labour of the Missionary, can yet be fellow-helpers to the truth;—the application is direct to the object which I have particularly in view, namely, an Appeal on behalf of the Church Missionary Society.

The purpose and use of such Societies is, to give effect to individual exertion. It is the clear duty of every Christian to make known the Truth to all who come within the sphere of his influence: nay, may we not go further, and say, that it is the invariable effect of the truth, when fully received into the heart, to quicken a desire,—unfelt, because it existed not, before,—to extend to others the same saving and sanctifying knowledge which we ourselves enjoy? The truth is like the sun, which imparts not light only, but a new-creating energy to the earth on which it shines, causing it to bring forth fruit. So the Apostle argues: For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. And what was the influence which impelled them thus to preach? God, he adds, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts; and the man who knows not of any such desire in his own bosom, has too much reason to fear that the light of the knowledge of the glory of God has never yet effectually shined into his own soul. It is not the will of Christ, nor the will of His Father which is in heaven, that any should perish: He will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. We know, with regard to the coming of the Saviour in power and in great glory, that the delay arises from the Lord's long-suffering to the world, as well as for the accomplishment of the number of His elect:—The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. We have the truth; and are we at liberty to withhold it? No. It is a talent committed to our charge, which we have no right to hide in the earth. Who they may be that shall prove to be the vessels of mercy which the Lord hath afore prepared unto glory, we cannot tell. The promise is free to all,—Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. But with what force does the Apostle's argument come home to us! How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? We cannot, it may be, go forth in our own persons; but we can contribute to the support of others thus employed. One individual contribution to the carrying on so great a work may be as a drop in the ocean, yea, as nothing, if taken by itself; but when we have an organized Society, consisting of various members, each with his appropriate office,—some collecting resources, others applying them; some labouring in the missionary field, others preparing such labourers for their work, or assigning and directing their posts and services,—then it is brought within the power, as well as being the duty, of every individual, to be a fellow-helper to the truth. The widow's mite has its value, not only from the principle on which it is cast into the Lord's treasury, but from the fact that a large portion of the Society's resources arises from the aggregate of the contributions of the poorer classes. But it is not merely our DUTY to make known the Saviour's name; it is our highest PRIVILEGE. It should be remembered, that every duty is a privilege to the true believer. The object, the only object, for which he lives, is Christ. It is with him, in his own measure, as it was with his Divine Master, his meat and drink to do his Heavenly Father's will. He can say, according to his faith and grace, I delight to do Thy will, O my God: yea, Thy law is within my heart. Apply this to the case of Missions. The object of them is the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom; and what an honour is it to have any part, however small, in extending the kingdom of God's dear Son!

As the duty is of universal obligation, so is the privilege, enjoyed by all the Servants of Christ, of acting on behalf of their Lord, in making known His way upon earth, His saving health among all nations. If it was an honour, in the estimation of the Apostles, in their own case; if it was urged upon the Philippians, by the Apostle Paul, as a gift, that they should SUFFER for the sake of Christ; surely it must equally be a special favour, to be permitted to LABOUR for His name's sake. Is it no privilege, I would ask you, to be a worker together with God, in causing the ministry of reconciliation to be extended to those who are alienated from God, and enemies in their minds by wicked works? Oh, my Christian Brethren, what an inconceivable honour to one who is himself a poor guilty sinner, saved by grace, to be a worker together with God Himself in that which eternity will prove to be the highest manifestation of His glory, the revealing of His Son! Is it no privilege, to assist in proclaiming to those who have no hope, and are without God in the world, that saving name through which they may enjoy good hope through grace, and become acquainted with HIM whom to know is life eternal, the only true God and Jesus Christ whom He has sent? Weigh well the value of one soul; measure it by the height of that blessedness to which it will be raised, if it be in Christ; or by the depth of that misery into which it will be plunged, if it be not in Christ; and then judge of the privilege of bringing, if it be but that one soul, from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. But the cause which I bring before you involves millions now sitting in darkness and in the shadow of death, whose feet you may be the means of guiding into the way of peace. And is this no privilege? You, my Brethren, have means of glorifying God, by causing His truth to be proclaimed, in the possession of which the Principalities and Powers in heavenly places would rejoice with rapture. There is joy, it is true, in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth; it is their privilege to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation; but the privilege of proclaiming the riches of God's grace to fallen man is confined to those who have this treasure in earthen vessels. To those among you, Brethren, who are real believers in Christ, the blessing of communicating His name to perishing sinners is only secondary to that of having Christ in you, the hope of glory. Next to Missionaries themselves, who stand in the forefront of the battle which the Lord is waging with the Powers of Darkness in the heathen world, whose privilege it is to plant the standard of the Cross in the strongholds of sin and Satan, our privilege —I speak to my Brethren in the Ministry—is perhaps the greatest. It devolves mainly upon us to promote the cause at home; to tell the people of the progress of the work in distant lands; to form plans for the support of Missions; to stir up the rich to give of their abundance; to encourage the poor to expect great effects from small means, in the Lord's cause; and to urge the duty upon all committed to our care. And is this no privilege? I would ask you, then, will you suffer a Society, by means of which you may be fellow-helpers to the truth, to be checked in its progress, for want of your individual support,—a Society which has already been, and is still, employed in the Lord's service, in going among the Gentiles, and, by the preaching of the Gospel, taking out of them a people for His name? If devoted men have bestowed their labours, is it not our duty to minister of our substance? We therefore OUGHT to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth. The special mode in which Gaius answered to this character, was, by courteously entertaining, and bringing forward on their journey, those who went forth in the Lord's name. Our position does not allow us to aid Missionaries in this manner precisely; but there are other ways in which we may be followers of the faith of Gaius, in being fellow-helpers to the truth.

First, By countenancing the cause of this Society.

There was a time, even within the memory of many of you here present, when the duty of sending out Preachers of the Gospel to the Heathen was little recognised, and still less practised; but, blessed be God! that day is past; so that it is now unnecessary to offer any vindication of the principles or proceedings of the Society in behalf of which I now address you. Its PRINCIPLES, I unhesitatingly say, have been strictly those of our beloved Church; by faithful members of which it was originally founded, and has ever since been carried on. It is a voluntary Association, consistent with the principles, acting in conformity with the discipline, and maintaining the doctrines of our Church, in all their integrity, as set forth in her Liturgy, Articles, and Homilies. Of the Society's PROCEEDINGS I would only say, that the manifest and signal blessing, which has rested on its exertions hitherto, sufficiently evidences that the Lord was with us of a truth. But, Brethren, the circumstances of the present time would seem to me to render a deliberate avowal of our continued attachment to the Church Missionary Society neither needless nor unseasonable; and I do, Brethren, for myself, avow, that the more closely I have examined its constitution, its principles, and its operations, the more thoroughly have I been satisfied that they are in accordance with the spirit of that portion of the Church of Christ to which it is our high privilege to belong. Some infirmity of judgment in those who plan, and the same or other infirmity in those who execute its designs, we must expect to find in this, as in every human Institution. To say that none of those who have been connected with this Society have failed, either in principle or practice, would be to arrogate a claim of perfection for which we have no warrant; but that the Society has been endued with the spirit of power, and of love, and of a sound mind, is a blessing which we may justly claim, not for our own glory, but to the glory of His grace, in whose name it has sent forth Preachers of the everlasting Gospel. Nay, more than that:—believing, as in my heart I do, that the interests of this Society are the real interests of our Church, as well as of the Lord and of His Truth, I would express my own full and firm conviction, that so long as the Church Missionary Society is faithful to its fundamental principles, and carries out its plans, so far as human frailty will allow, in accordance with those principles, any failure of its resources will be no token for good to our national Zion. It has not only been instrumental to the spiritual and temporal welfare of the Heathen, in distant lands; but many hundreds can testify, with me, that its Associations, and the proceedings connected with them, have been the means of spreading Scriptural truth, awakening Christian zeal, and confirming Christian principle, in many quarters of our own land. As Gaius, therefore, evinced his faith by the kindness which he exercised to the Brethren, and to strangers, who went forth in the name of Christ, and for His sake; so do YOU be fellow-helpers to the truth, by maintaining the cause of our Society with increased and united energy:—I say UNITED; for how can any Institution stand, much less prosper, if the members of it be looking for those points in which they differ, rather than for those in which they mutually agree? Oh, my Brethren, when shall we ever learn the lesson, that we cannot strive together for the faith of the Gospel, or unite in any labour for the Lord, except we have grace to act upon the principle of forbearing one another in love?

In another way, too, we may be fellow-helpers to the truth; and that is, by supporting the cause with pecuniary aid.

There are millions, in different parts of the heathen world, who are destroyed for lack of knowledge; some of whom have never heard of the one only Remedy for their misery; others, whose very knowledge makes their case the more affecting, for they are praying, like the man of Macedonia seen by the Apostle by night in vision, Come over and help us! And shall we turn a deaf ear to their cry? Surely, if the Apostle's argument has weight in temporal things, much more must it have in spiritual,—Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? To you, Brethren, on whom it has pleased God to bestow the means of being fellow-helpers to the truth in an abundant measure, I would appeal, in the most urgent manner, for your cordial and efficient co-operation. You are stewards of that wealth which the Lord has given you, and you may make the mammon of unrighteousness an instrument in sending light to those dark places of the earth which are full of the habitations of cruelty. If you differ from others in the possession of hereditary property, remember who it was that made you to differ; and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? or, if you be rich through your own diligent and successful industry, remember who it was that gave you power to get wealth. He who committed your present riches to your charge, can as easily strip you of them, if you MIS-use, or fail to use them for the purposes for which they were entrusted to you. It has been truly said, that when the Lord looks at what is given, He compares it with what is left behind, and measures what we bestow by the supply out of which it comes. If thou hast much, give plenteously: if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little. Yes, Brethren, it is equally the privilege of the poor to be fellow-helpers to the truth, in the support of Missions. They should not be discouraged by the reflection that their means of doing good are not equal to those of their more wealthy neighbours: no, rather they should remember, that the Lord can act either with means, or without them; by humble instruments, as well as by those which would seem to be more important: nay, the Lord usually accomplishes His greatest works by the smallest means, that no flesh should glory in His presence. Your contributions, then, my poorer Brethren, however small, if given in faith, will be owned and accepted; yea, blessed of God exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think.

Is it not an affecting thought, Brethren, that insufficiency of funds should raise almost the only barrier which limits the operations of the Society, and should have prevented it from answering at once, with joyful readiness, the appeals which have been made on behalf of the Empire of China? In that vast country, with perhaps a third of the population of the globe within her borders, a great door and effectual is open; and yet the Society has been hitherto straitened, and felt itself unable to proceed; while Papal Rome, who has never failed to follow in our track, wherever the feet of those who have preached the Truth have trodden, and who betrays, if she has not avowed, her object to be, not so much to extend her own, as to oppose the Protestant faith,—in this instance has advanced before us, and is already pre-occupying the field which our arms have opened, with a regularly organized Missionary Establishment.

Our Society felt, and I conceive rightly felt, that it was not justified in withdrawing from other fields already under cultivation, with a view of entering upon new fields, however promising. If a Society were to undertake every new Mission that was proposed, before those which it had already commenced were in some measure consolidated, the necessary effect must be, such an uncertainty and changeableness in all its proceedings, that no confidence could be placed in it, nor could any good be permanently effected. It was upon this ground, and this ground only, that the Society held back, for a time, from undertaking any Mission to China. It felt its first duty to be, to liquidate its debts, to provide for its existing liabilities, and to place its present Missions, as far as human foresight and prudence could accomplish, upon a permanent and expansive footing;—I say expansive; for be it remembered, that in proportion to the blessing of God upon its labours, the expenses of a Mission must increase; Houses of Worship must be built, and a greater number of Missionaries and Catechists be employed. Though the work begins with the preaching of the Gospel, it does not end there. The rising generation must be instructed in the elementary truths of Christianity, as well as the adult population called upon to repent and believe the Gospel. For this purpose, schools must be established and supported; and these will go on progressively multiplying, as the Lord prospers the labours of His servants. Regard must be had to all such circumstances as these, before a new Mission is undertaken, lest we should be forced to leave those stations which we have already occupied, and thereby cause a spiritual famine in those lands to which we have hitherto supplied the bread of life.

But now that it has pleased HIM, whose is the silver and the gold, to supply the Society with pecuniary means sufficient to reduce its debt to a comparatively small sum, and to incline the heart of one of His servants to commence a fund specifically for a Mission to the Chinese Empire, the Society has felt the call to be from God; and I would humbly trust that we do now see the Pillar of the Cloud leading us in that direction. Under these circumstances, the Church Missionary Society is now prepared to go forward, not with hasty and inconsiderate speed, but with measured and careful steps; sending out faithful men, in the first instance, to search out the land, and ascertain the facilities which are likely to present themselves for Missionary exertions. God grant that men may be found, who will enter upon the work in the spirit of Caleb and Joshua! May they be able to bring a good report of the land, as one giving promise of spiritual fruitfulness; and to encourage the Society to expect that there also, under the Divine Blessing, the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ may have free course, and be glorified! But though the beginnings of our Mission to China be but small, yet we confidently believe that the Lord will make our latter end greatly to increase. The Society would appeal, then, to all its friends, to contribute to a separate fund now opened for this special object. At the same time, I would endeavour to impress upon all around me, and particularly upon my Brethren in the Ministry, the duty of exerting our energies on this behalf in such a way that the separate fund may not injure—as is too apt to be the case—the general interests of the Society; that the claims of China may be answered by supplies either additional or altogether new; lest, while we are promoting the cause in one direction, we should haply injure it in another; lest some other quarter of the world should lose what China gains. May we all have grace to act upon the assurance, there is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and that what we give in faith, thereby desiring to be fellow-helpers to the truth, is a loan lent unto the Lord; and that what we have given, He will pay us again!

But before I leave this portion of the subject, Brethren

I would entreat you to unite with me in thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the blessing which He has vouchsafed to the Society, during the past year; in which it has enjoyed a larger measure of pecuniary support than ever was enjoyed by it before. But how are we to view this? Are we to look upon it as having placed the Society above the need of our further exertions? or are we to look upon it as a token of the Lord's favour, calling upon us for continued, yea, greater and more self-denying efforts in His cause? Assuredly, the latter; and we are bound to say, in the language of adoring gratitude, "This is from the Lord." Remember, Brethren, if the Society be carrying on the Lord's work, that work WILL be done. The only question for you and me is this: "Am I to have a share in it?" Oh, my Brethren! if you know the glory of that work in which I now invite you to take your part, there will be no lack of pecuniary offerings; nay, rather, you will come forward in the spirit of those who contributed to the work of the service of the Sanctuary, who needed restraint rather than exhortation. To each of you I say, Go, and do thou likewise.

Lastly—there remains yet one other way in which all, high and low, rich and poor, may be fellow-helpers to the truth; and that is, by prayer. Prayer, as it has been truly said, moves the hand that moves the universe. It is not only to be used as sanctifying every other means, but it is itself a distinct and specific means for the success of Missions. When our blessed Lord Himself declared, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few, what means did He specially direct His disciples to employ? Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth labourers into His harvest. In this way, then, above all others, I would implore you to be fellow-helpers to the truth. "Brethren, pray for us," is the earnest appeal of those who conduct the affairs of the Society at home. "Brethren, pray for us," is the incessant cry of the Missionaries who are labouring abroad. Yes, Brethren, all, all unite in equally intense energy of entreaty, "Brethren, pray for us." In Missionary work, perhaps above all others, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. Yes, beloved Brethren, the success of holy importunity is sure, because the subject of repeated and accumulated promises. The divine decree is likewise sure, secured by the Father's promise to the Son in the everlasting covenant—Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Though the in-gathering of the harvest of the heathen world cannot precede, but is connected with the conversion of God's ancient People, when the Lord shall arise, and have mercy upon Zion, when the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come; yet the preaching of the Gospel, in every previous age, bringeth in the first-fruits, as the earnest of the coming harvest. And every faithful Servant of Christ, in the present day, who goeth forth for His name's sake, taking nothing of the Gentiles, strengthened by those who, striving together in prayer for him, are fellow-helpers to the truth, though his trials be heavy, and he weepeth under their pressure, yet, bearing, as he does, precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

REPORT,

INTRODUCTION.

The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad—was the song of Israel, when set free from captivity: and no more appropriate words can your Committee select, to give utterance to their present feelings. They entered upon their duties at the commencement of the year shackled and oppressed by a heavy debt, and a fearful excess of expenditure. They proceeded in faith and hope, though with fear and trembling. And taking their stand upon the Protestant and Evangelical principles by which the Society had ever regulated its course, they awaited the result of the trial; whether a Society, cleaving humbly but faithfully to these principles, would be rescued from its peril, or be allowed to sink under pecuniary embarassments.

Your Committee now appear before you, at the close of this year of peril and trial, all but relieved from their financial difficulties by the largeness of the contributions which have flowed into their treasury. The income of the year has exceeded £115,000—a sum of unprecedented amount, as the contribution within a single year, in the history of any other Protestant Religious Society in this or any other country. They have now, moreover, to present to you a Report of their proceedings, exhibiting a satisfactory progress of the Mission work in every department of their extended operations. Out of the fulness of a grateful heart, they exclaim, Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy name give glory, for Thy mercy, and for Thy truth's sake!

PATRONAGE.

During the year, the Right Rev. the Lords Bishops of Barbados and Guiana have accepted the office of Vice-Presidents of the Society.

Under this head the Committee have the satisfaction to report His Majesty the King of Prussia as a Member of the Church Missionary Society. His Majesty has graciously presented the Society with a Benefaction of £100, and has become a Subscriber of £25 per annum.

DECEASE OF MISSIONARIES.

The following individuals have been removed from their labours by death in the course of the past year:—Mrs. Weiss, wife of Mr. J. M. Weiss, on the 19th of May last, at Malta, after an illness of some months;—Mrs. Alexander, wife of the Rev. A. Alexander, in May or June, at Solo, of cholera;—the Rev. Christian Frederick Warth, on the 12th of May last, at Nassuck, of cholera;—and the Rev. Thomas Youd, of the British-Guiana Mission, at sea, in June, a few days after his embarkation, on his return home.

RETURN HOME OF MISSIONARIES.

Mr. Nathaniel Denton, and Mr. Thomas Peyton and Mrs. Peyton, left Sierra Leone on the 21st of April, 1842, on account of ill health; and landed at Portsmouth on the 23d of June. Mr. John Ilott and Mrs. Ilott left the same place on the 1st of May last, in consequence of ill health; and landed at Portsmouth on the 26th of June. The Rev. Frederick Bultmann left Sierra Leone on the 30th of August, on a visit home; and landed at Dartmouth on the 20th of October

Mr. Samuel Crowther arrived in London from Sierra Leone, with a view to admission to Holy Orders, on the 3d of September.

Mr. J. M. Weiss left Malta on the 26th of May last, in order to confer with the Committee relative to the Printing Establishment there; and arrived in London on the 15th of June. The Rev. William Krusé left Alexandria on the 27th of September, for the benefit of his health; and landed at Blackwall on the 13th of December.

Mr. John C. Müller arrived in London, from Jerusalem, on the 18th of June.

The Rev. William J. Deerr left Calcutta on the 15th of December last, and arrived at Liverpool on the 27th of April.

The Rev. Charles Blackman, with Mrs. Blackman, left Madras on the 20th of February, 1842, on account of ill health; and landed at Gravesend on the 20th of June. The Rev. Paul P. Schaffter, with Mrs. Schaffter, left Madras on the 24th of August, in consequence also of failure of health; and landed at Deal on the 5th of January.

The Rev. William T. Humphrey's services having been discontinued by the Committee, he arrived in London in February last*.

The Rev. John S. S. Robertson and family left Bombay on the 11th of January, on account of ill health; and landed at Weymouth on the 29th of April.

* A Statement is appended to the Report, explaining the grounds of the Committee's proceedings respecting Mr Humphrey.—See Appendix I.

The Rev. Henry L. Dixon and Mrs. Dixon left Jamaica on the 5th of June, in consequence of ill health; and arrived in London on the 25th of July.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS OF MISSONARIES.

West-Africa Mission.—The Rev. John W. Weeks and Mrs. Weeks arrived at Freetown on the 2d of May last. Mr. John Christian Müller's services having been transferred from the East-Africa to the West-Africa Mission, he embarked at Gravesend, for Sierra Leone, on the 31st of December; sailed from Plymouth on the 5th of February; and landed at Freetown on the 6th of March. The Rev. James F. Schön and Mrs. Schön, Miss A. C. Morris, Miss E. Phillips, and Miss Diettrich, embarked at Gravesend for Sierra Leone on the 22d of April; and sailed on the following day.

Egypt Mission. — The Rev. John R. T. Lieder and Mrs. Lieder sailed from Southampton on the 1st of September, on their return to Caïro; and arrived there on the 26th of that month.

East-Africa Mission. — The Rev. Charles W. Isenberg left London for the Continent in May last, preparatory to his return to Shoa; and in August left Bâsle for Alexandria, there to join the Rev. John L. Krapf, who, having left Ankobar for Aden with the view of accompanying the Rev. John Mühleisen to Ankobar, as suggested to him by the Committee, had come to Alexandria in order to complete a matrimonial engagement with Miss Diettrich. Mr. Isenberg arrived at Alexandria on the 18th of September, where he also met Mr. Mühleisen.

The Rev. Messrs. Krapf, Isenberg, Mühleisen, and Mrs. Krapf, left Caïro on the 17th of October; and embarked at Suez on the 25th of that month for Aden, where they arrived on the 2d of November. They proceeded thence to Tadjurra, which they reached on the 20th of that month: there they encountered serious obstacles to their return to Shoa, which had not been removed at the date of their last Letters, January 27, 1843.

Madras and South-India Mission.—The Rev. John Thomas Tucker and Mrs. Tucker embarked at Plymouth on the 16th of June, and the Rev. Septimus Hobbs, the Rev. Edward Sargent and Mrs. Sargent, with Miss Barton, at Portsmouth on the 26th of that month, for Madras; and arrived there on the 23d of September. The Rev. James J. H. Elouis and Mrs. Elouis embarked at Southampton on the 24th of September for the same place, on his return thither; and landed there on the 20th of December.

Bombay and Western-India Mission.—The Rev. Charles P.

Farrar and Mrs. Farrar arrived at Bombay on the 28th of March, 1842.

New-Zealand Mission.—The Rev. William C. Dudley and Mrs. Dudley, and the Rev. Charles L. Reay, arrived at Sydney on the 14th of April, 1842, and at New Zealand on the 24th of June. The Rev. George A. Kissling and Mrs. Kissling, and Mr. Seymour M. Spencer and Mrs. Spencer, arrived at Auckland, New Zealand, on the 22d of May last. Mr. John Telford sailed from Gravesend on the 23d of May last, for the same Mission.

British-Guiana Mission.—Mr. James Pollitt's services having been transferred from the Jamaica to the British Guiana Mission, he and Mrs. Pollitt embarked at Southampton on the 15th of December, for Demerara; and arrived there on the 14th of January.

North-West-America Mission. — The Rev. A. Cowley and Mrs. Cowley, and Mr. J. Roberts, arrived at Red River on the 28th of September.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

In the course of the year, Seven Ordained Missionaries, Three Catechists, and Two Female Teachers, have been sent forth to the Society's Missions; including Four Ordained Missionaries who have returned to their Stations, and Two Catechists whose services have been transferred to other Missions. Six of these being married, the total number of individuals sent out is Eighteen.

The total number of Labourers engaged in the service of the Society, as Ordained Missionaries, Catechists, and other Teachers, is One hundred and seventy-seven; exclusive of One thousand and eighty-six Native Teachers, and the Wives of the Married Labourers.

ASSOCIATIONS.

The Rev. S. W. Hanna has been re-appointed an Association Secretary; and the Rev. Hugh Jones, Bagillt, has been appointed to that office for Wales and Monmouthshire.

Sixty new Associations were formed in the course of the year 1842, including Seventeen Juvenile Associations.

The Committee gratefully renew their cordial acknowledgments to those friends who have aided in visiting Associations during the past year—a service, the great value and importance of which is every year more manifest. The continuance of this service is therefore most earnestly solicited.

ORDINATION OF STUDENTS.

During the past year, thirteen of the Society's Candidates have been admitted to Holy Orders;—three to Priest's Orders, and six to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of London; one to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of Hereford, on Letters Dimissory from the Bishop of London; one to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of Calcutta; one both to Deacon's and Priest's Orders, by the Anglican Bishop of Jerusalem; and one to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of Guiana.

INSTITUTION.

The progress of this very important branch of the Society's operations continues to afford the Committee strong satisfaction.

The Principal of the Institution thus speaks of its state, in his Annual Report:—

It is found to be the invariable result of inquiry, and of candid reflection, that the Students become more decidedly, because more intelligently, attached to the Constitution and the Formularies of the Church of England. But on the other hand, while a spirit of controversy is studiously discouraged, there is very perceptible among them a wholesome zeal and godly jealousy for the maintenance of the truth of the Gospel. It is attachment to the Church, as reformed from the errors of Popery, and as the pillar and ground of evangelical truth, that is inculcated and cherished.

The Principal cannot conclude his Report without repeating the conviction that the Institution is among the most important parts of the Society's machinery. It seems to be pre-eminently the spring-head of actual Missionary operations. Most earnestly, therefore, would he renew his entreaties, that all who love the work may continue instant in prayer on this behalf—that the salt of divine grace may be cast in at the very source, and that the streams which issue thence may be wholesome and healing as the water of life.

Six Students have been received into the Institution during the year, and Twenty-eight remain under preparation in it.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1804.

Mission Establishment:

11 European Missionaries.	2 European Female Teachers.
1 Country-born Missionary.	35 Native Teachers.
8 European Catechists.	5 Native Schoolmistresses.

General View of the Mission.

In reporting the state and prospects of this Mission after the lapse of another year, the Committee are permitted once more to use the language of thankfulness and hope. They would desire to praise God that no diminution in the number of Missionary Labourers has taken place by death, and that there is every indication that the Divine Blessing continues to rest upon all the Stations. Various remarkable circumstances also lead to the conclusion, that the anticipations of good to other parts of Africa, from the diffusion of Gospel Truth among the very peculiar population of Sierra Leone, are, to some extent at least, about to be realised.

SIERRA LEONE.

Christian Institution.

This Establishment has been carried on with as much efficiency as the very imperfect accommodation afforded by the present dilapidated buildings at Fourah Bay admitted. The number of Students at Michaelmas last was 27. Two had left in order to act as Assistant Schoolmasters, and the vacancies occasioned by their removal had been supplied by others. The Half-yearly Examination took place on the 6th of September, in the presence of the Missionaries. The Students acquitted themselves satisfactorily, particularly in the department of Bible History.

After describing the course of studies pursued by the Youths in History, Geography, Arithmetic, Grammar, and Bible History, the Superintendant remarks, in his Report for the Quarter ending Michaelmas last:—

> While a due attention to study has been enforced, and, I must add, readily given by the Youths, we have never lost sight of the importance of personal Religion. Once a week I give a plain and practical exegesis of a connected portion of Scripture. In this way I have gone over the Epistle to the Hebrews, and am now going through that to the Romans. Great interest is apparently taken in these Lectures by the Youths, and opportunity afforded to press home on the conscience the fundamental truths of the Gospel—man's ruin through Adam, and recovery by Christ, with their attendant doctrines.
> Most of the Students are Teachers in our Sunday School at Freetown, to which they devote two hours and a half every Lord's Day.

The Committee having been for some time strongly impressed with the great importance of this Institution, both with reference to the present circumstances of the Colony and to its bearing upon West Africa at large, have felt the urgent necessity of placing it upon a more efficient footing, and of erecting buildings sufficient for the accommodation of two Masters, and at least thirty Students. As it was computed that the necessary outlay for this purpose would amount to the sum of 2000*l.*, and as the circumstances of the Society did not admit of such an expenditure from the General Fund of the Society, a Special Fund was opened in September last; and an Appeal was issued to the Members of the Society, and to the friends of Africa, for their contributions to this specific object. The result of this Appeal has not yet realised the expectations of the Committee; but, trusting that means will be provided for the accomplishment of an object upon which the efficiency of the Society's labours so much depends, they have it in contemplation to take measures for the erection of the requisite buildings.

Female Education.

Measures have been adopted, in the last year, with a view to carry out more vigorously and systematically the important object of providing a higher degree of education for Native Females.

The Committee have great satisfaction in stating, that, during the recent residence of the Rev. J. F. Schön in Chatham, two Ladies, of considerable experience in tuition, became so much interested in this subject, from their intercourse with Mrs. Schön, that they offered their services for this Mission, and have already sailed, together with Mr. and Mrs. Schön, for Sierra Leone.

Native Languages.

The advantages offered, by the peculiar circumstances of Sierra Leone, for acquiring and reducing to a written form the principal dialects of West Africa, have been frequently dwelt upon. This important object has been kept in view from the very commencement of the Society's labours. But the increased facilities of intercourse now established between Sierra Leone and the interior have called forth more extensive and energetic measures for this purpose. It has accordingly been deemed advisable that the Rev. J. F. Schön should confine his labours almost entirely to this department, and that some other Missionaries should devote a considerable portion of their time to the same object. During Mr. Schön's recent sojourn in this country, he completed and carried through the Press a Grammar and Vocabulary of the Haussa Language — the fruit of his voyage up the Niger, while accompanying the Niger Expedition. He has also superintended the printing of a Grammar and Vocabulary of the Yoruba Language, which had been compiled by Mr. Samuel Crowther, while accompanying the Niger Expedition.

Progress and Results of Ministerial Labours.

The Missionaries have been encouraged, during the past year, by many proofs that the blessing of God accompanies their labours. It is true they have not been without ministerial trials—they have been reminded that they are labouring in a world where tares are permitted to spring up among the wheat; but they have been cheered by the desire for instruction, the progress in knowledge, the consistent conduct, and the manifestation of Christian graces, in many of their people.

Respecting Freetown, the Rev. E. Jones remarks, in his Report for the Quarter ending Dec. 25, 1842—

Our Congregation at the Mission Chapel is an interesting and improving one.

And in reference to the same place, Mr. Beal reported, June 25, 1842—

Our Day School is larger than at any previous period.

Similar Reports are made of other Stations; but the Committee would only refer to the Village of Wellington, which has been almost entirely under the care of a Native Catechist, Mr. John Attarra.

On the 18th of December, Mr. F. Davies, Catechist at Kissey, visited Wellington, respecting which he observes—

As I had not visited this Station for some months, I was exceedingly pleased, after viewing the different classes in the Sunday School, to find that many of the scholars had made great progress in their learning. Great order and attention was observed by the whole school.

The Church was well attended; so much so, that there were many who could not be accommodated inside; but they placed themselves at the windows outside, and all paid particular attention to the whole of the Service.

Out of many instances that might be adduced to show the love of the people for instruction, and the estimation in which they hold the privilege of worshipping God in His Sanctuary, the following account is given by the Rev. C. A. Gollmer, of a Meeting in order to build a Church.

Sept. 12—A bell was heard this morning, as also on Saturday evening last, over all Bathurst. I inquired the cause; and was told that it was to assemble the people in the market-place, in order to ask them whether they were willing to make a collection for a new Church. Being interested in the matter, I went to the market-place myself, where I found a great number assembled. Four of the principal inhabitants of Bathurst, having raised themselves on the butchers' table, addressed the assembly in the following manner:—"My country people! God brought me in this land; and here I was taught the Word of God, which can do good to my soul. The White People"—Missionaries—"come here, not on account of money, but to teach good fashion. Now, my country-people, we come together this morning about the Church palaver. This School-house there cannot do much longer; and then, by-and-bye, we no get a Church: we sit down with our children, and have no place for worship God. Suppose we can try for do something, we can die, and our children can worship there, and can say, Our fathers have done this. The Church Missionary Society will help us; but we must try to help them: and if we put money, the Missionaries all can put money; and so, by-and-bye, we get a Church." After the four Speakers had finished, I also mounted the butchers' table, and addressed them.—All the people who were assembled agreed to make a collection, which it is thought will be, comparatively, considerable. I hope they may succeed in their object, as the present School-house is but a temporary one.

Contributions to the Soicety.

They also manifest a pleasing anxiety for the spiritual welfare of others, and take pleasure in assisting to send the Gospel to others.

At the Annual Sermon and Meeting of the Sierra-Leone Church Missionary Association, held at Freetown on the 24th of March 1842, although very few Europeans were present, the collections amounted to 19*l.* 14*s.* 3½*d.* Mr. Townsend writes—

It was pleasing to observe that many persons of the villages felt deeply interested both in the Sermon and Meeting, some having come fourteen miles to be present.

The total sum forwarded by the Association toward the General Fund of the Society, for the year 1841-1842, was 134*l.* 2*s.* 8*d.*; of which the Liberated Africans contributed 69*l.*

Of one of the poor villagers of Gloucester the Rev. J. Warburton writes, May 2, 1842—

One of the Communicants came to me, after the Missionary Meeting at Gloucester, and presented eight shillings and eightpence, as an expression, she said, of her gratitude to God for His goodness to her, and of the interest which she felt in the good Cause. At a subsequent Missionary Meeting, the same individual gave four shillings and fourpence; making, in all, thirteen shillings during the last three months.

Visits to Afflicted Christians.

That the graces of the Christian character are exemplified in the lives of the Converts, and that they are permitted to enjoy consolation in Christ, the following example will serve to show. M. T. Harding, the Native Catechist at Leicester, writes:—

March 4, 1842—This evening I visited a poor sick man, who said to me, "God is faithful to poor sinners: His goodness and mercy to a poor dying soul like me, who these nineteen years in bed. What pleasure have I now in the world that I should put my trust? for I have no pleasure in my feet, I cannot walk upon them; neither in my hands, for I cannot handle: also my neighbours, they have no pleasure in me; except God and His people, whom He sent time after time to tell me of Jesus. I thank God for sending His people to teach me the way of Heaven."—And he said, "What the Bible says is quite true, that a father will forsake his children, and a friend will forsake his friends in times of trouble; but God will never leave nor forsake His own. This is my hope and comfort in my distress."

The Committee would refer only to one other instance, recorded by Mr. Francis Davies, Catechist at Kissey :—

On the 12th of November I visited John Taylor. He was much altered in appearance, in consequence of his long-continued sickness. On my asking him how he was, he said—lifting up both his arms with difficulty, for the use of those members was nearly gone—" You see that my Heavenly Father is taking down this poor house by little and little; but me no mind, me be glad too much, for me know that He go make me new again." I turned to 2 Cor. v., and read the first verse: For we know, that if our earthly house of this tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. He smiled, and said, " Me look to Jesus, for me long sometimes too much for it; and me say, I no must be in hurry. I must wait till Jesus go call me."

Testimonies in favour of the Good Effects of Missionary Labour in Sierra Leone.

Considerable numbers of the Liberated Africans of Sierra Leone have gone to the West Indies as free labourers, under a system of emigration promoted and superintended by Government. The Committee regard this proceeding with no little apprehension. The tendency of the proceeding is to withdraw from Sierra Leone that portion of its population which is most advanced in civilization; and thus at once to retard its own progress, and to lessen its influence upon Africa at large. The Committee have, however, had the satisfaction of receiving from the West Indies striking testimonies to the good conduct of the emigrants, and to the beneficial results of the education which they have received in the Society's Schools in Sierra Leone*.

Another important testimony is drawn from the Report of a Committee of the House of Commons, of last Session, on West Africa. In April last, a Select Committee was appointed to examine into several subjects connected with the West Coast of Africa. Of this Committee, Viscount Sandon was Chairman. Many witnesses were examined, and the published evidence is very voluminous. The testimony in favour of the good effects of Missionary labour in Sierra Leone was of the most satisfactory character, as the following short Extract from the Report presented by the Committee to the House of Commons will show :—

To the invaluable exertions of the Church Missionary Society, more especially—as also, to a considerable extent, as in all our African Settlements, to the Wesleyan Body—the highest praise is due. By their efforts, nearly one-fifth of the whole population—a most unusually high proportion in any country—are at school; and the effects are visible, in considerable intellectual, moral, and religious improvement—very considerable, under the peculiar circumstances of such a Colony.

The Committee now turn to the Society's operations beyond the Colony of Sierra Leone.

TIMMANEE MISSION.

The Rev. C. F. Schlenker has been enabled, without interruption, to prosecute his labours at Port Lokkoh, in more perfectly acquiring the Timmanee Language, making Translations, and preaching to the people.

Owing to the failure of Mr. N. Denton's health, and his subsequent return to this country, the Rev. D. H. Schmid has been appointed to supply his place. Accordingly, Mr. Schmid joined Mr. Schlenker in April 1842. These two Missionaries, together with two Native Schoolmasters, constitute the Agency employed in this Mission.

Although it is as yet but a day of small things, there is much to kindle expectation, and to encourage hope.

The number of scholars in the school has been gradually increasing. At the end of the year there were 35; viz. 25 boys, and 10 girls: their progress is highly satisfactory. At the end of June last Mr. Schmid wrote:—

> Ten months ago, when I came hither for a change of air, none of the boys or girls understood a word of English, which was only begun with this year; and now I see the greater part of them writing and reading, some of them fluently. In Arithmetic, also, they have made good progress. With their singing, too, I am often delighted. They show, in general, great cheerfulness in learning, as well as in their conduct; which gives us great hope that the Lord will so bless the seed which is now sown in their hearts, that not only they may be brought into the flock of Christ, but also, through them, their relations and friends, yea, all this people.

Divine Service in English is held every Lord's Day in the school-room, when the children, and a few others who understand English, attend. The Missionaries also regularly preach in Timmanee, in the yard of the King's house, and those of other Chiefs, to congregations varying in number from 30 to 60. In reference to these, Mr. Schlenker remarks, July 21, 1842:—

> All my hearers are very attentive, and always thank me at the conclusion for what I have told them. Some of them are regular attendants.

On one occasion, after Mr. Schlenker had been preaching from 2 Cor. v. 19, 20, Ali Kali, the king, said to those who were present:—"All that he tells us is very good: and if we are not doing now what he tells us, we shall one day see each other again, and then we shall say to each other, 'Ah! why did we not do that which White Men tell us that time?'

They have come to this country because they love God's work, and this made them to leave their own country."

The first eight chapters of the Acts of the Apostles have been translated; and the English-Timmanee Dictionary and Vocabulary is completed as far as the letter M.

MISSION OF MR. W. C. THOMSON TO TIMBO.

It was stated in the last Report, that permission had been given to Mr. W. C. Thomson, the Society's Translator and Linguist, to conduct an Embassy from the Colonial Government to the King or Imaum of Foutah. In accordance with this arrangement, Mr. Thomson left the Colony at the latter end of December 1841. After encountering many difficulties and vexatious delays, he succeeded in reaching Timbo. Several communications have been received from him, from which it appears that his undertaking has been greatly prospered. The Native Chiefs everywhere appeared anxious to cultivate friendly relations with Sierra Leone. Free permission to make use of the whole line of road from the sea to the territories of the Imaum had been secured. These advantages had already become apparent, in an increased trade from the interior. During the journey Mr. Thomson constantly kept in view his Missionary character. The Lord's Day was strictly observed. Family Worship was regularly maintained twice a-day. And he bears a high testimony to the Christian conduct of the native attendants who accompanied him from Sierra Leone, as calculated to recommend true Religion to the Heathen and Mahomedan Tribes through whose territories they passed. Several Chiefs expressed not only their willingness, but their earnest desire, that Missionaries might be located, and schools established, in their dominions. Many of them also heartily approved of the plan of sending their own children to the Colony for education. During Mr. Thomson's stay at Timbo, he received an invitation from the King of Bambarra to extend his journey to Sego, his capital, a large town about half-way between Timbo and Timbuctoo. —Sego is situated on the Niger. It was computed by Mungo Park to contain about 30,000 inhabitants. Mr. Thomson could scarcely be engaged in a more important sphere of preparatory Missionary labour; and it is earnestly hoped that, through the Divine Blessing, his journey may open a door of entrance for the glorious Gospel of the Blessed God into the hitherto inaccessible interior of Africa.

MISSION OF MR. H. TOWNSEND TO BADAGRY.

A large proportion of the Liberated African population of Sierra Leone are natives of the Yoruba Country, commonly called Akus. These people partake very strongly of the ardent attachment of Africans to their fatherland. Considerable numbers of them have lately emigrated to Badagry, in the Bight of Benin, which is the most convenient point for entering the Yoruba Country. With this view, several voyages thither have been made in small vessels, the property of the Liberated Africans themselves. Each passenger pays 12 dollars (2*l*.12*s*.), and finds his own provisions. Many of these emigrants are members of our Church; and many more would follow their example, provided they were accompanied by a Missionary, so that they might continue to possess the means of religious instruction.

Under these circumstances, it has been deemed advisable that Mr. H. Townsend should visit Badagry, to see whether any thing of a permanent character can be effected for the spiritual good of the emigrants and the natives—to ascertain the disposition of the King of Badagry to receive Missionaries—and to bring over some intelligent children of the king or other influential persons to Sierra Leone for education. Accordingly, Mr. Townsend sailed on the 14th of November, in a ship called the "Wilberforce," belonging to a Communicant at Freetown. The greatest interest was felt throughout the Colony in Mr. Townsend's undertaking. Mr. Beal writes, Nov. 14, 1842:—

The inhabitants of Freetown would point out to each other "the White Man going to their country;" and many a hearty "God bless you, Massa, and go wit you!" greeted him, as he passed along the streets. The people of Hastings raised an additional subscription among themselves, to pay the passage of one of their own number—a Native Christian Visitor—to accompany Mr. Townsend. And the owner of the "Wilberforce," with a generosity worthy of more general imitation among the more enlightened and wealthier shipowners of England, granted Mr. Townsend a passage free of expense; at the same time expressing his regret that the time did not admit of a "best cabin" being fitted up for his accommodation*.

MALTA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1815.

In pursuance of the course respecting the Malta Mission, the operations of the Society in Malta have been brought to a close. The Press has been sold, together with the Lithographic Apparatus and Type-foundry.

The services of Mr. P. Brenner have been engaged by the Bâsle Missionary Society; and, accordingly, he left Malta for Switzerland in the beginning of September last.

Mr. J. M. Weiss, the Superintendant of the Press, intends to remain in Malta, to carry on a Printing Establishment on his own account.

We regret to say that the health of the Rev. S. Gobat, as well as that of Mrs. Gobat, continues in a very weak state. It is probable, therefore, that they will return to their native country, Switzerland, in the hope that it may be re-established. Should it please God to restore the strength of this valuable and devoted Missionary, the Committee hope that he may find a sphere of usefulness, in making Missionary excursions in Egypt and other Mediterranean Countries.

GREECE MISSION.

COMMENCED 1828.

Mission Establishment:

1 European Missionary.
1 European Assistant Superintendant of Schools.
5 Native Schoolmasters.
6 Native Schoolmistresses.

The Schools at Syra have been carried on without any interruption, under the superintendence of the Rev. F. A. Hildner and Mr. Sanderski. In his Report for the Year 1842, Mr. Hildner remarks—

We have continued to enjoy the protection and favour of Government and the Demarchy; and a most courteous and friendly disposition has been shown by the Local School Commission, whenever it has been their duty to visit our School Establishment, or to be present at the Public Examinations. The Greek Bishop of Syra has also been polite and friendly toward us; and some of the Clergy under him have not hesitated to send their children and relatives to our school. It does appear, also, that we have grown more into favour with the people, and that parents have entrusted their children to us with greater confidence. We have learned that we must not rely too much on such outward advantages; yet we bless the Lord for them, and have endeavoured to testify to the children in our schools, and to grown-up people, that only by His Spirit can they be saved from the wrath to come, and find peace in their hearts.

We had the highest number of Scholars in the month of March, viz. 658; and the lowest in September, viz. 575. The average attendance has varied during the year from 457 to 536. There are six Male and five Female Teachers employed. The whole number taught from the beginning is 3869; among whom are 2054 girls. The whole establishment is in a hopeful condition. We are still, however, in the sowing season, and must patiently wait for the harvest.

Mr. Hildner thus reports respecting the distribution of Publications in the Modern-Greek Language:—

The whole number of books disposed of is nearly 5000 copies, almost all of a direct religious tendency. Among these are about 100 copies of the Holy Scriptures, either the whole of the Old and the New Testaments, or portions of the Old. A good proportion of them have been sent to the Islands of Candia, Cyprus, Scio, Samos, Hydra, and other parts of Greece and Turkey, mostly for the supply of Schools. Several interesting Letters of Thanks for these books have been received. By far the greater part, however, have been given or sold to the children of our Establishment, and of other schools in Syra and the neighbouring Islands*.

ASIA-MINOR MISSION.

COMMENCED 1830.

Mission Establishment:

1 European Missionary.

The more immediate object contemplated in the temporary resumption of Missionary operations in Turkey by the Society was the distribution of the Scriptures, and other books, in the Turkish Language, among the Mahomedans of the Ottoman Empire. The Rev. J. T. Wolters arrived at his Station on the 11th of May last; and took up his residence in the Society's House at Boujah, a village near Smyrna. As the dialect of the Turkish Language, which Mr. Wolters had acquired during his residence in Shusha, before he became connected with the Church Missionary Society, was the Tartar-Turkish, which differs materially from the dialect in use in Asia Minor, his chief employment at first consisted in making himself better acquainted with the dialect which he is now to use. He had, however, opportunities of conversing with Mahomedans, and of distributing books.

On the 14th of March Mr. Wolters gave a very favourable account of what has been done in this department. He observes—

I feel highly encouraged by what has been done in the distribution of these books. A considerable number have been sold; which is certainly preferable to gratuitous distribution, as it much less excites the suspicion of the Turks: and a book which is paid for, it may be expected, will be read. If the sale of the Society's Turkish Books be continued upon the same scale, not many copies will be left at the end of the year. I was glad to read, in a Letter from Constantinople, the following remarks:—"As some encouragement in the case of the Turks, there is, in one direction and another, a considerable demand for Turkish New Testaments." This is the case also, I am informed, in Syria*.

EGYPT MISSION.

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries.	5 Native Schoolmasters.
1 European Female Teacher.	3 Native Schoolmistresses.

Owing to ill health, the Rev. W. Krusé left Caïro on the 1st of August last, on a visit to Europe. The Rev. J. R. T. Lieder, having been admitted to English Orders in this country, returned to Caïro on the 26th of the same month. There he had the pleasure of finding the Rev. Dr. Tattam, who was visiting Egypt with a view to obtain the sanction and assistance of the Coptic Patriarch to the printing of the Scriptures in Coptic and Arabic, the Arabic Version being that recognised in the Coptic Church.

In a Letter dated December 26, 1842, Mr. Lieder thus describes his Favourable Reception at Caïro.

Our reception at Caïro, especially in the quarter of the Copts, was of a most cheering and satisfactory nature. Hundreds of individuals thronged to our house, to express their joy at our return: not only the poor, to whom particular care had been shown, but persons of all ranks. On the 28th I visited the Coptic Patriarch, by whom I was received with much joy and respect: he arose, came half way to meet me, and embraced me three times. In the evening we were informed that the Patriarch intended to pay me a visit next day; but my house being in no way prepared to receive such a personage, I declined the honour. The next day the Patriarch sent to my house three Bishops, to welcome me in his name.

The School Establishments of the Society at Caïro, especially the Female department, I found in a satisfactory state.

In a Letter dated Feb. 18, 1843, Mr. Lieder mentions that a friendly correspondence had been opened between the Coptic Patriarch and the Anglican Bishop at Jerusalem.

Coptic Institution at Caïro.

Measures have been taken to re-model the Society's Seminary at Caïro, in order more especially to adapt it to the wants of Coptic Youths intended for the Ministry of that Church. The number of pupils will be at present limited to twelve or fifteen, who will board in the Establishment.

It is the hope of the Committee that this Institution may be instrumental, under the blessing of God, in diffusing throughout the Coptic Church such a measure of Scriptural truth, that, by means of the Copts themselves, it may eventually be purified from the very grave errors which at present so painfully characterize it. At the date of the last accounts there were seven Students in the Institution; and Mr. Lieder was looking forward to its being formally opened in the presence of the Patriarch and other Ecclesiastics of the Coptic Church.

EAST-AFRICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1829.

Mission Establishment:

3 European Missionaries.

THE direct operations of this Mission have been interrupted during the past year, by various causes. Several preparatory measures of importance have, however, been completed; and if the three Missionaries now seeking to enter the country of Shoa should meet with a favourable reception, there is every reason to hope that the Mission will be carried on with efficiency, and, by the blessing of God, with success.

One event has taken place, the results of which, if faithfully and fully carried out, will have a most important bearing on future Missionary operations in this country. On the 16th of November 1841, a Treaty of Friendship and Commerce was concluded between Capt. Harris, on the part of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain, and the King of Shoa. This Treaty provides for British subjects security of person and property, as well as freedom of movement in and beyond the Shoan dominions.

Until about the middle of March 1842, Mr. Krapf was enabled to prosecute his labours in Ankobar, in superintending the School which he has established, in holding conversations with the people, and in translating the Scriptures into the Galla Language. In addition to the Four Gospels and the Acts, which had been previously sent home, he has completed the Translation of the Book of Genesis and the Epistle to the Romans into the Galla Language.

In the midst of the strife on unimportant and subtle questions by which the Abyssinian Church is distracted, it is refreshing to find that the desire for the pure Word of God, which was noticed in the last Report, continues to exist.

In a Letter dated Dec. 14, 1841, Mr. Krapf appeals for a large supply of Amharic and Ethiopic Scriptures, and remarks—

> There are always many people who come from a distance in order to get a copy of the Word of God; and I am obliged to send them away, because I have no books, either in Amharic or Ethiopic.

In a subsequent Letter, dated Feb. 28, 1842, after acknowledging the safe arrival of a considerable number of Bibles and of other books in Amharic, he writes—

> I am most thankful to the Father of all Mercies, and also to the Committee, for these gifts; as they contribute, in a great measure, to the successful pursuance of the Missionary Cause in this country. While writing these lines of acknowledgment, I hear more than 100 voices without-doors, crying for books, with more boisterous eagerness than was formerly the case upon the arrival of Amharic or other books.

It is very satisfactory to observe, in a great many instances, that most of the Shoans who have got Parts of the Holy Scriptures endeavour to make use of them. A number of the Learned, and Teachers of Abyssinian Youth, have expressed to me their hearty thanks for the copies of the Holy Scriptures which I have given them, and have assured me that they make use of them in instructing their pupils.

Mission to the Gallas.

Mr. Krapf speaks favourably of the prospects of carrying on Missionary labours among the Heathen Galla Tribes. "A real commencement of this kind," he observes, "has only been delayed on account of the Brethren not having been able to come to my assistance."

Journey of Mr. Krapf to Arkeeko and Alexandria.

The Committee had suggested to Mr. Krapf the desirableness of his proceeding to the coast, in order to assist Messrs. Mühleisen and Müller in their efforts to reach Ankobar. The circumstances of the Mission, however, prevented him from acting on that suggestion; but having occasion to visit Egypt on his private concerns, he determined to proceed thither by Gondar and Massowah, in order that he might ascertain what prospects of carrying on Missionary operations presented themselves in the other provinces of Abyssinia, and what degree of encouragement to such efforts might be looked for from the new Abuna, and from Oobieh, the king of Tigrè. This journey, however, proved to be a most difficult and eventful undertaking. The hardships which Mr. Krapf had to endure were very severe. On one occasion, he was treacherously seized, imprisoned, and deprived of all his property, by a Chief of the Wollo Gallas, who had a short time previously entertained him with great hospitality. Having been delivered from these dangers, he at last reached the coast of the Red Sea, by Arkeeko; from which place he proceeded to Alexandria, finding that Messrs. Mühleisen and Müller had left Aden, as stated in the last Report. Here he was subsequently joined by the Rev. C. W. Isenberg and the Rev. J. Mühleisen.

Translations by the Rev. C. W. Isenberg.

Mr. Isenberg, previous to his departure from this country, had translated and carried through the press the Amharic Liturgy, and several other important works in the same language.

Ordination of Mr. J. Mühleisen.

Mr. Mühleisen arrived at Alexandria, as just reported, from Jerusalem, where he had been admitted to Holy Orders by the Anglican Bishop. Mr. Müller, who was Mr. Mühleisen's companion in his former attempt to reach Abyssinia, had previously expressed a strong disinclination to continue in the East-Africa Mission; and the Committee had accordingly offered to him the alternative of returning to this country. Of this proposal he availed himself: and he has since been appointed as a Catechist to the West-Africa Mission, and has sailed for Sierra Leone.

Respecting Mr. Mühleisen, the Bishop thus wrote, in a Letter dated Jerusalem, April 29, 1842:—

> I am extremely happy to inform you, that, finding him all I could wish in almost every respect, I ordained him Deacon on the 17th instant, at our Chapel on Mount Zion. He was thus the first admitted by me to Holy Orders; and it was truly an interesting and solemn occasion.

In order that Mr. Mühleisen might be enabled to avail himself of the society and assistance of Messrs. Isenberg and Krapf, in proceeding to the scene of their future labours, the Bishop kindly consented to hasten the period of his admission to Priest's Orders; and the Ordination accordingly took place on the 31st of July. "The occasion," observes the Bishop, "was, if possible, still more interesting than the first, when he was admitted Deacon. I am sure it left a lasting impression on him, and on all present."

Proposed future Course of the Missionaries.

From Alexandria, the three Missionaries proceeded to Aden, where every assistance was kindly afforded them by Capt. Haines; and afterward they crossed over to Tadjurra. Here again many obstacles were interposed in the way of their proceeding to Shoa, and they were detained there and at Zeila up to the period of the last accounts*.

CALCUTTA & NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1816.

Mission Establishment:

1 Lay Assistant Secretary.
23 European Missionaries.
2 Indo-British Missionaries.
1 Native Missionary.
7 European Catechists.
3 European Schoolmistresses.
3 Indo-British Catechists and Schoolmasters.
102 Native Catechists and Teachers of all classes.

CALCUTTA.

DURING the last year, the Rev. Messrs. T. Sandys, J. Innes, and J. Long, have resided in Calcutta. The Rev. J. C. Thompson, though no longer a Missionary of the Society, has kindly superintended the labours which are directed toward the Mahomedan Population.

Congregations.

At Trinity Church, Mirzapore, Divine Service has been regularly conducted in the Bengalee Language; and during the last year there appears to have been an improvement, both in numbers and spirit. Mr. Sandys writes, in his Report for the year 1842—

I have reason to hope that many of the Native Christians have made advancement in the ways of the Lord, growing in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The usual congregation consists of 200 Native Christians, and between 40 and 50 Communicants.

Education.

The Schools for Native-Christian children contain 40 boys, under the superintendence of Mr. Sandys; and 34 girls, under Mrs. Sandys, with the assistance of Miss Wilson.

The Rev. J. Long superintends the School for the education of native boys in the English Language and in the principles of true religion, which contains 150 pupils.

The Alipore School, about three miles from Calcutta, is gradually regaining its former numbers, which now amount to 130. Mr. Long writes, in his Report—

Every month's experience and observation add to my convictions of the great importance of Calcutta as a Missionary Station, and centre of light to the surrounding country. Brahminism is receiving its death-blow in Calcutta.

And again, in a Letter dated Oct. 15, 1842—

Of my scholars, 150 in number, four-fifths merely take lodgings in Calcutta, for the purpose of attending school. Their parents live, perhaps, 50 or 100 miles in the country.

When not engaged in scholastic duties, I am generally visited by educated young men. Since I have come to Calcutta I have had conversations with hundreds of that class.

The English Language is spreading with the velocity of a torrent in this country, and particularly in Calcutta. The works of Hume, Paine, &c., are extensively read. A youth, whom I well know, and whom I was some time since advising to read Paley's Evidences, replied, "I have read Paine's Age of Reason once: when I have perused it a second time, I shall then read Paley, as my mind will be in a better condition for weighing evidence." The Government allow of no introduction of Christianity into their Schools, so that a Christian Education is given only by Missionaries. How important, then, that at the present time special efforts should be made for Christian Education!

Out-Stations.

The labours of Native Catechists, under the superintendence of the Missionaries, amidst the villages south of Calcutta, have been blessed with much success during the last year. The number under Christian instruction, residing in about eighteen villages, amounts to 300. They assemble for worship at Thakerpooker, Raspunge, and Ramnugar, at each of which Native Catechists are located; and once a month they all meet at Thakerpooker. "At my last visit to Thakerpooker," writes Mr. Sandys, "forty-two received the Holy Communion; and, so far as can be ascertained, adorn their Christian profession by walking according to the Gospel."

Baptisms.

The total number of persons baptized during the year, in connexion with the Calcutta Mission, was 96; of whom there were 31 men, 28 women, and 37 children. These were nearly all admitted on two occasions at Thakerpooker, on the 2d of September and the 11th of December. In reporting the first of these occasions, Mr. Sandys writes, September 8, 1842—

I had the Candidates brought up to the Font in families; so that, as Lydia was baptized and her household, and as Paul baptized also the household of Stephanas, these believers in the Lord Jesus were baptized with their households.

Kadir and his wife Bejaree, with their little boy and girl, first came to the Font, reverently answered the questions proposed, and were baptized in the name of the Holy Trinity. Then came Okure—whose father was the first Native baptized by me, Nov. 2, 1830, when lying on his death-bed, at Kola Gachea, near Raspunge—and his two children; his wife having died, without baptism, some time ago. Next came Gonasam, with his wife Sagoree and their son. Gonasam has been a Candidate for several years; and when I once visited him in his own dwelling, I was much pleased with his mild, contented manner, and his industrious habits, as well as his apparent seriousness in learning the way of Salvation.

Among the families thus brought up, were Koochil, his wife Topa, three sons, and a daughter; Bejaree, a widow, and her three sons—in all, ten family groups, comprising forty-seven individuals.

Hindoostanee Department.

In the Hindoostanee or Mahomedan department of the Mission, the last year's Report presents an equally encouraging aspect. The Rev. J. C. Thompson, though no longer supported by the Society, has still his heart in this Mission, and bestows as much of his time and labour as he can command in promoting its interests. He has two Native Catechists under his directions. The attendance at the Chapel has advanced from 40 to 50, of whom 23 are communicants. During the past year, 6 have been baptized. It must be remembered that these converts have been brought out of the strongest delusions which enslave the native mind—the delusions of Mahomedanism; and therefore it is the more cheering to receive Mr. Thompson's testimony, that with respect to the character, life, and conversation of those in this Church there is the greatest cause of rejoicing. They are most regular in their attendance on the public Ordinances of the sanctuary, are correct in private life, and many of them seem to have the love of God shed abroad in their hearts.

AGURPARAH.

The Mission at this Station has been under the Rev. J. F. Osborne, who has been incapacitated by illness from labouring as he could have desired. The Mission has consequently languished during the last year: the number of Native Christians at the Station has been diminished, the number of Communicants reduced from 40 to 30, the Congregation from 130 to 80, the Heathen Boys' School from 60 to 50. An English School at Rajahat, and 2 Bengalee Schools connected with the Station, have gone on satisfactorily.

BURDWAN.

This Station, which is one of the oldest in connexion with this Mission, has been conducted by the Rev. J. T. Linké, assisted by the Catechist, Mr. De Rozario.

The enclosure of the property contains not only the requisite Missionary Buildings—a Church, Schools, and houses of residence—but also a village, in which Christian families reside apart from Heathenism, and under the eye of the Missionary.

Twenty Native Christian families, comprising 75 souls—independent of the Missionaries and of 69 boarders, 31 boys and 38 girls, in the Orphan Schools—constitute this interesting Establishment.

The Missionaries have also regularly attended at the Chapels in the populous city of Burdwan, to proclaim the Gospel to the Heathen. The Rev. J. T. Linké writes, in his Report for the year 1842—

> The attendance has been, upon the whole, encouraging; though we cannot say much of the effects produced. A stirring upon the face of the dark waters of the Hindoo Nation, that gives a prognostic of the breaking forth of light and life and order, is, however, evidently observable. Oh, may the word of Omnipotence, Let there be light, be speedily followed by its effects upon every soul of man that sitteth in darkness and the shadow of death!

The number of Baptisms during the last year has been 2 adults, 9 elder orphan girls, and 5 infants.

The case of one of the adults, related by Mr. Linké in a Letter to the Ven. Archdeacon Dealtry, dated Burdwan, Dec. 5, 1842, was of such a marked and satisfactory character as to afford much encouragement. It is the case of a young Brahmin of a respectable family, 25 years of age, well educated, clever, and intelligent. At the age of 11 years he was initiated into the ceremonies and rites of Brahminical superstition. Upon reaching his 18th year, when he attained his majority, he again submitted to new religious ceremonies customary at such a time, and dedicated himself to the worship of a particular deity. For between three and four years he travelled to the various shrines of this goddess, and performed different ceremonies and religious acts, which were to secure his life and happiness; but at length, seeing no possible benefit to be derived from such a life of austerity, he engaged in trade, though still retaining peculiar reverence for his appointed goddess, and worshipping her at every place where he met with any of her many and various images.

During his travels, he had heard the preaching of the Gospel at different times and places, but had seldom paid any attention to it; and when he did, it was only to contradict and to cavil. At length, at Purneah, he received the Tract, "What Scriptures are worthy of our regard?" the reading of which, in a degree, arrested his attention. At Berhampore he received a copy of the Gospel of St. Matthew; but was little interested by it. At another time he entered into conversation with a Converted Brahmin, who removed his objections, and overpowered him with arguments in favour of the Religion of Christ. For another year, however, no decided impression was made upon his heart. One evening he passed by the Chapel in the city of Burdwan, in which the Society's Catechist, Mr. De Rozario, was speaking, with whom he afterward entered into conversation, and accepted his invitation to visit him at his house. From this time he began to think more seriously on the subject of Religion. He obtained the Four Gospels, which he carefully read at home; and became a stated attendant upon the preaching of the Gospel. All his doubts were gradually removed; and he was filled with joy, and a hope of good to come. His friends and neighbours soon began to oppose and persecute him; till he took refuge in the Mission Enclosure, and, after due instruction and examination, received baptism. "He resides," Mr. Linké adds, "under our roof, spending most of his time in reading the sacred volume. The prayer and desire of his heart is, to become an able and useful instrument in the hand of Christ his Lord and Saviour, for the conversion of his benighted countrymen."

KRISHNAGHUR.

The Committee would offer a few remarks before they enter upon the report of the Krishnaghur Mission. The remarkable awakening which took place four years ago in this district has not been extended during the last year, according to the sanguine expectations which some may have formed; and many, who appeared anxious to be placed on the list of Inquirers, have since drawn back.

The exact number of the baptized has not been reported; but they may be computed, at least, at 3000: 660 of this number have been added during the last year, chiefly from the districts of the Rev. Messrs. W. J. Deerr and A. Alexander; Mr. Deerr having baptized 300 converts, Mr. Alexander 230, the Rev. C. H. Blumhardt 79, the Rev. C. W. Lipp 28, and the Rev. C. T. Krauss 26. All of these converts had been for one, two, or three years, on the list of inquirers.

The Baptized Converts are scattered through many villages, in which they reside among Heathens and Mahomedans. The villages have been distributed into five districts. In each district a resident Missionary is located: in each a Church is either built, or is in the course of erection; and also Boarding Schools for the children of Native Christians. The expenses of the erection of the Churches and Schools, and of the support of the boarders, are defrayed by local subscriptions.

The labour of the Missionaries has been almost wholly bestowed upon the pastoral superintendence of their congregations; which, it must be remembered, consist of recent converts, suddenly called out of the gross darkness of heathen superstition and vice, and seldom possessed of that decision and energy of character which are found among Europeans.

It must not be forgotten, that so far back as Oct. 1839 the Bishop of Calcutta, in his valuable Letter to the President of the Society, warned the Committee of the imminent dangers which would beset these infant Churches, both from the weakness of the native character, and the instability and inefficiency of Native Catechists.

Boarding Schools for the Christian Children.

No plan can afford a better hope, under God, of establishing and enlarging the blessed work commenced in Krishnaghur, than that which has been adopted of connecting Boarding Schools with each Station, in which the children, being removed from the evil influence of their heathen neighbours, may be brought under a regular course of instruction, under the eye and superintendence of the Missionary himself. We may thus hope to see a body of rising Youth, with well-furnished minds, from whom Catechists of a superior class may be raised, and, in the course of years, a Native Ministry.

KRISHNAGHUR—Mr. Blumhardt reports respecting his Station:—

On a retrospective view of the work, during the past year, it is with unfeigned gratitude that I recall the Lord's mercy, in the blessings which He has bestowed upon my labour, and in the forbearance which He has exercised toward the Native Converts committed to my charge, under the manifold weaknesses which some of them have manifested with regard to their spiritual welfare. Many have been the blessings of the Lord; and among them I reckon this the chief, that the past year, compared with the two preceding years, has been a year of peace. The cases of oppression by the Landholders have been few, and have not been marked by that persecuting spirit which formerly characterized them. A friendly disposition seems also to exist, on the whole, in the minds of the Heathen toward our Christians. Throughout the whole district the message of Salvation is proclaimed, and discipline and harmony observed by all the Brethren in their proceedings; so that the characteristic of our labours during the past year has been PEACE.

SOLO—The Rev. A. Alexander reports respecting his Station at Solo—

The various duties in this district have been carried on by myself, 2 Catechists, and 10 Readers. These Native Assistants read the Holy Scriptures at some village, morning and evening, and conclude with prayer; except on Saturday and Lord's Day, when they themselves receive instruction; and on Monday morning are sent to their work for the week. I visit the villages myself as often as I can.

On Lord's Days the congregation at Solo is generally encouraging. Many of the people come a distance of three, four, and five miles, for Divine Service. These are converts from whom I derive much comfort; but numbers are careless and indifferent. The present number of communicants is 46, and I believe their conversation to be such as it becometh the Gospel of Christ: they are never absent from Divine Worship, and think nothing of distance. I have known some of them also to endure injuries with perfect patience.

ROTTENPORE—A third Missionary, the Rev. C. W. Lipp, reports respecting the division of Rottenpore:—

While it is to be lamented that the majority of those who some years ago became Christians in name show little desire for Christian instruction, and still less exhibit by their life a converted heart, yet there are some who appear to be touched by the grace of God, and who may prove, in the end, that the work of love and patience has not been in vain among them. At all events, having pitched our tents in the very midst of them, Hindoos, Mussulmans, and Christians have a fair opportunity to judge of our Holy Religion; and the seed of the Gospel is spread abroad.

CHUPRA—The Report of the Rev. W. J. Deerr, the father of this Mission, is of a more sanguine complexion:—

If I now take a retrospect of somewhat less than twenty-five years, it is surprising to see what God has done for India. Let those testify of it, who saw what it was then, and what it is now. The progress of Christianity in India is, however, not yet so visible upon a superficial view; every thing being as yet in its infancy, and the seed, as it were, just springing up. But, speaking now of what has passed before my own eyes, I have ample tokens that the work of Regeneration has begun among some, though not the whole number of converts. My own district is now pretty well supplied with Native Teachers. Most of them reside on the Mission Premises, and every morning assemble with the first class of the school for instruction. They receive an exposition, by the Missionary, of a chapter in the New Testament, in regular course. In the afternoon, they go, at stated times, to their respective villages, to give instruction, and perform the evening devotion. On the Lord's Day, Divine Service is performed in the Chapel on the Mission Premises by the Missionary, and in the villages by the Readers.

BENARES.

The Rev. W. Smith and the Rev. F. E. Schneider have during the last year laboured at this Station, together with Mr. Mackay, an English Schoolmaster. At the close of the year, Mr. Schneider removed to Agra, and the Rev. G. Stolzenberg succeeded him.

Direct Missionary Work.

No Christian Congregation has, as yet, been gathered from among the Heathen at this Station. Public preaching to the Heathen, and conferences with individuals, have been carried on without interruption, and there is an evident work of preparation in the minds of many. Mr. Smith writes, in a Letter dated September 6, 1842—

Besides our Schools and Seminary, we have six Chapels, and three or four smaller Preaching-places, in which I am chiefly engaged. The congregations generally are good; and sometimes a powerful impression seems to be made; but, with the exception of three or four individuals, I know of none seriously impressed. Oh! were I to come home, I would tell the good people of England, that it is not they—not the subscribers—who should require flaming reports, fine speeches, &c., to encourage them to give a small portion of their substance; but it is we, your poor Missionaries, who are spending our strength and our all, without seeing any fruit—it is we who need encouragement. The difficulties with which we have to contend are fearful: and now that I know the Natives, and understand their habits, ways of thinking, &c., so well, they appear to increase in magnitude the nearer they are approached. Oh, the stretch of Faith that is required to believe confidently that Benares will yet become a Christian city! Yet I am quite sure that a very great change has taken place in the sentiments of the inhabitants generally, in respect to Religion. They manifest, on most occasions, a wish to avoid entering on any defence of their own religion; and express their unfeigned approbation of ours, at least so far as they can without flagrantly condemning their own. I have several persons who may be looked upon in the character of Inquirers.

Missionary Journeys.

The following deeply-interesting notices occur in a Letter from the Rev. W. Smith, dated Benares, Jan. 11, 1842:—

I have lately been on a Missionary Tour through the Mirzapore and Rewah Districts; and, have in several instances, been greatly interested.

In the first village at which I stayed, fourteen miles from Benares, I met with an old man, who was melted to tears while hearing of Christ's love; but, alas! when I went again in the evening, the poor man was busily engaged in lighting the lamps for the Dewali, and could not be prevailed upon even to come near us. He had doubtless been considering, or had been told by others, the dreadful consequences of becoming a Christian: and hence seemed to be labouring, by greater assiduity in his idol-worship, to stifle whatever convictions had been raised in his mind in the morning. This, I have reason to believe, is by no means a solitary case. There are many, I doubt not, who, while fully convinced of the truth of Christianity, finding they must literally forsake all—for to this, in the majority of cases, they would be compelled—to follow Christ, shrink from the fearful sacrifice, and are glad to hide themselves in the crowd of Satan's followers; foolishly attempting to comfort themselves with the idea, that, if they perish, they will not perish alone. I remember one man telling me, that if he should become a Christian his father said he would kill himself. Oh, how much earnest prayer and supplication should be constantly offered up by the Church in behalf of this people! Light is fast breaking in upon them; but they dread it—they flee from it, not merely because their deeds are evil, but because, if they embrace it, all men will hate them, persecute them, and do them every injury in their power.

In the next village which I visited, I met with a Brahmin, a very pleasing character, whom I have known for several years. He immediately recognised me, and seemed very happy to see me. We sat down on a charpoi (bedstead), and about twenty persons from the village soon collected around us. We had a most interesting conversation: truly, if ever I felt my heart softened while speaking of the Saviour's love, it was on that occasion. Tears trickled down the Brahmin's cheeks, and I could with difficulty refrain myself. Every one present was as silent as death; and as I was describing how we worship the Father through the Son, and receive an answer to our prayers, strength to support us, and peace and joy in believing, while we rejoice in hope of the glory of God, the Brahmin could restrain himself no longer: he rose, and sobbed out, "I'll try! I'll try!" and immediately took his leave. He has read the Gospel, and understands it; and I would hope that the Lord has indeed touched his heart. Many other cases I could mention; but am fearful of saying much, having seen so many whose goodness has been as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away.

Education.

The Free School, supported by the endowment of Jay Narrain, but under the care of the Missionaries, has been conducted by Mr. Mackay. The number of scholars, composed of Heathen and Mahomedan boys, has been somewhat increased; the number reported last year amounting to 144, but this year to 180.

Mr. Mackay reports—

There is a very good spirit manifested by the boys on all occasions, and a considerable desire for learning; which was particularly shown when an extra lesson was proposed to be introduced without increasing the school hours. On this occasion, the boys, with one voice, said they would remain in school another hour, in order to get that lesson without losing any which they already had.

The Orphan Establishment.

The expenses of this Establishment are borne by a separate fund; but the Missionaries have charge of it. The number of males is about 100, and of females 43. Several intermarriages have taken place between the Orphans, during the last year.

Mr. Smith reports—

In some of them I feel assured that our many anxious desires will be realized, and our fervent prayers answered, in their growing up sound Christian men, and intelligent and faithful Preachers of the Gospel. A few of the females, also, we have reason to believe, have the grace and love of God in their hearts.

JAUNPORE.

At this new Station the Rev. R. Hawes has laboured during the last year. He writes—

I am in the habit of taking my position on the famous bridge leading into the city of Jaunpore, and there conversing with the Natives, and distributing copies of the Gospels and Religious Tracts. The people listen attentively, and gladly receive the books which I take for distribution. Though I have no case of decided conversion, some have begun to read and inquire.

Education.

Mr. Hawes has also the superintendence of a School, supported by local subscriptions, at which between 80 and 90 Heathen and Mahomedan Boys are instructed.

CHUNAR.

The Rev. W. Bowley, assisted by five Native Catechists or Readers, still labours zealously at this Station, notwithstanding the increasing infirmities of age.

The members of the Native Congregation have continued their attendance on the Public Ordinances. The number of Communicants exceeds 50. But during the last year the number has been reduced by death more than in former years; and among these were some of the oldest and choicest of the Native-Christian flock. One of them, Mrs. Bowdel, was among the first who attended the ministrations of the Missionary in 1816. The Missionary writes—

The whole tenour of her life was that of a true Christian: she was unostentatiously pious, peaceable, zealous, affectionate, full of good works, and, in short, a burning and shining light to all who knew her. In the death of this poor woman the Native-Christian Church of Chunar has sustained a severe loss, since she was a rare Christian, a living Epistle of Jesus Christ. May He compassionate us, and raise us up others in the Church Militant to fill the place of His departed ones, to the praise and glory of His grace!

Mr. Bowley made his annual visit to the fair at Baliyá, and, during his journey, to the villages on both banks of the Ganges. He writes—

The whole district within twenty miles of Chunar, east and west of the river, was also perambulated, and the Gospel preached to its numerous population. In fact, a greater range has been this year taken than in previous tours; for the Soan River was crossed, and the country penetrated as far as Daudnagar, an extensive town in the Patna District. Three bullock-loads of Scriptures and Tracts, chiefly in Hinduwee, were distributed; and it was very encouraging to the Missionary to behold the eagerness with which the people came forward to be supplied with the Word of Life, particularly in the populous towns of Daudnagar and Arrah.

During this visit, Mr. Bowley met a young man of a respectable Hindoo family, who in his boyhood had been for two years under the tuition of Dr. Duff and his colleagues in the General Assembly's Seminary at Calcutta. The young man, understanding that Mr. Bowley was the author of a version of the Bible which he had received, sought an interview with him, for the purpose of having some of his doubts resolved. His inquiries after Christianity excited the anger and persecution of his father, who was a rigid idolater. He hesitated for some time; but one evening, as he was returning home, absorbed in the thought of the hold which the world was getting upon him, he picked up an English Tract, and read, What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? The spell with which he had been hitherto bound instantly gave way; and that same evening he left his home, and, travelling double stages, arrived in eight days at Chunar. He now devoted all his waking hours to the diligent study of the Scriptures, and was finally baptized.

Education.

The Orphan Establishment, supported by local funds, contains 26 boys and 15 girls. There are also an English School, a Persian School, and an Hinduwee School; containing about 80 boys in the whole.

GORRUCKPORE.

The Rev. J. P. Mengé takes charge of the duties connected with the Church and Girls' School at Gorruckpore; and the Rev. J. C. Wendnagel superintends the Farm and Native Christian Colony. Mr. Mengé has been chiefly occupied, during the last year, in acquiring the language.

The Christian Settlement comprises 17 families and 5 widows, and 48 orphan boys. The whole community assemble for Morning and Evening Prayers in the Church. The Missionaries report—

> In our work, we mourn to be obliged to confess that our encouragements have been few, and our discouragements many. The kingdom of Christ is here, as everywhere in its beginning, like a grain of mustard-seed; but still we trust that, by its inward power, by the power of the Word of God, by the preaching of Christ crucified, its end will be also, in this Station, great and glorious.

AGRA.

The Rev. Messrs. C. T. Hœrnle, C. G. Pfander, and F. A. Kreiss, have laboured at this Station during the last year. The Rev. F. E. Schneider removed to the Mission at the close of the year from Gorruckpore. There are 4 Native Catechists, and 2 Readers, employed.

In the city of Agra there is a Chapel, at which a small Native-Christian Congregation assembles, of 20 or 25 individuals. There is also one lately erected for preaching the Gospel to the Heathen and Mussulmans. The Missionaries, with their Catechists and Readers, are also employed in going among the people, and addressing them at bazaars, in the public streets, and in surrounding villages; and in distributing the Holy Scriptures and Tracts. On such occasions, some are generally found to listen attentively, though little fruit has hitherto appeared. Only one adult, a Hindoo young man, has been admitted into the Christian Church during the last year.

There is an English School, superintended by the Missionaries in the city.

The Native Schools, which were mentioned in the last Report as supported and superintended by the Missionaries in different parts of the city and neighbourhood of Agra, have been for the most part relinquished, owing to the failure of local contributions. Only three of this class remain, comprising 92 scholars.

At Secundra, six miles from Agra, another branch of the Mission work is established. Here there is a Church, an Orphan Institution for boys and girls, and a colony of sixteen Native-Christian Families, the majority of whom are young people who have married from the school, and are either employed in its vicinity, as agriculturists, or in the Institution. The boys' department numbers 161: their time is alternately employed in scholastic exercises, and in learning some useful trade. Eleven trades are taught; such as, printing, carpentry, stone-masonry, &c. The boys are taught English, Hinduwee, and Oordoo. The elder and more hopeful are instructed by the Missionaries on Theological subjects, with a view to their becoming Catechists or Preachers, should grace be imparted. In the female department there are 116 girls: they are taught domestic duties, manual labour, the rudiments of education, and religious exercises. A printing-press has been established, which in a measure affords support to the pupils.

MEERUT.

The Rev. R. Richards, after fourteen years' service at Meerut, has been compelled to seek a renovation of health in a change of climate. The Rev. Anund Messeeh has therefore undertaken the charge of the Church and Congregation, which numbers 150 attendants, of whom 50 are Communicants. The Committee of the Meerut Church Missionary Association thus record their sense of Mr. Richards's labours:—

> The poor Christians of Meerut lose a very kind Pastor, and one who was always accessible and courteous. Of late years, Mr. Richards's health prevented activity, or going out to preach; but he was always to be found at his own house, ready to communicate: and with unwearied assiduity, he led the Worship of the Native Christians around the Mission Premises, both in the Chapel called St. Paul's, which he was mainly instrumental in raising, and in his own house.

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1814.

Mission Establishment:

1 Clerical Secretary.
1 Lay Assistant Secretary.
20 European Missionaries.
1 Indo-British Missionary.
3 Native Missionaries.
3 European Catechists.
412 Native Catechists and Teachers of all Classes.

MADRAS.

THE Rev. J. J. H. Elouis having returned to India at the close of the year, after a temporary stay in England for the recovery of his health, has resumed his labours at Madras, among the heathen population of that city. Four Catechists and nine Schoolmasters are employed, under his superintendence. Twelve persons have been admitted by baptism into the Christian Church during the last year, of whom one was an adult Jew of independent property.

Institution.

The Madras Institution has been conducted by the Rev. J. H. Gray. The general behaviour and progress of the pupils, six in number, have been highly satisfactory. Two have, in the course of the year, gone out as Catechists, to labour under the superintendence of Missionaries.

TELOOGOO MISSION.

The Rev. Messrs. R. T. Noble and H. W. Fox, with Mr. Philip B. Gordon, are devoting themselves with much energy to preparatory measures for direct Missionary labours among the Natives speaking the Teloogoo Language. Mr. Fox has been obliged, on account of ill health, to withdraw from Masulipatam for a time; but Mr. Noble and Mr. Gordon have resided there throughout the last year. It must be remembered that the Mission work has, in this instance, to be taken up from the very commencement. Notwithstanding the peculiar claims of the Teloogoo Country, from its being one of the oldest British territorial possessions in India, having been ceded in the year 1765, and having remained in a state of almost uninterrupted peace to this day—notwithstanding the peculiar inducements to Missionary enterprise, from the fact that the people are one of the most interesting and hopeful classes in South India, possessing a greater manliness of character and independence, stronger natural affections, and less of deceit and dishonesty than most of their fellow-countrymen—notwithstanding, moreover, that one of the greatest hindrances to the progress of Christianity in India, the connexion of the Government with the idolatry of the people, does not here exist to the same extent as in other parts of the Madras Presidency, as the Temples are ordinarily under the management of the Natives themselves, without any interference on the part of the Company's servants—notwithstanding all these advantages for Missionary labour, it is a melancholy fact, that no Clergyman of the Church of England has ever yet been known to have preached to one of the ten millions speaking no other than the Teloogoo Language, or to have written a Tract in that tongue.

This Mission has excited, as might be expected, a peculiar interest among the Christians of the Madras Presidency, and considerable local resources have been contributed specially for its support.

TINNEVELLY.

The Report of this Mission for the present year is of a somewhat different character from that presented at the last Anniversary. It has pleased God to sift and purify these infant Churches by a violent persecution, which was raised by the Heathen against the Christians, and by which many Inquirers were driven back into the ranks of Heathenism, many Schools reduced, and the Heathen generally deterred from listening to the instructions of the Christian Teachers.

The statistical account of the Tinnevelly Mission for the last year gives the number of Inquirers as 13,604, which is 6000 less than last year. But this defalcation is more than balanced by an increase in the number of baptisms, which have been 1221 in the course of the year: so that the number of baptized persons now amounts to 6552. The Communicants have also been increased above 200 in number, and are reckoned at 1178. The number of villages from which applications for Christian instruction have been made is 315, being 127 less than last year.

The number of Schools is 120, being 10 less than last year. The number of Scholars is 3634, showing a decrease of 1000.

The Rev. J. Thomas, in his Report of the Meignanapooram District for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1841, states—

While things were going on prosperously, a bold and reckless persecution broke in upon us, and threatened to overturn, not only the work which had been done recently, but that which had stood for years against less furious assaults. That many influential Heathen had viewed with rancorous apprehension the progress which Christianity was making, was evinced on various occasions; but none of them had the boldness to organize a system of opposition. Subsequent circumstances, however, led to the establishment of something quite new among the natives of these parts, namely, the "Viboothi Sangam"; that is, the "Ashes Society," the members of it being required to swear by the sacred ashes, the badge of Siva's followers, that they would be true to the old religion and to the customs of the country, and firm in their opposition to Christianity. It was not, however, enough for these zealots to seek the continuance of that support which had so long been rendered to keep the tottering fabric of Hindooism from crumbling to the dust: they resolved also to commence a systematic and vigorous persecution against the Christians, and, if possible, to exterminate Christianity from the land. Prayer-houses were pulled down, houses robbed, Catechists and people turned out by force from Places of Worship, persecuted with false complaints, and unjustly treated by the subordinate Heathen Officers of Government, whose duty it was to protect them.

About one thousand souls, after having come within the precincts of Mercy, were drawn, or rather forced, back again. It is, however, a gratifying fact, that none who had been any length of time under Christian instruction went back during our troubles, and not one baptized person.

The Rev. P. P. Schaffter writes, in his Report of the Northern District for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1841—

The opposition to the Gospel, from the Heathens, has been violent—in one instance amounting to open persecution. While some of the Catechists and other Christians of the Zemindary of Ootoomalei had met together at Kamanoor for the purpose of edification, a troop of armed men, led by the Headman of the Zemindar, surrounded and entered the church in which they were assembled, and flogged and ill-treated them—one of them, the old Catechist Ignatius, to such a degree, that his life was for some time in great danger. I might mention more instances of the Christians having been insulted and ill-treated by the powerful among the Heathens.

During the latter part of the past year, the violence of these persecutions seems to have abated; and the Missionaries, in their Report of the Palamcottah District for the half-year ending December 31, 1841, are able thus to notice the good effects which have resulted from these trying dispensations:—

We are truly thankful to say, that, notwithstanding all who have been forced back, a very large increase remains over last year's account of souls brought regularly under the influence of Christian Truth and the daily means of grace. We believe, too, that this trial has been, and will be, of great service to the Christian congregations, in teaching them the source of their strength, quiet confidence in the Lord, and patient suffering for His sake.

Another good effect has been, an evident sympathy, throughout the Christian body, for those thus exposed to trial, extending wherever the news of the opposition had reached: and thus we trust that unity of feeling, termed "the communion of saints," has been promoted by these afflictions.

The Rev. J. Thomas writes, in the Report of his district for the half-year ending June 30, 1842—

Many persons, and those in villages where the majority have gone back to Heathenism, remain immoveably attached to Christianity, notwithstanding severe loss and suffering, which they have borne with surprising fortitude. Although the love of many has waxed cold during our troubles, I can say, with gratitude, that the love of many more has increased for the Faith, on account of which they have been called to suffer.

The labours of the Missionaries also appear to have been directed, with increased energy, to the internal discipline of their congregations, and to the attainment of a more intimate personal acquaintance with their converts. The Committee regard these objects as of supreme importance. In the Report just quoted, Mr. Thomas writes—

My intention is, with the Divine assistance, to direct all my efforts to instruct fully, and baptize as soon as I can, all who are at present in the position of Candidates for admission into the Church—in a word, to form in every considerable village a well-disciplined congregation, giving it the advantages of all the Services of our Church, and the Sacraments, and my own labours as often as practicable.

Another Missionary, the Rev. John Devasagayam, writes, in his Report of the Satankoollam District for the half-year ending June 30, 1842—

One of the great and important objects that I shall attend to more, is, to watch over our people, that they conduct themselves as Christians, which will have its blessed effect on those around them.

To add one more testimony of a similar kind, taken from Mr. Thomas's Journal:—

Aug. 22, 1841—It may serve to give an idea of the internal state of the Pragasapooram Congregation, if I mention a circumstance which occurred immediately after Service. The Catechist and principal men in the congregation came with a person whom I had excluded for some months from attendance at the Lord's Supper, on account of disrespectful conduct toward the Catechist, tending to bring him into disrepute among the people. He seemed deeply sorry, and to have suffered greatly in mind on account of his exclusion. When he asked for pardon, I admonished him with tenderness from the passages in St. James on the government of the tongue, and spoke on the necessity of order in the House of God, which is His Church. He wept bitterly, and said that since his exclusion he had been most wretched, and that his health was quite gone. I was sorry for him, and yet glad that he had been made sorry after a godly sort. He is to be re-admitted to the Lord's Supper to-day.

Palamcottah Seminary.

This Seminary has contained from 24 to 30 Students. Several have been placed under the Missionaries, as Readers or Schoolmasters. It is remarked, in the Report for the Half-year ending June 30, 1842—

All the boys learn English, and the rudiments of an English education; and Scriptural knowledge, principally through the medium of their own language. The first and second classes learn Latin also. The first class are reading Jewel's Apology. In English Grammar and reading they have made respectable progress. The conduct of all has been satisfactory.

Religious Societies—Church-Building Funds.

The different Religious and Benevolent Societies supported by the Native Converts in Tinnevelly have continued to prosper during the last year. The Tamul Book Society have published a Translation of Watts's Scripture History. The Tamul Tract Society issued, during the year 1841, 53,000 Tracts, and 20,000 Hand-bills. The Pilgrim Society still supports two Native Readers; of whom it is remarked by Mr. Schaffter, in his Report of the Northern District for the Half-year ending Dec. 31, 1841—

They have been travelling, as usual, through the northern and darkest regions of this province, announcing Him who came to be the light of the Gentiles, and distributing Tracts among their countrymen. They have been supported almost entirely by the free contributions of their fellow-Christians of the Northern District.

Of the Meignanapooram District Mr. Thomas writes, in his Report for the Half-year ending June 30, 1842—

The people themselves have a District Poor Fund, every congregation contributing; out of which many poor Christians are clothed, and, in extreme cases, relieved with pecuniary assistance. The Church Missionary Society contributes nothing to this object.

But, perhaps, the most pleasing testimony to the sincerity of the converts is afforded by the interest which they take in the Church-Building Funds, which have been established upon the principle that every person shall contribute annually the amount of his best day's income. This scheme, first suggested by the Native Converts themselves, has been adopted in several districts. One church has already been erected by means of this fund, and assistance has been rendered to repair or enlarge several others.

The Rev. G. Pettitt gives an account of the opening, on the 1st of June 1842, of Tathankoollam Church, being the first church erected by the aid of the Native Church-Building Fund. The internal dimensions are, 32 feet long and 18 feet wide; the walls 12 feet high; the chancel 10 feet by 6; the roof tiled. It is substantially built; and accommodates the whole of the congregation, containing 90 souls; and will be large enough, even should their number increase. A stone is inserted in the wall over the front door, bearing this inscription in Tamul—"This was erected by the aid of the Asirvadapooram Church-Building Fund, 1842."

The following account is given by the Native Presbyter, John Devasagayam, of the opening of this church:—

At twelve o'clock we commenced Divine Service. I read Prayers. Mr. Thomas preached from Exod. xx. 24—I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee. Mr. Pettitt administered the Lord's Supper. My feelings, to see a well-built church, covered with tiles, raised from the contributions of my Native Brethren, and to perform Divine Service to an attentive congregation, and to partake at the Lord's Table with those, several of whom I know will meet me in the Kingdom of Heaven, I could hardly express. It was most gratifying to me to see almost all hands in the church eagerly stretched out to lay their mites in the plate: several women put them through the feeble hands of their infants. The Collection, I hear, amounted to above five rupees.

Female Teachers.

To those who know the difficulties attending the work of Female Education in India, and who know also the degraded and miserable condition of that large class of females, the widows of India, it will be peculiarly gratifying to learn that an attempt is made in Christian Tinnevelly to employ widows, in teaching adults, females, and children.

The Rev. John Devasagayam writes in his Journal, May 16, 1842—

We found the widow doing her duty diligently. More than 70 women are at present daily instructed by her; and the number will greatly increase in July, when their hard Palmyra work will cease. This widow, above 30 years old, was some time employed by my wife as a schoolmistress: we supported her chiefly to employ her, when opportunity offered, to teach those of her sex in the congregations, like Udavikkary's female assistants at Tranquebar. These female assistants have been of great benefit to the congregations in that place. May the Lord grant His blessing to this new plan introduced into our congregation! I allow her at present a rupee and a half monthly.

Another instance, also from Mr. Devasagayam's Journal, will exhibit the employment of Female Teachers in connexion with a new and interesting feature; viz. the introduction of the self-supporting principle into the Mission:—

Aug. 8, 1842—After Morning Prayers at Anugragapooram, I informed the Inspecting Catechist that it was my intention to dismiss the Schoolmaster here and in several other places, and several Catechists, in consequence of the intended reduction in our pecuniary allowance; and I advised him to do his best to induce the people to come forward with their contributions. I was afterward informed that they had promised to pay a part of the Schoolmaster's salary; and requested me not to dismiss him. In order to encourage them—and hoping also that their good example will have a favourable influence upon other congregations—I complied with their request, and promised to pay the Schoolmaster half his salary. The same plan was also adopted by our people at Suganagaram, who promised to pay their Schoolmaster one rupee monthly. Several women also engaged to collect two rupees monthly, and pay four women, at half-a-rupee each, to teach Prayers and Catechisms in the congregations where the Assistant Catechist is dismissed, or the Catechist has two or three congregations to instruct. These four women are to come with the Schoolmistresses every month to Satankoollam, to be instructed and encouraged in their duty. We trust that the Lord, who despiseth not the day of small things, will graciously bless our endeavours.

TRAVANCORE.

COTTAYAM.

Cottayam College.

The Bishop of Madras, in his published Journal, thus speaks of the College:—

I feel most warmly interested in the prosperity of this Institution, looking upon it as a nucleus of Christian Education for the whole province. There is a neat Chapel, in which Divine Service is performed every morning and evening; in the morning in Malayalim, and in the evening in English. It is delightful to me to attend these Services, and almost throws me back upon the days of Oxford. This morning I confirmed 14 of the Students. In Mr. Chapman the Society has a most valuable co-adjutor; and I look forward with confidence to the time when, under his faithful and judicious superintendence, this little Institution will assume a most important and influential character, as a training-place for a future Native Church-of-England Clergy.

Owing to the fear occasioned by the pecuniary difficulties of the Society, and the uncertainty respecting the College property, the Rev. J. Chapman has allowed the number to be reduced, by abstaining from the admission of new pupils as the old ones removed. At the close of the year there were 70 pupils. Mr. Chapman is not able to speak with much encouragement of any of the present pupils. He writes, in a Letter dated July 11, 1842—

I seem to be just where I was when I first came. From one cause or other I have lost my best and forwardest pupils, and am now going over the same ground again. Of the work for which I long—training for the Ministry—I have none, and can hardly name the time when it may be looked for. Should the happy day ever come when the Syrians shall seek the truth as it is in Jesus, the Principal of the College, be he who he may, will then have a delightful though difficult office. May the Lord hasten that day!

Cottayam Village.

The populous Village of Cottayam is under the care of the Rev. Benjamin Bailey; who, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated July 19, 1842, takes an affecting retrospect of his past labours—

I am now the oldest Missionary engaged in the service of the Church Missionary Society, having first come out in 1816.... When I look back upon the length of time during which I have been engaged in the sacred Ministry, and see to what little purpose I have laboured, I have reason to feel deeply humbled. The weakness of my faith has doubtless been the cause of my seeing so little fruit. The promises of God are Yea and Amen in Christ Jesus, and He is faithful that promised. Oh for more faith in those precious promises!..... I cannot, however, refrain from just alluding to three important objects which the Lord has enabled me to accomplish, in the prosecution of my Missionary labours. The first is, His graciously sparing me to complete the translation and printing of the whole of His blessed and holy Word in the Malayalim Language; the second is, the translation and printing, in the same language, of our incomparable and Scriptural Liturgy, which is now in use throughout our Malayalim Mission; and the third is, the erection of a neat and substantial Church to the honour of His holy name. I trust that my other Missionary labours have not been wholly in vain, though I have not been permitted to see much fruit arising from them; but the divine seed, which the Lord has enabled me to sow, will, through His blessing, eventually produce fruit to the honour of His holy name, though it be after I am removed from the scene of my labours.

The Church, which this venerable Servant of the Lord mentions with so much true Christian humility, is thus spoken of by the Bishop of Madras, in his late Visitation:—

The first place I visited was Mr. Bailey's new Church, which he is building with admirable taste, after a design of his own. The style is pure Gothic; and when finished, it will be one of the finest Churches in India.

This Church was opened in July last. The whole Services were in Malayalim. Five Missionaries were present, and a Congregation of 800 persons. The Lord's Supper was administered to 84 Communicants.

In a Letter lately received from the Bishop of Calcutta, after he had made his Metropolitan Visitation of Travancore, his Lordship writes—

The Syrian Church Missions are prospering. I have been preaching in Mr. Bailey's fine noble Church, the glory of Travancore—the whole area covered with devout hearers from Cottayam and the neighbourhood. My text, Col. iii. 16, Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom. Congregation about 600. Hallelujah!—What would Claudius Buchanan have said in 1806, if he could have foreseen that in thirty-seven years five English Churches—for such is the fact—with thousands of attentive hearers, would be raised?

All the Missionaries have Schools. What a mass of good for the next age!

The Rev. J. Johnson assists Mr. Bailey in his duties on the Lord's Day, and also, as far as his engagements with the College permit, in visiting and preaching during the week.

There are four Schools in the village; at which Cottage Lectures are given, and at each of which the attendance is between twenty and thirty.

Cottayam District.

This Mission, under the care of the Rev. H. Baker, comprises two villages.

During the last year it has met with some discouragements, through the relapse of a few of its members into Heathenism, and the disappointment of hopes in other quarters. Nevertheless, "there has not been wanting evidence that the presence and blessing of God rest upon it." The Schools and the Congregations have afforded satisfaction. A new Church has been erected at Pallam, of the size of one of the largest Syrian Churches, but fitted up, within, like an English Church.

In the Report of this District for the Quarter ending March, 1842, it is remarked, as a peculiar feature in the Travancore Mission—

The Churches are built before the congregations are gathered. This seems to be necessary, because there is no class or caste of people in Travancore that has not a Church or Temple of some kind or other; and these, in general, substantial and well built.

Though it may be some time before the Churches are filled, and the congregation able to support a Native Clergyman among them, they serve as the centre of operations for the surrounding villages. The children of the Day Schools attend Divine Service at the Church on Lord's Days; and their parents are often, through them, brought to hear the Word of God.

MAVELICARE.

The labours of the Rev. J. Peet in this "lion's den of idolatry," as it has been aptly termed, have been continued without interruption. He has four congregations; and about 300 of his own flock, who have come out of the corrupt Syrian Church, and joined the Church of England. His occasional hearers, and inquirers after the Truth, are very numerous.

Mr. Peet writes, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated March 31, 1842—

Upon the whole, the state of the Mission is healthy and prosperous.

Among the Syrians, opposition to the pure Religion of Christ is still very great. It is, however, no less true, that the eyes of many are widely opening to the evil consequences of idolatry, prayers for the dead, and other unscriptural practices. So much is this the case, that several congregations of the surrounding Churches are completely separated on these subjects: some have entirely given up image-worship and prayers for the dead, and in one or two places images are not carried about as formerly.

MALLAPALLI.—There is an Out-station connected with Mavelicare, the circumstances of which are peculiarly encouraging. Mallapalli is a forest village, situated upon the verge of civilized life, upon a range of the Travancore Hills, about 50 miles from the coast. All beyond is resigned to the beasts of the forest; and the village itself is not unfrequently the scene of consternation and death, from the inroads of wild elephants, tigers, and other beasts of prey. The people were, a few years ago, fierce, brutal, and ignorant; but frank, open to conviction, and free from that base cringing spirit which so generally characterizes and disgraces the Natives of India. The sound of the Gospel was heard with joy in this wilderness and solitary place; and a congregation of above 200 have been gathered, under the Ministerial care of a Native Clergyman, who continue firm to their Christian principles, whose consistency does credit to their holy faith, and whose simple fervour of devotion would gladden the hearts of all who look and pray for the full coming of Messiah's reign.

These rustic converts have proved their attachment to the Truth, by subscribing nearly 500 rupees toward erecting a Church; which, by aid from other quarters, has been partly raised, and was opened for Divine Worship in September last, under a temporary roof, to an overflowing congregation. All the Missionary Brethren in Travancore attended on the occasion, and 600 Natives afterward partook of a frugal repast.

When we reflect how many of the more civilized districts of India have refused the Gospel Message, it would seem as if the decree were already pronounced, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my House may be filled.

ALLEPIE.

The Church at Allepie has been lately enlarged. The congregation numbers 500.

Of Allepie the Bishop of Madras thus speaks in his Journal:—

Allepie is evidently a very important Missionary Station. The population is large, and of almost every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, as being the principal trading port of Travancore. Among such a mingled multitude, it is indeed a blessing to find our Church firmly established, and her spirit-stirring Offices uninterruptedly performed; and the church-tower rising, not proudly, but holily, eminent in the very heart of the town, high above every other building, is a joyful and pleasant thing. There is a good bell and a good clock in the tower; and the whole has an appearance delightfully English.

I went with Mr. Hawksworth to see a little Chapel, or Prayer-house as they call such buildings here, about two miles from his residence. A small native flock is assembled here for Divine Service every morning and evening. How delightful is it to find these little fountains of Truth in this thirsty land! Had we Churches, or money to build them, our Missions might be extended to almost any length and breadth in Travancore.

In a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated August 12, 1842, the Rev. J. Hawksworth writes—

In reviewing the past half-year, I feel encouraged, and desire to be grateful. If the congregations have not considerably increased, I believe they have improved. There is, I think, increasing attention at church, more quiet consistency, and more of family prayer. No mark of caste or heathenish usage is at all tolerated; the out-schools are flourishing; the Bible is more valued—its excellence is acknowledged by very many Heathens—Romanists and Syrians now come to purchase it—and some Mahomedans near me are now reading the New Testament. Such are some of the encouragements to increased exertions, at the very time that the state of the Society's funds compels us to curtail our efforts. But the Cause shall still progress. When we cannot labour, we may yet cry, "Send forth Thy Spirit, O Lord!"

COCHIN, AND TRICHOOR.

The intention of transferring the head-quarters of this Mission from Cochin to Trichoor was explained in our last Report.

Two school-rooms, and a residence for a Missionary, have been built at Trichoor, and considerable progress made in the erection of a Church. The Rev. H. Harley removed to the new Station in January, 1842.

Mr. Harley's congregations, at the close of last year, numbered 100 baptized hearers and 38 candidates for admission into the Protestant Church, from among the Heathen, and the Syrian and Roman-Catholic Churches.

The following extract from Mr. Harley's Journal will show the degradation of the female character where true Christianity is unknown:—

March 6, 1842: Lord's Day—I held Divine Service this morning; and a congregation of forty persons collected, of whom many have not yet joined our Church, I am happy to find, however, that the fears and apprehensions which most of these men had, in the first instance, in attending Divine Worship, have given way; and I would humbly trust that God's holy Word may, through the powerful influence of the Holy Spirit, find its way into the hearts of some. They are backward, however, in bringing their wives to attend Service, for fear of the derision and scorn which they may incur from others. This is the next point which I shall endeavour to gain. Before commencing Prayers, therefore, I spoke to them very seriously upon this subject; reminding them, that women have souls to be saved equally with themselves; and earnestly requesting them in future to bring their wives, that they also may join in hearing the words of Eternal Life, and become partakers of that salvation which Christ has purchased for us by the shedding of His blood.*

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1820.

Mission Establishment:

5 European Missionaries.
2 European Catechists and Schoolmasters.
20 Native and Country-born Schoolmasters.

The Society's Stations in Western India are still in the incipient stage of Missionary operations. The Missionaries, both in Bombay and Nassuck, are persevering in their patient and faithful labours—as the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain. They have hitherto reaped but little fruit, and can scarcely discern its promise.

The advantages which have been gained, have been chiefly the formation of Schools, the Translation of the Holy Scriptures and of Religious Tracts; and that increased respect and attention to Christian Truth which form an important vantage-ground for future operations.

During the past year no cases of conversion to Christianity have been reported.

Under these circumstances, it is pleasing to find that the Missionaries can encourage themselves in the Lord; and, like soldiers of one army, can rejoice in the victories gained by their fellow-soldiers in separate and distant parts of the great field of action. The Rev. J. S. S. Robertson writes, in a Letter dated June 14, 1842—

* Further accounts of the Madras and South-India Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for June 1842, pp. 131 — 140; July 1842, pp. 155—160; and November 1842, pp. 250—263.

† Reprinted from last year's Return.

When I look to what is now going on in Bengal and the South-India Missions, and think on the little promise they also once gave, I thank God and take courage; and say, to ease my desponding heart, "The day of the Lord in Western India will also come."

BOMBAY.

The Rev. G. M. Valentine devotes two days in each week to the Money School; and avails himself of all opportunities of addressing the Heathen, and of distributing Tracts and the Holy Scriptures, both in the city and the neighbourhood.

Education.

The Money School has been ably conducted by the Rev. J. S. S. Robertson. The average number of scholars has been between 80 and 90.

Hitherto, the Youths have usually left the school at an early age, as soon as they had acquired sufficient knowledge of the English Language to undertake situations in Government or mercantile establishments. But during the last year an important advantage has been given to the school, by the institution of three Scholarships, of an amount sufficient to induce Youths of promise to remain at the school, and pursue their studies with a view to their becoming Native Teachers. These are called the Farish Scholarships; having been instituted by the friends of James Farish, Esq., late a Member of Council at Bombay, as a testimony of their high respect for his long and zealous labours in behalf of the moral and religious improvement of the native population.

The two Converted Brahmin Youths mentioned in former Reports of the Nassuck Station are still maintaining their Christian profession, and studying under the Missionaries at Bombay with a view to Missionary employment. Sorabjee, the Converted Parsee, is an Assistant Catechist at Ahmedabad, a Station belonging to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.

The labours of Mr. Sargon have been very useful in superintending the Mission Schools scattered about Bombay and the neighbouring villages, in reading and expounding to Heathen servants in Christian families, and in holding weekly discussions with the Beni Israel in the Hebrew School.

At the close of 1842, the number of Schools in connexion with Bombay was seven, containing 454 boys and 10 girls.

Bombay, independently of its importance as one of the Presidencies of the Indian Empire, has a peculiar interest, from its connexion with Africa, chiefly as the route from Europe to Asia by the Red Sea becomes daily more and more frequented.

Thus, during the last year, four Abyssinian young female slaves, having been brought to Bombay, were liberated, and placed by the Magistrates under the care of Mrs. Valentine; and are now under education in her school, with a fair porspect of improvement.

Two Abyssinian boys were also entrusted to the care of the Rev. J. S. S. Robertson.

Two Jews also, from Madras, staid for a fortnight at the Mission House in Bombay, till they could procure the means of conveyance to Jerusalem; whither they were proceeding, under convictions of the truth of Christianity, and desirous of being admitted as members of the Christian Church, under Bishop Alexander, at Jerusalem.

NASSUCK.

Three Missionaries are labouring at this Station. The Rev. J. B. Dixon is sedulously employed in the translation of the Holy Scriptures into the Mahratta Language. He has carried through the Press the Prophets, and the Poetical Books from Job to Canticles inclusive. In December, the Pentateuch was ready for publication. Mr. Dixon also spends a part of his time in preaching the Gospel to the Heathen from house to house; and during a few months in the year makes Missionary tours in the district.

The Rev. C. P. Farrar returned in the course of the year, from a visit to England, to resume his labours at this Station. He has made tours to some distance from Nassuck, to preach the Gospel, and to distribute the Scriptures and Tracts.

The Rev. C. C. Mengé labours among the Mahomedan population of Nassuck, who speak the Hindoostanee Language.

Education.

The Schools in connexion with this Station, mentioned in former Reports, have been, for the most part, suspended, in consequence of the pecuniary difficulties of the Society at the beginning of the year. The Orphan Boarding School has been given up from the same cause; and its younger inmates have been transferred to the charge of the Rev. George Candy, Missionary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, at Bombay*.

CEYLON MISSION.

COMMENCED 1818.

Mission Establishment:

9 European Missionaries.	129 Native Catechists and Teachers of all Classes.
2 Native Missionaries.
1 European Lay Agent.

THE Society occupies four Stations in the Island of Ceylon. At each Station there are two or more Missionaries, and numerous Schools.

At Cotta there is a Christian Institution, where a number of Youths, of good promise both for piety and capacity, selected from the other Schools, are boarded and educated, with a view to their becoming useful Schoolmasters, Catechists, and Assistant Missionaries.

There are Seminaries at Nellore and Baddagame, from which Youths of good promise are selected for the Cotta Institution.

From a "Brief Statement," dated September 17, 1842, drawn up by the Missionaries principally for local circulation, we make the following extract:—

The prospects of the Mission are encouraging in all its branches of labour. The Congregations, though in some places small, are very attentive. The School Children and Seminarists are making creditable progress in the acquirements both of religious and general knowledge. The Youths at the Cotta Institution show as good a capacity for acquiring knowledge, and as great a thirst for it, as Youths of the same standing in England. Many new schools might be established, at the request of the Natives, if the Mission had the means of supporting and superintending them. Fresh Stations might be occupied, and additional Labourers would be welcomed by the Natives.

COTTA.

At this Station the Rev. J. Bailey, the Rev. J. F. Haslam, and the Rev. F. W. Taylor, are the European Missionaries; and the Rev. C. Jayesinhe, a Native Assistant Missionary. Mr. J. A. Bulmer is Superintendant of a Printing-press and Bookbinding Establishment.

Institution.

The Institution is under the care of Mr. Haslam.

In February of the present year, the Lord Bishop of Calcutta arrived at Cotta in the course of his Metropolitan Visitation; and the following account has been transmitted to the Society, by his Chaplain, the Rev. J. H. Pratt, in a Letter dated Trevandrum Residency, Travancore, February 8, 1843:—

The Christian Institution is in every way interesting. Here a number of Youths, of good promise both for piety and capacity, are brought together from the Schools of the Missions, and boarded and educated, with a view to their becoming useful Schoolmasters, Catechists, and Assistant Missionaries. The boys are first chosen from Mission English Schools, and put into a preparatory class at Cotta, from which they are transferred to the Institution. They are not put upon the foundation till after about a year's probation. They generally remain in the Institution from four to six years; and those who show, by their piety, diligence, and zeal, that they are likely to promise well as Candidates for Holy Orders, are not considered eligible till after five years of service in catechetical duties. Thus every care is taken to train them up to be useful and well-furnished Labourers.

Mr. Pratt then relates the particulars of an Examination which was conducted by the Bishop and himself:—

At 11 o'clock we assembled in the large verandah of the Church; and a paper was laid before the Bishop, showing the subjects which the boys had studied. The Youths were drawn up in a long row, for examination in the English Division. The Bishop directed them to read the 42d chapter of Isaiah.

After recording many of the answers given by the Youths, Mr. Pratt proceeds:—

They gave satisfactory answers to many other questions. I have been thus circumstantial, that you may see how well-grounded they are in fundamental truths. The chapter upon which some of these questions were based was chosen at the time by the Bishop, and the boys were not previously prepared. You may rely upon the accuracy of my notes; and I think you will say that the state of religious knowledge in the Institution, as far as we can judge from this specimen, is very satisfactory. May the Lord raise up many well-furnished Native Catechists, and Ministers of the blessed Gospel, from among the Students!

KANDY.

At this Station the Rev. W. Oakley and the Rev. C. Greenwood have laboured during the last year. Owing to various circumstances, it is less advanced than the other Stations; and the people exhibit a degree of indifference to the Gospel and stubborn adherence to Idolatry, which call for the exercise of much faith and patience on the part of their Christian Instructors. The number of Congregations at this Station is 10; the number of Communicants 24; the Schools 12, containing 250 boys and girls.

In the Journal of the Rev. C. Greenwood, the following account occurs of his ministrations in the city prison:—

Oct. 24, 1841: Lord's Day — I to-day visited the prisoners. It would hardly be expected that this would prove so interesting a branch of a Missionary's duty as it really does. I did not look for its being so. It is, however, one of the most interesting—I had almost said, one of the most hopeful—parts of our duty here. Some of the prisoners have been for a long time inmates of the prison—three, four, five, or more years: and as the Missionaries have the entire spiritual charge of the prison, and either they or their Catechists visit it every Lord's Day, some have a considerable acquaintance with the truths of Christianity.

What an awful view does this statement unintentionally present of the state of Heathenism!—a prison in a Heathen land the most HOPEFUL field of labour! Better is it to be surrounded by thieves and malefactors in a jail, than to be at large amidst idolatrous associations and ceremonies.

BADDAGAME.

At this Station the Rev. G. C. Trimnell and the Rev. H. Powell, together with a Native Deacon, the Rev. A. Goonesekera, have laboured during the last year.

At the commencement of the year, Mr. Powell thus writes, in a Letter dated February 4, 1842, of the state of the Mission; reviewing the progress for the past three years, during which he had been connected with it:—

In 1838 there was only one Weekly Service in the Church: now there are three Weekly Singhalese Services. The Lord's-day Morning Congregation comprises from 80 to 100 Adults, and about 300 Children: the Lord's-day Afternoon Service between 70 and 100. At the Wednesday Morning Service, the whole congregation, amounting to 150, comprising several Adults, are catechized from the pulpit, instead of a Sermon. Three years ago there were only 5 Communicants: now there are 16. I am happy to say that they have all, to the best of my knowledge and belief, walked consistently.

The Rev. G. C. Trimnell, who had been absent on a visit to England for two years, thus speaks of the Station, after his return, in a Letter dated June 24, 1842:—

Our morning Congregations have been good. The people appear to be attentive, and are exceedingly orderly: indeed, the outward appearance of devotion in our congregation is very much better than I have seen in any congregation in England; for all the Natives kneel during prayer, and generally join with one voice in the responses. I am happy to say that we have now a little choir, who, through Mr. Powell's industry and perseverance in teaching singing, can very creditably join in singing the hymns. I cannot avoid mentioning the valuable assistance afforded us by our Native Brother in the Ministry, the Rev. Abraham Goonesekera, whose preaching in the Church in turn and at the Schools, and his exhortations from house to house, I hope and pray will be greatly blessed. He is a valuable co-adjutor. Our Wednesday Catechetical Lecture in the Church is continued, and is well attended: the present number is between 200 and 250. The Seminary is in a very satisfactory state. We have 15 youths, 3 of whom pay for their education. We spend much of our time in visiting the Natives from house to house, both in this and the neighbouring villages.

The number of Congregations connected with this Station is 12, and the Communicants 20.

Education.

The Girls' School at this Station, numbering 118 pupils, is in a very satisfactory state. Of the Seminary, Mr. Powell writes, in the Letter just quoted—

> The opinion which I formed at the first has been uniformly strengthened—that this is the most likely means of doing permanent good, in the present state of things, of all our other branches of scholastic labour.

Many of the Heathen Schools at the Out-Stations, in connexion with Baddagame, have been suspended for a time, from the conviction that their condition was unsatisfactory, owing to the want of efficient Schoolmasters, and the constant superintendence of a Missionary. In a Letter dated October 10, 1842, Mr. Powell writes—

> We propose opening them again, or others in their places, on a new and superior footing; and, if possible, getting the parents to pay a small sum toward the education of their children.

NELLORE.

The Rev. Messrs. William Adley and J. T. Johnston are the Missionaries at this Station. Mr. Johnston also serves the Church at Jaffna, where both English and Tamul Congregations assemble. At this, as well as at the other Stations, the time and attention of the Missionaries have been much devoted to the domiciliary visitation of the surrounding Heathen, and to the giving of Cottage Lectures in school-rooms or private dwellings. The number of Congregations is 14, and of Communicants 33.

Baptisms.

During the year, twenty-two converts have been baptized at this Station.

The Rev. W. Adley reports the public baptism of eight Natives on the 2d of March, at which many of the Heathen attended, and appeared to be much struck with the sight; more especially as one of the Neophites had been a notorious character. Two years before, he had been one of the most unlikely persons to be admitted to the Ordinances of the Church of Christ. He had been taken up upon suspicion of murder; but being only convicted of manslaughter, was adjudged to two years' imprisonment. In the jail he was visited by the Missionaries and Catechists: he heard and embraced the Truth, and expressed his earnest desire for baptism. Being a man of considerable energy of character, he made great progress in Christian Knowledge. Upon the expiration of his term of confinement, he became a regular attendant at the Mission Chapel; and was at length admitted to baptism, by the name of Abraham. A remarkable coincidence in the dispensations of Divine Providence rendered the circumstances of the case still more interesting. Upon his apprehension, the witnesses of the outrage would not appear against him, through the fear of his desperate character, in case of his acquittal. A barber was the only person who would give evidence; and he frequently said, that if the prisoner were not executed or banished, his life would not be worth a straw. The barber being afterward afflicted with a severe illness, was visited by the Missionary, and, upon his recovery, also became an attendant at the Mission Chapel; so that, upon the liberation of the prisoner, his first meeting with the witness who had procured his condemnation was in the house of the Prince of Peace, and they met as Brethren. They were to have been baptized together on the same day; but the barber, at the last hour, was unable to sacrifice all his temporal means of support, which would have been the case upon his embracing Christianity, and therefore deferred his intention. The Missionaries, however, have a good hope that he may yet be willing to leave all and follow Christ.

Mr. Johnston mentions, in his Journal, May 27, 1842, that he was much struck with an observation of his Pundit with respect to the case of Abraham:—

> I asked the Pundit what were the feelings of the Heathen upon this baptism; and the reply was, that they all rejoiced at it, because, they said, now that he had become a Christian he would not act as formerly, and they should cease to fear him. What an attestation is this to the character of the Gospel! Compare this statement with what the Pundit told me a few days ago—that when Missionaries first came, the people dared not send their children to school, lest the Missionaries should take them away, and make slaves of them. Now they rejoice at the baptism of a desperate thief and cruel character, because, being a Christian, he will no longer practise such things. Who can say that the Gospel is doing nothing? Converts may be few; but the work is progressing. Blessed be God! here and there, now and then, we have occasional glimpses of the approach of a time of great things. Oh that Christians would pray for the time shortly to appear!

Within a few months of the baptism of Abraham he was arrested, through the malice of his old associates, upon a false charge of theft; from which his character was soon cleared. When the officers came to apprehend him, he fell on his knees, and offered up a prayer to God to sustain him in this trial and to establish his innocence.

Education.

The number of Schools at this Station is 23, containing 1056 boys and 99 girls; total, 1155. Mr. Adley writes, in a Letter dated December 17, 1842—

I let no opportunity slip of improving our system of Out-schools. There are now seven Schools, in which the Masters are professedly Christian, and pray and converse with the boys on Religion. I fully hope to see, ere long, all the Schools supplied with Teachers interested in imparting religious instruction to their scholars.

A Boarding School, under the care of Mrs. Adley, contains twenty-five girls. In a Letter dated July 25, 1842, she says—

There is sufficient room for fifty, if our funds would allow so many. Our object is, to train promising girls, who may hereafter become useful among their countrywomen, especially as Assistants in Female Schools. We look upon this Institution as important, also, to provide suitable wives for young men who have received a Christian education. Hitherto, the marriage of Christian young men with heathen women has been almost unavoidable; and, as might have been expected, has proved a source of much evil. In addition to the reading and writing of their own language, the girls in the Boarding School receive instruction in English, Geography, History, and Arithmetic. The morning hours are spent at their lessons, and the afternoon in sewing. With respect to their studies, the object chiefly kept in view is, to lead them to the knowledge and love of the Scriptures, that, by God's blessing, they may be throughly furnished unto all good works. All the elder girls can now read pretty well in the English Testament, and understand it sufficiently to answer simple questions upon the text. They have also learnt the Church Catechism in English as well as Tamul, together with one of Watts's Scripture Catechisms.

There is a feeling among the girls generally, in both Schools, of the folly and wickedness of idolatry; and several of the elder girls in the Boarding School give hopeful evidence of a change of heart. I might add, that the board and education of each child in the Boarding School costs about 3*l.* a year.

The Rev. Christian David, who was formerly a pupil of the venerable Schwartz, and who has resided for many years as Tamul Chaplain in the district of Jaffna, came into the school-room not long since, when I was questioning the girls on Scripture History, and seemed much pleased and affected with their answers. When we had ended, he said to me, "This may seem nothing to you, who have come from a country where women are educated as well as men; but to me, to hear rational answers and Scripture History from the mouths of little girls is music to my ears. I always used to say that nothing would be done for my country-people till females were taught. And when I think how children learn their religion at their mother's knee, and what changes a few years may bring about by means of pious females, my eyes are filled with tears of joy, and I am ready to say with Simeon, Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation."*

COMMENCED 1815.

Mission Establishment:

12 European Missionaries.	2 European Female Teachers.
20 European Catechists.	321 Native Teachers & Schoolmasters.
2 European Printers.	27 Native Schoolmistresses.

THE blessing of God continues to be vouchsafed, in a marked degree, to the labours of the Missionaries and Native Teachers, and the circulation of the Scriptures almost throughout the Northern Island, and in some parts of the Middle Island. Notwithstanding the temptations arising from Popery and worldliness, the Christian Natives have, for the most part, been enabled to maintain the consistency of their character, and to advance in knowledge and grace. Fresh inroads have been made upon the dominion of Heathenism; and, in all the districts, considerable numbers have been added to the Church. To the Lord our God be all the praise!

Arrival of the Bishop of New Zealand.

The Bishop, whose embarkation at Plymouth was noticed in the last Report, landed at Auckland on the 30th of May.

On landing, an Address, numerously signed by the inhabitants of the new Capital, was presented to his Lordship, expressing their gratification at his arrival among them. The Rev. G. A. Kissling, who had arrived at the same place a few days previously, in a ship direct from England, remarks, June 19, 1842—

> On the Lord's Day before last the Bishop preached at Auckland, and bore a very high testimony to the faithfulness and success of the Missionaries' labours. All the Brethren who have seen his Lordship express their high gratification that the Lord should have appointed such an able and devoted servant to preside over His flock in these Islands. The Natives themselves are quite pleased with the idea that there should be a Head, to unite them all in one.

After remaining about a fortnight in the neighbourhood of the Thames, the Bishop embarked for the Bay of Islands, where he arrived on the evening of the 19th of June.

In a Letter dated Paihía, June 27, 1842, the Rev. H. Williams writes—

As a vessel is about to sail, I must give you a few hasty lines, to express our great joy at the arrival of the Bishop. His Lordship arrived at this place yesterday week, in the evening, without the knowledge of any one, and took up his abode among us. He has inquired very particularly into the state of the Mission; has expressed a most lively interest in every part and every member; and seems very much gratified with every thing. But this is not all. Every one was most particularly astonished at his knowledge of the New-Zealand Language. Immediately on his landing, he commenced conversing with the Natives, to the great amazement of all.

One of the newly-arrived Missionaries, who accompanied the Bishop from England, thus describes the proceedings of the following Lord's Day at Paihía:—

June 26, 1842—A day replete with interest—my first Lord's Day in this Land of Promise: here it seems to be a delight, the holy of the Lord, and honourable. I joined in worship with a large body of Maori (Native) Christians. The church was more than filled. There is great devotion and decorum in their manner: they enter thoroughly into the spirit of our Liturgy; they are as if actuated by one spirit, and endued with one voice. The Bishop took part in the Communion Service, AND PREACHED IN MAORI. He is an astonishment to the Natives. Almost the entire congregation stopped to communicate.

Appointment of the Rev. Messrs. Williams to Ecclesiastical Offices.

The Committee refer with great satisfaction to the appointment of the two senior Missionaries to Ecclesiastical Offices in the new Diocese. The Bishop has been pleased to appoint the Rev. William Williams as Archdeacon of the East Cape, and the Rev. Henry Williams as his Lordship's Commissary for the Bay of Islands.

The Committee now proceed to refer to some of the results of Missionary labour in the four Districts into which the Northern Island has been divided.

Northern District.

General Progress of the Gospel.

The number of Stations, and the Labourers engaged in each, are the same as was recorded in the last Report. The annual accounts of each Station, up to the 30th of June, have not yet been received. From other communications, however, the following information has been obtained.

Respecting TEPUNA, Mr. J. King writes, in a Letter dated Feb. 17, 1842—

The Natives far and near are keeping up a profession of Religion; and I trust that many are seeking the salvation of their souls. The Gospel appears to continue its steady progress, amidst all the changes that are taking place.

Respecting WANGAROA, Mr. J. Shepherd writes, in a Letter dated Jan. 22, 1842—

In November last, the Rev. R. Taylor visited this Station, and baptized about fifty persons. I trust the good work is advancing here. I look with much pleasure on some of our members, having good reason to believe them to be living branches of Christ the living Vine.

The Rev. Henry Williams, writing from PAIHÍA, Oct. 21, 1841, remarks—

Of the progress of the Mission more need not be said, than that it is far beyond our most sanguine expectation.

The number of Baptisms in connexion with this Station, during the latter half of the year 1841, amounted to 121.

In reporting on the WAIMATE Station for the same half-year, the Rev. R. Taylor observes—

During the last few months there has been much excitement among the Natives; but it is gratifying to find that it has not diminished our Congregations, and we trust it has not checked the spirit of inquiry after Truth. At our last Sacrament, the number present was so great, that we were constrained to hold the Service in the church-yard. Upward of a thousand Natives were estimated to have been present, and 487 partook of the Lord's Supper.

Mr. Joseph Matthews, one of the Catechists stationed at KAITAIA, remarks, in a Letter dated Feb. 22, 1842—

The Rev. R. Taylor is now in our Settlement. Last Lord's Day the largest number we have had were admitted to the Church by Baptism—nearly 200 adults, and 60 children.

In a subsequent Letter, dated June 6, 1842, he adds—

I trust that the work of Divine Grace is steadily proceeding in this district. We have reason to rejoice in the augmented number of Baptized Natives, inasmuch as we see them attend the means of grace both here and in their native villages. It appears to be quite a feast to the Christian Natives when they have an opportunity of meeting us at their own residences. The number of those who have disgraced their profession is very limited. They are gradually gaining sound Scriptural knowledge. They are industrious in their habits. Several of them already possess horses and cows; and their desire to obtain horses especially increases.

During the eight years and a half which have elapsed since this Station was formed, the number of Baptisms has been, adults 527, infants 179; total 706.

Middle District.

The band of Labourers in this district has been strengthened by the addition of the Rev. G. A. Kissling and Mr. S. M.

Spencer. Mr. Kissling's location was changed from that mentioned in the last Report, because it was feared that the climate of the Western side of the island, which is much exposed to cold winds, would be too trying for a constitution impaired by a long residence in West Africa.

Progress of the Gospel in this District.

TAURANGA—In reporting on this Station at the end of March 1842, the Rev. A. N. Brown remarks—

We are again privileged to report the progress of the Gospel in this district. Our baptisms during the past year have been 198; being an increase of 70 on any preceding year. The congregations, now numbering 1575, show an increase, during the same period, of 238. Those who can read in their own tongue the wonders of Redeeming Love exceed, by 100, the number last reported. Four excellent Chapels have been erected by the Natives, at their own expense. Our Baptismal Classes maintain their numbers and interest. The desire to obtain the Scriptures has been so great, that our share of the munificent and most opportune gift of the British and Foreign Bible Society is expended. Only three cases of converts lapsing into gross sin have come to our knowledge; nor are we aware of a solitary case of defection from our ranks to the Popish Church.

Respecting ROTORUA, where the poverty of the Natives is great, Mr. T. Chapman reports, for the year ending March 31, 1842—

During the past year the Gospel has been slowly advancing; in proof of which it may be adduced, that at almost every little village and location throughout this district there is a humble rush Chapel, where prayer is wont to be made. An Infant Church has been raised up, and 185 adults and 75 children have been admitted to baptism. Our congregations amount to upward of 1000.

The Rev. R. Maunsell observes, in reference to WAIKATO, during the same period—

In our congregations we are happy to report an increase. Our Sunday Schools, also, have been well attended. There have been baptized in this district, during the past year, 253 adults and 92 children; making a total of 345.

In the Northern part of this district the Natives have been exposed to considerable temptation, from the vicinity of the new Capital, Auckland; and in some instances the seductions of drink and exorbitant wages have been too strong. But of the great body of those who have embraced Christianity, Mr. Maunsell observes, in the same Report—

The aspect presented by this portion of our charge is certainly encouraging. Though in the immediate neighbourhood of the township, they maintain a most consistent conduct, and their desire for instruction is considerable. The progress which our people have made in civilization is, we trust, discernible. Our labours have been directed to this object, so far as our other duties would admit; but we are too frequently compelled to feel, that though Christianity is the sure pioneer to Civilization, yet must it be allowed some time for operation, before we can hope to find in our converts those habits which constitute the character of the civilized man.

Eastern District.

The Venerable Archdeacon Williams has at length been cheered by the arrival of fellow-labourers, to share with him the burden of his heavy Missionary duties. It was intended that the Rev. W. C. Dudley should be stationed at Wairoa, in Hawkes' Bay, and Mr. J. Stack at Waiapu, East Cape.

Progress of the Gospel.

In a Letter dated December, 1841, Archdeacon Williams dwells with much pleasure on the steady progress which the inquiry after better things had made among his people during the year which was then drawing to a close. He observes—

At the commencement of the year, the Candidates for Baptism at Turanga were 12; now they are 140. And so also at the other places, though not in the same proportion. Thus, from Ngatikaipoho, on Jan. 13, the Candidates were 29; but at the present time they are about 90.

Western District.

Progress of the Gospel—Communicants—Baptisms.

In the months of December 1841, and January 1842, the Rev. O. Hadfield was visited with a very severe attack of illness; during which he was removed to Port Nicholson, in order to obtain medical assistance. He was however, through mercy, enabled to return to Waikanae on the 11th of February.

In a Letter dated May 5, 1842, he writes—

Having returned to my beloved people, I was much gratified with the delight which they seemed to exhibit at my return to them, they having despaired of my recovery. I thought, that instead of their having suffered any loss by my absence, which I expected, they had increased in faith toward the Lord Jesus Christ, and in mutual union and love.

On the 20th of February, at Waikanae, when there was a congregation of more than 600 persons, I administered the Lord's Supper to 57 communicants. On the following Lord's Day I was at my other place, Otaki, where I had a congregation of about 300; and I subsequently administered the Lord's Supper to twenty-four persons. These people showed, if possible, more joy than the others at my return, and many of them were in tears.

After describing a visit which he paid to several Stations on the Middle Island, during which he baptized 67 persons, and on one occasion had a congregation of upward of 700,

Mr. Hadfield concludes the Letter from which the foregoing extract is made, by remarking—

I am happy to say that there is increasing evidence of real faith manifested by the Christian Natives of Otaki and Waikanae, in their holy and consistent conduct, and in their contempt of worldly goods and wealth. To the God of all grace, the Fountain of all goodness, would I ascribe all praise and adoration, for His work of mercy and love wrought among these people.

WANGANUI—Of this Station, and the district connected with it, the Rev. J. Mason reports, in a Letter dated June 24, 1842:—

The Gospel is now very generally received and professed. Each party, however small, both on the banks of the river and on the sea-coast, have their Chapel; in which they assemble, not only on the Lord's Day, but every day, for Morning and Evening Prayers. They have also a Morning School, at which the New-Testament Scriptures are extensively read; and, thanks be unto God! His Word has not gone forth in vain. A few, I trust, have been brought into the fold of Christ; and others are earnestly inquiring the way to Zion, with their faces thitherward.

War is entirely given up in this district. In former years, this people were remarkable for treachery and murder; but it is very gratifying to hear some of the old Chiefs express their horror and detestation of their former customs, on which they reflect with amazement: and when I have been conversing with them on the love and death of Jesus, I have frequently heard the following remark:—"Yes, this is a good religion, which will save a man alive; but all our ancestors have been killed in war. Why did you not come sooner, that they might have heard of Jesus Christ?"

Erection of a Church—Baptisms, &c.

At this Station, a new brick Church has been erected by the Natives. The lime-burning, bricklaying, and carpentering, was performed by Natives, under Mr. Mason's superintendence. The walls inside are plastered, the roof shingled, and the floor boarded. It is capable of holding about 600 Natives. Mr. Mason writes, in the Letter just quoted—

On Lord's Day, June 19, 1842, which was the second anniversary of our arrival at Wanganui, our new Church was opened. To celebrate this important event, about 800 individuals assembled at the Settlement, a few from every part of my district, and some even from a distance of upward of 200 miles up the river. During the Morning Service, and in the presence of this assembly, forty-two adults were admitted by baptism into the visible Church of Christ. On the Monday following we had an Examination of the Schools; and in the evening of the same day, a baptism of infants, the children of baptized parents. On Tuesday there was a feast. The day was fine; and the school-ground was strewed with fern and grass. At eleven o'clock, about 600 were seated, according to their tribes. After the repast, several speeches were delivered; and very gratifying indeed it was to hear the principal Chiefs exhorting their friends and countrymen to repentance, and perseverance in the work of faith and love. "This Meeting," said Te Anaua, "is not like our former meetings for war. We now meet in the presence of God, to love each other, and to strengthen each other in the work of God: wherefore let your works be right."

Desire of the Natives for the Word of God.

The munificent grant of 10,000 copies of the New Testament, made by the British and Foreign Bible Society, two years ago, having been exhausted, another edition has been printed, and an additional grant of 10,000 copies has been liberally made to this Society.

The strong desire of the Natives to possess the Testament still continues. It is found to triumph over ancient superstition in those who have not yet forsaken heathenism. Of this, an instance is given by the Rev. A. N. Brown, who was travelling in a remote part of the island, near the high mountain Tongariro. He observes in his Journal, May 21, 1841—

Captain Symonds and his party were very anxious to ascend the mountain; but the Natives opposed it, on the ground of its having been made sacred by their forefathers; and because, if the tapu were violated, some evil would befal them. "They offered us gold," remarked the Old Chief to me: "had they brought some Testaments, we would have consented to their going up the mountain. Tell the strangers, when you see them again, that if they return in the summer, and bring Testaments with them, the tapu shall be removed from the mountain."

That many of those who possess copies of the Sacred Scriptures love the Word of God, and desire to profit by it, the following extract from a Letter written by Mr. W. G. Puckey, dated Kaitaia, June 6, 1842, will show:—

Christian knowledge is increasing fast; for since the shipment of Testaments from England, the Word has been more largely diffused: and although every one has not a Testament, nor perhaps one in every ten, yet it is beyond doubt that they are getting fast acquainted with divine truths; for having no other books to read but Scripture and productions from Scripture, their pursuits in learning must be all of a sacred nature. Here I would observe, that the Natives care not for any book, unless it be derived from the Bible. When we have wished to tell them something new, and to us interesting, they have inquired, "Is it from the Bible?" and if not, they seem to feel weariness in listening, which has a sensible effect on the narrator.

On the 2d of this month I was at a Native Settlement about twenty-five miles from home. The Natives had assembled around my tent door before I was up, with their books in their hands, and several marks in them, waiting to ask me to solve passages which were beyond their capacity. Others had questions to ask concerning verses which had been read to them by their companions; while others had portions of discourses which they had heard at this Station from our own lips. The clearness of their memories is quite astonishing: they can remember portions of sermons for years. I can truly say, that very many, with whom I am personally acquainted, do really feed on the Word of God, and delight in doing His will.

One of the Missionaries, who accompanied the Bishop in a voyage to the south of the island, landed at the East Cape, a place at a considerable distance from any European Teacher. He writes, in a Letter dated August 2, 1842—

We came to an anchor in Waitepore Bay, with two large Pas in sight. We went on shore, and it was a source of material pleasure. I believe their large and commodious Chapel was crammed. The Bishop catechized the assembly. The next day we were among them again; when my chief occupation was, to write on their slates short portions of Scripture. Surprised and delighted am I to say, that here, as on other occasions, if I wrote or spoke part of a verse only, some one or other completed the quotation.

Death of a Christian Native.

Mr. J. Matthews, of Kaitaia, writes, in a Letter dated Dec. 24, 1841—

We have lost two very valuable Christian Natives by death, Sarah and Daniel. Each of them was a shining light to all around.

Daniel Patuwaru, a fine young Chief of considerable possessions, was a consistent Christian, and one who had found the hidden manna .... which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it. Unlike most of his tribe, he was always averse to have any thing to do with ungodly Europeans, lest he should hear their wicked language. Whenever I went to the neighbourhood of his residence, it was his delight to walk with me from village to village, asking the meaning of important passages of Holy Writ. During his illness, I was unable to leave home for several weeks, owing to indisposition; but Richard Kiwiri, my Native Visitor, went to see him, and pointed out some passages of Scripture to which I had referred him. Richard found him in a most happy frame of mind, and very desirous of conversing on the things that accompany salvation. When his attention was directed to those sweet words, I desire to depart, and to be with Christ, and similar passages, he replied, "I have thought of them already." He repeated, of his own accord, the first part of the 14th chapter of St. John. He addressed all who came to see him; and sat upright the whole night, talking to his friends, and repeating passages from the Bible. In this posture, and while thus engaged, he died. All the Christians of our little Church were much concerned at his death. The Natives interred him in a Christian manner, and put up a handsome fence around his tomb. I will only add, that I highly esteemed him, and, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.

In bringing the Report of this Mission to a close, the Committee would shortly advert to the CHARACTER of the Christianity which now prevails so extensively among the inhabitants of New Zealand.

Within the last four years, the number of Natives who have embraced Christianity has increased from 2000 to 35,000. In the view of an increase so exceedingly rapid, it is natural to feel some apprehension respecting the depth and permanency of the work which has been accomplished. That not a few of this multitude have embraced the Gospel to the saving of their souls, there is every reason to entertain a confident hope. The evidence of holy lives and happy deaths has, in many instances, been as conclusive as such cases admit. But to the great body of the people the following judicious and discreet remarks, made by the Rev. A. N. Brown, in his Report for the year ending March 1842, with especial reference to his own flock at Tauranga, are doubtless generally applicable:—

> We wish not, however, to convey the impression that we look upon our Infant Church as all glorious within—that they are counting all things but loss for Christ, or have determined not to know any thing among men save Jesus Christ and Him crucified. No: they are yet but babes in Christ; and as such, we commend them to the earnest prayers of the Church, that they may grow in grace, till they shall arrive at the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

It is, however, a matter for joy and thankfulness that war and cannibalism have almost, if not entirely, ceased—that ancient superstitions have been forsaken—that so many are using the means of grace, and making rapid progress in Scriptural knowledge—and that so great a change has been effected in the moral aspect of the population.

To these happy results of the progress of the Gospel many striking testimonies have recently been borne.

From the Letters and Publications of several persons who have recently visited New Zealand, for commercial and other purposes, some of them indifferent, and others opposed to Missionary efforts, many incidental and unintentional testimonies might be adduced, to show the extensive prevalence of the Gospel, and the favourable change which has taken place in the character of the Natives who have embraced its blessed truths.

But without referring more expressly to any of these, the Committee would record the opinion of one who has directed particular attention to the subject of Missions, and who has had opportunities of examining their progress in various parts of the world. Dr. Sinclair, a surgeon in Her Majesty's Navy, having had occasion to visit New South-Wales, in the discharge of his professional duties, proceeded to New Zealand at the end of 1841, with the express view of forming his own judgment of the state of things in that country. Amidst many other favourable statements, he remarks, in a Letter dated Glasgow, Nov. 24, 1842—

By means of the well-directed labours of the Missionaries of your Society, the Natives have become exemplary Christians; and now show an intellectual capacity, which strikes with surprise every one who goes among them. Perhaps no people in the history of mankind has been so completely changed in their religious and moral condition as these Natives have been in such a short time, and more particularly by such a small number of men, and by such peaceful means. Frequently have I heard a Christian Native, when asked to buy or sell on the Lord's Day, or break any other Commandment, make the decided answer—"No—me Missionar;" and that in circumstances when the temptation was great, and the means of keeping the transaction secret not difficult.

The views of the Rev. G. A. Kissling, who was conversant with Missionary labours during his residence of eight years in Sierra Leone, are equally favourable. About a month after his arrival in New Zealand, he writes, June 19, 1842—

It is really surprising to behold what the Lord has done among the poor New Zealanders. Almost every one of those whom I have met, during a residence of four weeks among them, can read and write. On Lord's Days they came to my house, sat on the floor, and read in the New Testament for hours: they read by turns, passing the book from hand to hand, till all had read some verses. They appeared to be delighted with a New Testament and Prayer-Book; and I heard the Bishop remark, the other day, that these poor creatures had a stock of spiritual and Scriptural knowledge which quite astonished him. Both the Chief Justice, Mr. Martin, and his Excellency the Governor, speak in the highest terms of the good accomplished by our Brethren.

It is with great pleasure that the Committee add one testimony more—that of the Bishop of New Zealand. In a sermon preached at Paihía, on the 26th of June, 1842, which was afterward published, his Lordship remarks:—

Christ has blessed the work of His Ministers in a wonderful manner. We see here a whole nation of Pagans converted to the Faith. God has given a new heart and a new spirit to thousands after thousands of our fellow-creatures in this distant quarter of the earth. A few faithful men, by the power of the Spirit of God, have been the instruments of adding another Christian People to the family of God. —Young men and maidens, old men and children, all with one heart and with one voice praising God; all offering up daily their morning and evening prayers; all searching the Scriptures, to find the way of eternal life; all valuing the Word of God above every other gift; all, in a greater or less degree, bringing forth and visibly displaying in their outward lives some fruits of the influences of the Spirit. Where will you find, throughout the Christian World, more signal manifestations of the presence of that Spirit, or more living evidences of the Kingdom of Christ*.

WEST-INDIES' MISSIONS.

On the retirement of Bishop Coleridge, the See of Barbados was divided into three Dioceses, corresponding with the Archdeaconries of Guiana, Antigua, and Barbados; and the respective Archdeacons were consecrated to the Episcopal office, in August last.

The Bishops of Guiana and Barbados attended a Meeting of the Committee on the 27th of that month. Their Lordships bore a strong testimony to the value of the Society's labours in their respective Dioceses, and expressed their cordial desire to promote its operations therein‡.

It has pleased God to deprive this Mission of the services of the Rev. T. Youd, who was well fitted, by his zeal and enterprising character, for commencing Missionary labours among the Indians in the interior. He died on the voyage home for the restoration of his health. His place has been supplied by the Rev. J. Pollitt, formerly a Catechist in Jamaica; who, after pursuing his studies for some time in the Institution at Islington, was admitted to Holy Orders by the Bishop of Guiana in February last.

Rev. J. H. Bernau reports favourably. Divine Service has been regularly held and well attended, particularly by the Arrawack Indians. The Schools are flourishing; and a marked improvement in the social and moral habits of the people had taken place.

In a Letter dated July 14, 1842, Mr. Bernau gives a pleasing account of the feelings of his poor Indian People, when they were informed of the financial difficulties of the Society. He writes—

Many brought money, begging me to receive it for the good of the Mission. Others brought bread for the children. Others brought some of their ornaments, to be sold for the benefit of the funds. One in particular, a candidate for Baptism, came to me weeping. On inquiring the cause, he replied, "I have heard you are going to leave us. Oh! what will become of us and our children? No: tell them that we will do all in our power to help. Behold, I give you three dollars. I am willing to give more; but this you may keep."

Various circumstances have necessarily delayed the accomplishment of the Committee's intention of withdrawing the operations of the Society from the Island of Trinidad. The new arrangements respecting the Episcopate, consequent on the retirement of Bishop Coleridge, and the subsequent absence of the Governor from the island on a visit to this country, have been among the chief causes of this delay.

There are in connexion with the Society, in this island, 7 Schools, each holding, upon an average, 150 scholars, and under the superintendence of the Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser and the Rev. A. E. Eckel.

* Reprinted from Returns of last year.

In a Letter dated November 9, 1842, Mr. Mühlhauser gives a satisfactory account of the general state of the Mission. He writes—

With regard to your Mission, I cannot say otherwise than that it is progressing, and increasing in numbers; more particularly owing to the great influx of Africans from Sierra Leone and St. Helena, as also from the other Islands. It is now more than we can manage. Oropouche is doing well. The School is well attended, and also the Church, when I attend there, once a month. This is the more satisfactory; as, before I visited them, a good number of Protestant Negroes went to the Roman-Catholic Church; while, since that time, they have not only come to us themselves, but have brought others with them. Judging from the general desire after instruction, I entertain hopes that many will turn out not only hearers, but doers, of the word of God. Your other Schools are doing well, upon the whole; and I have reason to be satisfied with my different Masters. I am also thankful to say, that the attendance on Divine Worship is increasing, and is more regular than it has been. The whole assumes a more established appearance.*

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment:

3 European Missionaries. 1 European Catechist and Schoolmaster.

Considerable progress has been made in carrying into effect the Society's Resolution of withdrawing its operations from this island. In the beginning of the year 1842, the Mission comprised 19 Stations. Of these, four have been transferred to the general Ecclesiastical Establishment of the island; viz. Pedro Plains, Somerset Hall, Mount Hermon, and Birnam Wood. Five, viz. Church Hill, Siloah, Prattville, Woodford, and Naïn, have been taken in charge by Island

Clergymen, who have been either Members of the Corresponding Committee, or former Missionaries of the Society. One, Amity Hall, has been taken up and supplied by the Bishop. Another, viz. the Normal School at the Grove, is now carried on at the expense of the Mico Charity. Four, viz. Old England, Elstree, Port Morant, and Port Antonio, have been necessarily closed; and the remaining four, viz. Salt Savannah, Rural Hill, Chichester, and Moore Town, are still in connexion with the Society.

The Committee have had the satisfaction of receiving several testimonies to the value of the labours which the Society has been permitted to carry on in this island for several years, and to the promising state in which it leaves most of the Stations to be hereafter provided for from other sources.

The Rev. J. M. Trew, who visited Jamaica in the earlier part of last year, and whose services were very valuable in carrying into effect the Society's plans with reference to this Mission, writes, April 9, 1842—

> On Sunday last I had the privilege of worshipping at the Grove, and witnessing the labours of the Society in that district; nor shall I soon forget the impression then made upon my mind. It is my firm conviction, that the labours of the Society are about being abandoned just at a time when those labours appear to be experiencing the Divine Blessing in a larger measure than at any former period. I can perceive it in the instruments who have been raised up to preach the Gospel through her means in this land—in the ardent desire of many of the congregations to do more toward the support of the Ministry of the Gospel than heretofore they have done—and in the work which has been carried on in and around the Normal School for several miles.

The Rev. J. Stainsby, Rector of the Parish of Hanover, in a Letter dated May 20, 1842, observes—

> We all deeply lament the falling-off of the funds; and the effect of withdrawing seems like cutting off one's right hand. But God's will be done! May He raise up among ourselves a spirit of liberality, so that we may be able with our own means to carry on, in some degree, the work from which the Church Missionary Society is now withdrawing!

And in another Letter, dated July 7, 1842, he writes—

> I cannot say with how heavy a heart I review the withdrawal of the Society's aid from the Church in this island. A blessing has truly rested upon its operations.

In confirmation of the views expressed in the preceding communications, the following extract from the Report of one of the Stations which have been transferred to the Island Establishment may be adduced:—

BIRNAM WOOD.

In the Report of this Station for the Quarter ending Sept. 30, 1842, before it was transferred to the Island Establishment, the Rev. J. F. Sessing writes—

I rejoice to say that the cause of Religion is continually gaining ground in my district, and that the past Quarter has been one of great blessing, both to me and the people under my charge. Occurrences, perhaps insignificant in themselves, but most important when viewed in their bearing upon the whole, have taken place, which are not only encouraging for the present, but most promising for the future. All the features of my work are such as to lead me to hope that my congregation will speedily increase to an extent before unknown, and that the cause of simple but pure unshackled truth will soon triumph in these mountains.

The external deportment of the people is undoubtedly improving. Drumming, dancing, and rioting, are never heard of: theft is quite unknown: single cases of quarrels and differences I have to settle now and then; but these are very scarce. Those who have lived in sin are getting married very fast: they diligently guard the sacred enclosure of the married state, and evidently enjoy its blessings. The Lord's Day is kept holy; and the cause of Religion is regarded and advanced, whenever brought before them. The attendance of the people on the means of grace is most regular, and they begin to consider them both a privilege and a blessing. Surely these are tokens for good, and give us sufficient cause to believe that the Good Shepherd has begun His work among them.

If I may be allowed to judge of the prosperity of my work by the number of books which I dispose of at present, I am indeed most sanguine. Never before did I see such eagerness for Bibles, Prayer Books, Hymn Books, and School Books. I cannot procure them fast enough. However large I make my orders, the stock is generally exhausted before another supply arrives.

NORMAL SCHOOL.

The Committee have always regarded this establishment as one of the most important parts of the Society's operations in Jamaica. Its importance became more evident of late, from the increased demand for Coloured Schoolmasters consequent on the withdrawal of so many European Teachers from the island. The Committee have, therefore, great satisfaction in stating that an arrangement has been effected with the Trustees of the Mico Charity, by which this Institution will be carried on in connexion with the Church of England, under the Visitatorial superintendence of four Clergymen who were formerly members of the Corresponding Committee.

SILOAH AND OLD ENGLAND.

The Rev. H. L. Dixon, whose removal from Siloah to Old England, on account of ill health, was noticed in the last Report, has subsequently been compelled, by the same cause, to return to this country. He left Jamaica on June the 5th, 1842.

SALT SAVANNAH.

Mr. Henry Taylor has removed from Church Hill to Salt Savannah. Mr. J. B. Wildman's property will thus be provided with a Teacher as long as the Society retains any connexion with the island.

MOORE TOWN.

This town, inhabited by Maroons, was one of the earliest Stations occupied by the Society in Jamaica. For several years, Missionary labours were carried on in it, amidst many difficulties and discouragements. It pleased God, however, in due time to crown those labours with very marked success. A substantial Chapel has been erected. The population of the district amounts to 2000 souls, living at an average distance of more than ten miles from any other Place of Worship. Upward of 300 are communicants, and 150 children are attached to the School. As no prospect presented itself of providing for the continuance of religious instruction to these interesting people, the Committee have, under the special circumstances of the case, agreed to pay the salary of the Rev. T. Gibson, the Missionary stationed here, for two years. By that period it is hoped that some provision may be made in the island for the endowment of the Church.

CHICHESTER.

In reporting on this Station at the end of last year, the Rev. C. W. Winckler speaks favourably of its general state. The prevailing desire among the Negroes of becoming small proprietors of a few acres of land and a house had tended in some degree to draw their attention from spiritual things; but the attendance on Public Worship continued good, the congregation amounting to about 500, and the number of communicants was increasing. Of two Day Schools, formerly supported by the Society, one has been continued at the expense of the people themselves, some of whom have willingly subscribed upward of a guinea a-year for that purpose. The number of scholars on the list in this School was 160; of whom 95 were boys, and 65 girls.*

COMMENCED 1822.

Mission Establishment:

3 European Missionaries. 4 European Catechists and Schoolmasters.
8 Country-born Schoolmasters.

THE accounts received last year from this Mission are even more than usually cheering. The little Tabernacle which was pitched on the banks of the Red River twenty years ago has, by the blessing of God, been gradually enlarged; its cords have been lengthened, and its stakes strengthened: and did the means of the Society admit of its entering upon the openings which present themselves, there is much to encourage the hope that the infant Church would break forth on the right hand and on the left, until many of the desolate places of this vast wilderness should be inhabited by a happy people, fearing God and working righteousness.

The arrival of the Rev. A. Cowley, Mrs. Cowley, and Mr. J. Roberts, at York Fort, was noticed in the last Report. They safely reached the end of their voyage at the Red River on the 28th of September 1841. Mr. Cowley was at first stationed at Grand Rapids, and Mr. Roberts at the Indian Settlement; but in May last, Mr. Cowley removed to form a new Station near Lake Manitoba, and Mr. Roberts went to reside at Grand Rapids.

This Mission comprises four Stations—the Upper Settlement, the Indian Settlement, the Cumberland Station, and the Manitoba Station. The last, however, has only been recently formed, and it is doubtful whether it can be maintained.

UPPER SETTLEMENT.

This part of the Mission contains a mixed population of Europeans, Country-born, and Indians. It has three Churches; the Upper Church at Image Plain, the Middle Church, and the Lower Church at Grand Rapids. The Middle Church having become greatly dilapidated, it was resolved, at a meeting of the inhabitants, that it should be rebuilt by subscription.

The Services in these churches, and the superintendence of the Schools connected with them, devolve upon the Rev. W. Cockran, assisted by Mr. J. Roberts. The Afternoon Service at Grand Rapids, on the Lord's Day, however, is undertaken by the Rev. J. Smithurst.

In a Letter dated Jan. 4, 1842, Mr. Cockran writes—

Our churches are regularly attended, the Lord's Day sanctified according to the Word of God, and all the Ordinances of our Holy Religion observed. The religious and moral deportment of our people is such as to encourage us to perseverance. When we reflect on their former state, when Gospel light was first introduced, and compare it with the present, we are constrained to acknowledge that the Lord hath done great things for us. We can thank Him for many of our Christian Brethren who have departed this life in the "faith, fear, and love" of God; and for others who are practising the self-denial enjoined by Him.

And in a Letter dated Aug. 9, 1842, he gives the following summary of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials for the year:—

Baptisms solemnized at the Upper Church, 51; Marriages, 6; Burials, 10. Baptisms solemnized at the Rapids, 42; Marriages, 7; Burials, 18.

After having been busily engaged for several days in visiting the people and the School in the District of the Grand Rapids, Mr. Roberts makes the following observation in his Journal, March 14--16, 1842:—

Whatever people I visit here, they seem thankful: to whatever church I go, I find it full: and whatever School I enter, I find the children lively, and diligent in learning their lessons.

INDIAN SETTLEMENT.

At this Station, those Indians who have given up their wandering habits, and devoted themselves to agriculture and the other pursuits of civilized life, have been successively located. During the last year, the Settlement has been increased by the accession of four families from Norway House. The number at present amounts to upward of 350. In addition to a neat Church, there are three Schools connected with this Station, in which instruction is provided for the children of the Saulteaux, the Muscaigoes, and for those who have one European parent respectively. The total number of children is 184; of whom 94 can read very well, and are acquainted with the Catechism.

The Divine favour continues to be vouchsafed to Mr. Smithurst's labours; and though not without trials, he has had numerous tokens for good, and abundant cause for thankfulness.

In his Report for the year ending August, 1842, he observes—

A marked improvement takes place from year to year in the temporal circumstances of the Indians. They have now become, for the most part, a steady and an industrious community. Their regular attendance and orderly behaviour at church, and their good moral conduct, warrant the hope that they have a true faith in Christ, and are bringing forth the fruit of the Spirit.

On the arrival of Mr. Roberts at the Red River, he thus describes his First Impressions of the Indian Settlement.

Sept. 28, 1841—When approaching the Indian Settlement, I was highly gratified to see the neat Indian Church, with its white spire overtopping the trees by which it is environed, the Indian cottages surrounded by cultivated fields, and the banks of the river covered with cattle belonging to the infant community, the members of which have been converted from barbarism and heathenism to Christianity during the last ten years. There is also a mill here, which Mr. Cockran erected that the Indians might get their grain converted into flour. The Indians seem to be busy in clearing new ground, and in building cottages.

CUMBERLAND STATION.

The encouraging prospects referred to in the last Report of this Station have been, in a very marked degree, realized. Mr. Henry Budd, the Native Schoolmaster, was the first-fruits of the Church Missionary Society's labours in North-West America, as he was one of the two boys consigned by their parents to the care of the Rev. J. West for instruction, in 1820.

When the Station had been in existence for two years, the Rev. J. Smithurst was anxious to visit it, with a view to strengthen Mr. Budd's hands, and to baptize such as might be prepared for that Ordinance. This desire was strengthened by his receiving a communication, through Mr. Budd, from the Indians of that district, earnestly requesting him to visit them. As the journey occupied twenty-six days, Mr. Smithurst's joy may be well imagined, when the guide made the pleasing announcement, "Mr. Budd's place is just behind that point of wood." A few minutes brought him within sight of the Infant Mission Establishment, which he thus describes:—

The School-house in the centre, Mr. Budd's house on the south side, and the children's house on the north, appeared respectable buildings; and struck me as reflecting very great credit upon Mr. Budd's industry. A gentle slope from the houses toward the river appeared to have been cleared, but not fenced; and in the rear, a neat square field was fenced in, and under cultivation.

Our boat was soon observed, and the school children flocked down to the beach to welcome our arrival. Their appearance was highly satisfactory, considering the short time which has intervened since they were taken from their native woods. Notwithstanding the unfavourable circumstances under which we arrived, amid a deluge of rain, the first impression upon my mind was so pleasing, that I quite forgot the tediousness of twenty-six days' travelling through a solitary wilderness.

The School was found to contain thirty-one Indian children, all neat and clean. On examination, it appeared that they had made very good progress in learning. There were but few adult Indians at the Station when Mr. Smithurst arrived, because they were necessarily engaged in procuring subsistence, at a fishing-place about a day's journey off; but he was informed that they would not fail to reach the Station on Saturday, according to their regular custom. Accordingly, on that day he writes—

> In the afternoon, a whole fleet of canoes made their appearance, and formed a most pleasing scene. The party, consisting of from sixty to seventy persons, pitched their tents alongside the Mission Establishment, in order to attend the Services of the Lord's Day. This was indeed one of the most cheering sights I ever witnessed; and called forth feelings of the deepest gratitude to God, that He should have inclined the hearts of so many to seek after the Way of Salvation.

Up to a late hour on Saturday evening, as well as on the following morning, Mr. Smithurst was engaged in a close examination of the Candidates for Baptism individually. He reports, that "the result of the Examinations was highly satisfactory."

June 26, 1842, is a day much to be remembered in the Annals of this Mission. In the afternoon, Mr. Smithurst had the privilege of admitting into the Church of Christ, by Baptism, 85 Indians; of whom 38 were adults, and the remaining 47 their children. Mr. Smithurst remarks—

> Here, then, is a little Church planted in the wilderness; a flock, destitute of a shepherd, calling for help; and I cannot for a moment think that they will call upon British sympathy without receiving a due response.

MANITOBA STATION.

This new Station is situated on the northern side of the southern part of Manitoba Lake, about 120 miles west of Red River. The influence of the Church of Rome has been, for some years, extending in this direction; but as the Indians of Manitoba Lake, who are of the Saulteaux Tribe, expressed a desire to embrace Protestantism rather than Popery, it was considered advisable that this desire should be gratified, and that some effort should be made to publish, in its fulness and simplicity, the truth as it is in Jesus. The determination of Mr. Cockran to remain for some time longer at his post rendered the services of the Rev. A. Cowley available for this purpose. Accordingly, on the 11th of May, Mr. Cowley left the Red-River Settlement on a visit to Manitoba, in order to select an eligible site, and to erect a suitable house for his future residence.

In the course of about six weeks this object was accomplished, and he was enabled to rejoin his Brethren at the Red River, on the 28th of June. When the last accounts left the Mission, he and Mrs. Cowley, having made all the necessary preparations, were on the point of proceeding to Manitoba, to occupy their newly-erected residence.

Feelings of the Missionaries in the Prospect of a Contraction of Operations.

The Committee will conclude their notice of this Mission by referring to a Letter just received from the Rev. J. Smithurst, dated Dec. 28, 1842, in which he describes his own feelings, and those of his Missionary Brethren, in reference to a contraction of operations. He writes—

We are in a state of the greatest perplexity, unwilling to relinquish any of the ground we have gained, and yet unable to maintain it, since you have limited us to 1200*l.* per annum. We are at a loss to know where to contract; unwilling, on the one hand, to have the responsibility of doing so upon our own shoulders, and, on the other hand, afraid to incur liabilities, after your positive directions to the contrary. I am sure that if our friends at home only knew the vast amount of anxiety the financial state of the Society must give the Missionaries, they would redouble their efforts to provide a remedy.

Were the Indians averse to instruction, or did we see no fruit resulting from our labours, we might relinquish our posts with less regret; but the very contrary is the fact. The Indian Church is crowded; the Cree Indian Schools are crowded. The cry from the Cree or the Muscaigo Indians is, "Send us Teachers!" "Give us the Word of God!"

During my residence of three years and a quarter, I have baptized nearly 200 Indians; and the communicants at the Indian Church, during the same period, have nearly doubled. I found forty-four, and have admitted thirty-two; so that, deducting four deaths, the present number is seventy-two. With these evidences of the Divine Blessing, is it possible that we can contemplate an abandonment of any of our Stations, without feelings of the deepest sorrow—and, permit me to add, without the reproach of our own consciences?

STATE OF THE FINANCES.

THE signal blessing vouchsafed to the Society, with regard to its Finances, has been already noticed. The Receipts of the year, from all sources, are as follows:—

General Fund	£ 104,177	15	7
Fourah-Bay-Institution Buildings' Fund	339	3	0
Capital Fund	3715	1	3
Sick and Disabled Missionaries' Fund	1063	10	9
	£ 115,100	10	7

The Expenditure of the year stands as follows:—

On the General Fund Account	£ 92,446	1	9
Liquidation of Debt	6495	18	11
	£ 98,942	0	8

Since the accounts were closed on the 31st of March, a further payment has been made, on account of debt, of 6000*l.*

Thus, through the Divine bountifulness, the debt of the Society, which at the commencement of the year amounted to 13,500*l.*, is now reduced to 1000*l.*

In the Receipts of the year are included 5805*l.* (6000*l.* 3 per cent. Consols), a Legacy of the late Rev. John Natt, and a like sum of 5805*l.*, a munificent Benefaction by one who wishes to be no otherwise known than as Ἐλαχιστότερος (Less than the least). It is also gratifying to the Committee to report, that the Receipts of the year include a Benefaction from the Corporation of the City of London of 500*l.*

The appropriation of the Benefaction of 6000*l.* Consols is thus limited by the donor:—

I would destine and limit it to a special object; an object, nevertheless, which I have observed has already occupied the attention of several warm friends of the Society, but which has not yet been taken up, it appears, for want of the necessary means; namely, an attempt to make known the knowledge of a Saviour to that vast country, China, to which, apparently, an access is now open to us.

In pursuance of the course explained in the last Annual Report, the Committee, immediately after the Anniversary Meeting, took measures to reduce the scale of the year's expenditure to 85,000*l.* The arrangements for that purpose embraced the relinquishment of the Society's operations in Malta, Trinidad, and Jamaica, and a reduction of expenditure in some other Missions. It required, however, a considerable interval to carry out these arrangements in the distant Missions. The Printing Establishment at Malta has been entirely disposed of. In Jamaica, the Mission is now reduced to two Missionaries and one Catechist; but it was not practicable to effect the reduction of the Mission without involving an expenditure on account of it, in the past year, of nearly 6000*l.* In Trinidad, the difficulties have been still greater in effecting a reduction of the Society's establishment. The cost of this Mission, therefore, is little less than in the preceding year.

In the total of 92,446*l.*, above mentioned, is also included 1995*l.* 18*s.* 11*d.* for tradesmen's bills, forming part of the debt at the beginning of the year.

In those Missions, the operations of which the Committee decided on continuing, they have the fullest reason to believe that the ratio of expenditure assigned to them will be strictly adhered to.

On analyzing the aggregate of the gross Receipts of the past year, with a view to fix the ratio of Expenditure for the ensuing year, it was requisite to deduct the following items —either as not applicable to the general expenditure of the Society; as not to be anticipated in the next year; or, as in the case of the Contributions in the Missions, as applicable to the support of the Missions wherein they are raised, in addition to the sums allowed from home:—

Capital Fund	£ 3715
Sick and Disabled Missionaries' Fund	1063
Rev. J. Natt's Legacy	5805
Benefaction (China Fund)	5805
Negro-Education Grant	1850
City-of-London Grant	500
Contributions in the Missions	4756
	£ 23,494

The Committee, moreover, have not felt themselves warranted to calculate on the same amount of Benefactions as received in the last year, when Contributions were liberally made with the special view of liberating the Society from debt.

On the best view which the Committee have been able to take of the financial situation of the Society, they have judged it right to adhere to the course pursued last year, and to limit the scale of Expenditure for the year, on account of the existing Missions of the Society, to 85,000*l.* The discontinuation of the Malta Establishment; the reduction of the Mission in Jamaica to its present limited extent; and the prospect of narrowing the expenditure of the Society in Trinidad, will, it is anticipated, leave at the disposal of the new Committee the means of some enlargement of operations in the existing Missions. The means thus available will, however, fall far short of what is needed to enable the Committee duly to improve the encouraging opportunities of extending the Society's operations which are placed within their reach. Indeed, the Committee feel that the circumstances of the Society are such as to demand the persevering prayers and exertions of their friends to sustain the operations to which the Society is already pledged.

It has been stated above, that the Benefaction of 6000*l.* Consols is limited to China. With such a foundation laid for resuming the operations of the Society in that country, the Committee could no longer decline taking preparatory measures for that purpose. They have, therefore, determined on engaging the services of two Clergymen as Missionaries to China, so soon as two individuals of suitable qualifications for this difficult undertaking shall be met with. At present, the General Fund of the Society is insufficient to provide for a Mission to China, even of this limited extent. The Committee have, therefore, opened a separate Fund for the China Mission. They do so with considerable solicitude, lest it should operate to the diminution of the General Fund, at present inadequate duly to sustain the existing Missions. They trust, therefore, that their friends, in promoting Contributions to the China Mission Fund, will use the utmost precaution not to injure the General Fund.

It is stated above, that the amount received on account of the Capital Fund during the year was 3715*l.* This, in addition to the sum reported last year, makes a total of about 5000*l.*—an amount wholly inadequate to effect the purpose for which this Fund was opened. The proceedings of the past year have afforded an additional illustration of the necessity of a fund of this description of considerable amount.

In the course of the year, the Committee were compelled to borrow to the extent of 19,000*l.*, to meet the inequality between the Receipts and Expenditure which constantly occurs during a considerable part of the year. This involved a charge last year for Interest of upward of 700*l.* To this expenditure the Society must be constantly subjected, until a sum of money, constituting a Capital Fund, shall be placed at the disposal of the Committee equal to meet the inequality between Expenditure and Income above adverted to; and so relieve them from the necessity of borrowing money to meet the current expenditure. The Committee, therefore, earnestly solicit Contributions from their friends to this Fund.

CONCLUSION.

The Committee, in concluding their Report, desire to impress upon the friends of the Church Missionary Society the urgent need which exists for the continuance of those noble efforts by which its treasury has been replenished: and they earnestly deprecate the notion, that, because so large a sum has been raised during the last year, they may now relax in their exertions.

We need all the strength at present employed in each of our successful Missions, in order to sustain the work which God has graciously enabled us to accomplish. European superintendence over those feeble flocks which have been gathered in Tinnevelly, Krishnaghur, and the villages near Calcutta, will be absolutely necessary for many years to come, to preserve them from being scattered, or from falling into such a state as will disgrace the Christian name.

Never should it be forgotten, that the venerable Schwartz and his co-adjutors left a large flock, which, through the neglect of the succeeding generation, fell into a condition little better than that of Heathenism. The blessed work we now commemorate in Tinnevelly is but the revival of the work which Schwartz left behind him forty years ago.

The Bishop of Calcutta lately visited Tinnevelly; and after witnessing the Mission-work of this Society, and the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, combining both of them in one animated appeal, his Lordship exclaims: "I cannot but express my wonder at these blessed Missions! There must be twenty-four more Missionaries sent out, twelve from each Society. For now all the harvest languishes for want of reapers. . . . . England has done nothing for her heathen subjects in India, comparatively speaking. Where are our pious young Clergy? Where the flower of Oxford and Cambridge? Where the enterprising spirit of our glorious Military and Naval Christians returned home from the wars, and prepared to devote themselves to the spiritual conflict with Satan in the strongholds of Idolatry in the East?"

But, not only is there a sacred necessity upon us to continue a full measure of support to the existing Missions: new and most wonderful openings have been suddenly presented to us; and dead to every Christian and generous impulse must be the heart which can contemplate them without emotion.

A highway into Central Africa, and the banks of the Upper Niger, has been pointed out, by the evident finger of God, through Sierra Leone, comparatively free from that terrific scourge which haunts the regions of the Delta and the Confluence. The Kings and Chiefs of Inland Tribes have been the foremost to invite us to send Missionaries to them, and to receive their sons into our Seminary at Sierra Leone: thus, as it were, interchanging hostages with us, in ratification of a solemn compact that England and Africa shall yet be united in the brotherhood of a common faith.

The eyes of Christendom are turned also with intense interest and expectation toward China. The amount of its population—more, probably, than one-half of the whole heathen world; the deep injury inflicted upon its morals and its prosperity, by British Christians, through the nefarious traffic in opium, the barrier which has hitherto encircled its empire and excluded the Gospel; the peculiar facilities afforded for the rapid propagation of Christianity, when once the breach shall have been made, by the fact that almost the whole male population is a reading population, and reading the same books, however much their spoken dialects differ—all these, and many other circumstances, justify the eager interest with which the hearts of Christians beat at the mention of China.

And if providential facilities for the accomplishment of a work form any indications of the Divine Will—which every Christian will admit that they do—then has God honoured this Society with a special call, both to penetrate into Central Africa, and also to attempt an entrance into China: for in the former case, a way has been opened for us without any expense to us; in the latter, the Lord has put it into the heart of one of His servants to devote the noble Benefaction of 6000*l.* for this specific purpose.

May we not confidently trust that the same good Providence will go before us, and stir up faithful and bold and wise men to go forth as Missionaries; that the Lord will direct their course, and uphold and strengthen them in their work, and by them gather into the fold of Christ many of the illiterate idolaters of Africa, and of the deluded followers of Confucius, Laon-tza, and Buddhu, in China? But if Central Africa, and China with its gigantic population, are to be attempted, let it not be by a puny effort. Operations must be carried on upon a large scale. The day is gone by when simple Christians, after dismissing two or three Missionaries, could sit down in the self-complacent hope that they had evangelized a vast continent. No; such enterprises as we are now called to, will require, ultimately, a body of men who can support each other by their counsel and prayers, and stand in the breach when one and another falls, and so carry forward the arduous work.

The Committee call, therefore, upon their friends, to continue, yea, with increased ardour to renew their efforts for supplying the necessary funds; first, for maintaining and strengthening our present Missions; and secondly, for entering upon the glorious openings now before us. And knowing the strength of those motives which animate the hearts of Christians, the Committee feel assured that their friends will respond to this call. The love of Christ has not lost its constraining efficacy; but as time rolls on, and the contemplation of the Church is more and more directed toward the consummation of all things, it surely will exercise an increasing influence over the hearts of believers. And if other motives be wanting at this hour, as handmaids to that sovereign principle, let us remember those national mercies which we have lately received, in the happy termination of the war, both in Affghanistan and China, and in the averting of a war with America. These mercies seem to call for some special acknowledgment: and what can be a more appropriate acknowledgment of them, than a special effort in the cause of the Prince of Peace?

God is the Lord, which hath showed us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

STATEMENT OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY IN THE CASE OF THE REV. W. T. HUMPHREY.

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society have hitherto abstained from publishing any explanation of their proceedings in the Case of the Rev. W. T. Humphrey, lately a Missionary of the Society in South India.

For nine months, ex-parte statements, adverse to the Committee, have been published and widely circulated: nevertheless, the Committee have put forth no reply. They have thus acted, out of deference to the wishes of His Grace the Primate, and in the hope that the satisfactory arrangement of this painful affair might be thereby facilitated.

This course has, indeed, put to the test the confidence of the Friends and Subscribers of the Society at large in the fidelity of the Committee. And it is cause of great thankfulness, that, in very few cases, has that confidence been withheld.

The altered position of the Case, in consequence of Mr. Humphrey having availed himself of the Committee's offer of a passage home, has at length set the Committee at liberty to review the circumstances, and to offer an explanation of their past proceedings.

As the documents are numerous and of some length, the Committee will give a general view of the chief points in the Case; referring those who may wish for greater detail to the Papers which will form the Appendix.

The Case of the Rev. W. T. Humphrey having become somewhat complicated, through the concurrent proceedings of the Madras and of the Parent Committee, it will be well to divide it into three distinct portions:

I.—THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS COMMITTEE RESPECTING MR. HUMPHREY'S LETTER.

II.—THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE PARENT COMMITTEE ON THE RECEIPT OF MR. HUMPHREY'S LETTER, AND THE RESOLUTIONS THEREUPON OF THE MADRAS COMMITTEE.

III.—THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE PARENT COMMITTEE IN RESPECT OF THE REFERENCE OF THE CASE BY THE BISHOP OF MADRAS, AS FALLING UNDER LAW XXXII., TO THE ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF ENGLAND AND IRELAND.

I.—The Proceedings of the Madras Committee respecting Mr. Humphrey's Letter.

The Rev. W. T. Humphrey was a Missionary of the Society stationed at Mayaveram. On the 1st of September 1841, he transmitted to the Madras Corresponding Committee an elaborate exposition of his own views respecting Missionary Operations, and a statement of the course he was then taking in pursuance of those views *.

As a part, and, in Mr. Humphrey's opinion, an essential part, of his operations, he proposed to build a Church of a peculiar and, in the opinion of the Committee, objectionable construction upon the Society's property at Mayaveram, which was to be the Mission Church of the Station. The plan of this Church accompanied his Letter to the Madras Committee †; and he had already written home to solicit Subscriptions for the erection of it, without the knowledge or sanction of the Society.

It appeared, at a subsequent stage of the proceedings, that Mr. Humphrey had previously made known his views, in writing, to the Bishop of Madras; and that the Bishop's reply thereto had also been received by Mr. Humphrey. But the existence of this correspondence was not known to the Madras Committee, or to the Parent Committee, till both Committees had formally recorded their Resolutions on the Case.

The Madras Committee having considered Mr. Humphrey's Letter, on the 8th Sept. 1841 recorded the following Minute: "That they have received with the deepest pain the communication of the Rev. Mr. Humphrey's views, as explained in his Letter of Sept. 1,

* No. I. p. 125. † See Plan, facing p. 130.

1841: and they feel, that neither as Members of the Church of England, nor as Representatives of the Church Missionary Society, can they in any manner sanction views which they believe to be entirely opposed both to the doctrines of that Church and to the principles on which the Society is founded;—and it is their deliberate judgment, that the maintenance of such principles as the Rev. Mr. Humphrey has now distinctly avowed necessarily disqualifies any person from labouring in connexion with a Missionary Society of the Church of England."

Mr. Humphrey's Letter, accompanied by this Resolution, was transmitted without delay, by the Madras Committee, to the Parent Committee, and to the Bishop of Madras, who was then absent from the Presidency. They also communicated their Resolution to Mr. Humphrey. Having made these communications, the Madras Committee took no further step toward the dissolution of Mr. Humphrey's connexion with the Society till they received the Resolutions of the Parent Committee of Nov. 30, 1841: though a correspondence took place between Mr. Humphrey and the acting Secretary of the Madras Committee upon the statements contained in Mr. Humphrey's Letter of September 1, 1841.

In judging the conduct of the Madras Committee, it will be important to bear in mind, that it was their duty to report any case which might seem to call for the interference either of the Diocesan or of the Parent Committee, to those Authorities respectively. This duty, in the case of the Diocesan, was recognised in certain Regulations laid down by the Bishop of Calcutta in 1835, in communication with the Parent Committee, and which were adopted in the diocese of Madras, in the following terms:—

"1. The Bishop expresses — by granting or withholding his license, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation, or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-Patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage:—the Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishop officially neither could wish nor properly ask."

The Madras Committee, in transmitting their Minute to the Bishop of Madras, together with Mr. Humphrey's Letter, conceived that they were only acting in conformity with Regulations III. and IV.; the Bishop of Madras being President of the Corresponding Committee.

It must also be borne in mind, in order to form a correct judgment upon the conduct of the Committee at Madras, that they regarded the opinions of Mr. Humphrey as practical errors directly affecting Missionary operations, and destructive of their success. In the same light the Parent Committee regarded them.

II.—The Proceedings of the Parent Committee on the receipt of Mr. Humphrey's Letter, and the Resolutions thereupon of the Madras Committee.

The Minute of the Madras Committee, with its accompanying documents, was brought, in due course of business, before the Parent Committee, on the 30th of November 1841.

The Parent Committee did not adopt or confirm the Minute of the Madras Committee, or found their future proceedings upon it. They felt that the terms in which that Minute was expressed were in some respects justly liable to objection.

They therefore substituted Resolutions of their own, as the ground of their proceedings; and they conceived that this course would of itself imply that they did not intend to sanction or adopt more of the Madras Minute than they had embodied in their own Resolution.

The following were the Resolutions passed by the Parent Committee on this occasion:—

"I. That the Committee record their entire satisfaction at the promptitude with which the [Madras] Corresponding Committee have acted in the painful affair of the Rev. W. T. Humphrey's Letter of September 1, 1841.

"II. That the Committee fully concur in opinion with the Corresponding Committee, that the maintenance of such principles as Mr. Humphrey has distinctly avowed, necessarily disqualifies him from labouring in connexion with this Society.

"III. That the principles of action to which the Committee more particularly refer, are—

"(1) The restriction which Mr. Humphrey would place upon the dispersion of the Holy Scriptures among the Heathen.

"(2) The reserve which he would practise in declaring the fundamental doctrines of Christianity, in his preaching to the Heathen*.

"IV. That while the Committee acknowledge the honesty and candour with which Mr. Humphrey avows his intention of adhering to these principles of action, in the discharge of his office as a Missionary of the Church Missionary Society—and declares that the adoption of them has been the result of long deliberation—they feel that they are precluded, by this very circumstance, from making any attempt to produce a change in Mr. Humphrey's views; and that they are therefore under the painful necessity of declaring their conviction, that it is impossible for a person to continue in connexion with the Society while he acts in direct opposition to the Instructions which the Society has delivered to its Missionaries, and to the practice by which its operations have ever been characterized.

"V. That the foregoing Resolutions be communicated to the Right Rev. the Bishop of Madras; and that immediate steps be taken to supply the post at Mayaveram, held by Mr. Humphrey."

1. In commending "the promptitude" with which the Madras Committee had acted, the Parent Committee intended simply to express their satisfaction that the Madras Committee had, in the very first case in which such sentiments as those of Mr. Humphrey had been avowed by a Missionary of the Church Missionary

* It is but fair toward Mr. Humphrey to state, that, in reply to the Letter of the Rev. H. Cotterill, transmitting the Minute of the Madras Committee, he disclaims certain deductions which Mr. Cotterill had made from his Letter of Sept. 1. This disclaimer in some measure bears upon these Resolutions of the Parent Committee. Mr. Humphrey's Letter is therefore inserted as an Appendix[a]. This Letter was before the Committee on the 30th of November; but did not alter the view which they took of Mr. Humphrey's Letter of the 1st of September.

(a) No. III. p. 131.

Society, so promptly taken the case into consideration, and reported it both to the Parent Committee and to the Bishop of the Diocese.

2. The Resolutions of the Parent Committee, it will be observed, exclude all allusion to any other Missionary Society; and are confined to Mr. Humphrey's disqualification for the service of the Church Missionary Society.

3. The Resolutions of the Parent Committee also pronounce no opinion upon that which they considered to be the ecclesiastical part of the subject. The Committee conceive that the question of a Missionary's unsuitableness for the service of a particular Society is distinct from that of his unsuitableness for the Ministry of the Church; though each question may involve the consideration of his theological opinions. To pronounce upon the latter question lies within the province of the Diocesan: to decide upon the former is within the province of the Committee of the Society.

4. The Resolutions of the Parent Committee did not constitute an actual and immediate dissolution of Mr. Humphrey's connexion with the Society. They undoubtedly contemplated that event as inevitable. But the process by which it was to be accomplished was designedly left open, till after communication should have been had with the Bishop of Madras. And the Committee will venture to add, that had the proceedings of the Society been allowed to take their course, and to remain unpublished, Mr. Humphrey's return home, or removal to some other situation, might have been effected, without any injury to his circumstances or reputation.

The Resolutions of the Parent Society were transmitted to the Madras Corresponding Committee, with an Official Letter, stating that it was the wish of the Committee that a passage to England should be offered to Mr. Humphrey by the earliest eligible opportunity; and that, should this be declined by him, the Corresponding Committee should continue to him his salary, pending a reference home.

The Resolutions were also transmitted at the same time to the Bishop of Madras, with an Official Letter from the Honorary Secretary, from which the following is an extract:—

"The Committee felt some hesitation at taking any active step in this matter, till they had heard from your Lordship. But, upon full consideration, they have thought it best—and that you will yourself probably have expected it — that they should at once declare their views of the course proposed to be followed by Mr. Humphrey, in his capacity of a Missionary of the Society.

"Upon the Ecclesiastical part of the question, this Committee would pronounce no opinion. That has been properly referred, by the Madras Corresponding Committee, to your Lordship, as Bishop of the Diocese.

"But when a course of action is so distinctly laid down, as in Mr. Humphrey's Letter of 1st of September, which is directly at variance with the understanding on which he was engaged, and the views entertained by the Committees both at home and abroad, it is evident that the Committee cannot, with any regard to justice or propriety, continue to employ his agency, and thus to promote such a course of proceeding.

"We deeply deplore the adoption of such a line of conduct by Mr. Humphrey, because we regard him as otherwise calculated to be a useful Missionary.

"We propose, with your Lordship's permission, to supply, as soon as it is possible, another Missionary for Mayaveram; and to give Mr. Humphrey the option of returning to England.

"On these grounds, the Resolutions have been adopted, which are herewith submitted to your Lordship."

III.—The Proceedings of the Parent Committee in respect of the Reference of the Case by the Bishop of Madras, as falling under Law XXXII., to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland.

The Bishop of Madras, upon the receipt of the Minute of the Madras Committee, and without waiting for the views of the Parent Committee upon it, transmitted a "Statement of Mr. Humphrey's Case" to the Archbishop of Canterbury; grounded solely upon the proceedings of the Madras Corresponding Committee, and required the Parent Committee to refer this case to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church, under Law XXXII.*

Although the objections raised by his Lordship were directed exclusively against the proceedings of the Madras Committee, his Lordship not having at that time been apprised of the views of the Parent Committee; yet, as it was clear that the same objections would in some measure lie against the Resolutions which they had themselves adopted, the Committee proceeded to take the "Statement of Mr. Humphrey's Case" into their careful consideration.

* No. IV. p. 132.

The Laws upon which the Reference made by the Bishop of Madras was grounded are the following:—

"XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

"XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

"The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

"While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound."

The Committee felt themselves called upon by Law XXXIII., to inquire whether the points raised by the Bishop, in his "Statement," fell "within the scope" of Law XXXII., as explained by Law XXXIII.

Those points are thus described in the Bishop's Statement:—

"The questions which arise out of this affair resolve themselves as follows:—

"1. After a candid perusal of Mr. Humphrey's Papers, both his public Letters and demi-official or public Explanations, is he to be considered heterodox, and therefore unworthy of, or disqualified for, the Service of the Church of England as a Missionary?

"2. Has any Committee of a Society, which claims to be considered as a Society of the Members of the Church of England, any power to pass a sentence which virtually amounts to a deprivation from his cure, on any Clergyman, without reference to his Diocesan?

"The sentence of a Committee is a virtual deprivation; because, if entitled to any consideration, it must subject the censured to the loss of his means of support, which are disbursed by the Committee.

"3. Are the opinions and views of the Clergy, until they are declared heterodox by the Diocesan, a fit subject of condemnation by a Committee? and if any doubts are entertained by a Committee as to the orthodoxy or heterodoxy of a Clergyman, supported by the Parent Society, are not the Committee bound, as Members of the Church of England, to seek the interference of the Diocesan, and an explanation of doubtful views through the same channel?"

As the Parent Committee, according to the distinction already laid down between the suitableness of a Missionary for the service of any particular Society, and his suitableness for the Ministry in general, had abstained from pronouncing an opinion upon the orthodoxy or heterodoxy of Mr. Humphrey's sentiments; and as the Bishop of Madras himself declined stating any opinion upon this question; there was therefore, upon this point, no question at issue between the Bishop of Madras and the Parent Committee.

The Committee conceived, however, that the main question in this case raised by the Bishop, was, Whether the Committee had the right of withdrawing the salary of a licensed Missionary without the Bishop's concurrence; and they thought it best, therefore, at once to meet this part of the case. It appeared to the Committee, that the questions raised by the Bishop of Madras evidently impugned this right; and that the proposed reference to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church would, in fact, be a surrender of it.

But (1) This right has ever been regarded as one of the established "principles of the Society."

(2) It had been asserted and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report, and therefore was expressly excepted from the operation of Law XXXII *.

(3) Moreover, this right had been fully explained to the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of London, when the new Laws were adopted.

* No. V. p. 137.

(4) And further, it appeared to the Committee inherent in the constitution of a Voluntary Society, that the Committee, who are merely the representatives of voluntary Annual Contributors, should—in common language—hold the purse-strings.

On these grounds the Committee conceived that they were not competent to do any thing which might compromise that right.

Though the Committee had thus arrived at the conclusion, that the main question at issue in the reference proposed by the Bishop of Madras did not fall within the scope of Law XXXII., as explained by Law XXXIII., yet they determined to act in the spirit of their new Laws, by laying the Case before the Archbishop of Canterbury, and also before the Bishop of London, through whom the original negociation respecting those Laws was carried on, and frankly to state the difficulties in which it was involved.

The views of the Committee were embodied in the form of Resolutions, which were adopted February 12, 1842*. The concluding Resolution was expressed in the following terms:—

"That though the Committee have determined, by the preceding Resolution (IV.), that the Case proposed by the Bishop of Madras to be referred to the Primate, under the provisions of Law XXXII., does not come within the terms of those provisions, and cannot therefore be so referred by them, they deem it right to lay the whole Case of Mr. Humphrey, including their own Resolutions, before the Primate and the Bishop of London; and that the Secretaries should respectfully solicit an interview with them, for the purpose of confidential communication with them thereupon."

Accordingly, all the documents connected with the Case were laid before His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, and also before the Lord Bishop of London.

Several interviews have been granted to the Secretaries, by the Primate and the Bishop of London; and, at their request, the Committee have paused in their proceedings, and abstained from publishing any statement of the Case; though they found it necessary, in September 1842, in consequence of the numerous inquiries which were made, to print a Confidential Circular, explanatory of the true position of the question, and calling upon their friends to suspend their judgment upon it till further information should be laid before them. The Committee also continued to pay Mr. Humphrey his salary.

While the Committee were thus pausing in their proceedings they received certain Minutes of the Madras Committee, which were adopted by that Committee upon the receipt of the Resolutions of the Parent Committee, Nov. 30, 1841; by which the Madras Committee called on Mr. Humphrey to deliver over the Mission to Mr. Taylor, the Catechist who had been in charge of the Station before Mr. Humphrey arrived at Mayaveram, and who remained on the spot. The Committee also received a second Statement of the Bishop of Madras, in which he complains of this proceeding, and also of the Resolutions of the Parent Committee: but the Committee postponed the formal consideration of these documents, in expectation of further communication from the Primate.

On the 29th of August 1842, Mr. Humphrey applied for a passage to England, according to the offer which the Committee had made to him in their Letter accompanying their Resolutions of 30th Nov. 1841; and has since returned home, and received an appointment as Chaplain to the Honourable East India Company on the Bengal Establishment.

In conclusion, the Committee confidently appeal to the foregoing Statement, as affording proof that they did not disregard, in their proceedings, the authority of the Bishop of Madras; though they have since been informed, by those whose judgment is entitled to the utmost deference, that their mode of proceeding was wrong, in that they should have waited till they had heard from his Lordship before they expressed so formal a judgment as that contained in their Resolution of the 30th of November 1841. They are willing to offer the fullest apology in their power for the apparent want of respect with which this part of their proceedings may be chargeable. It is the unfeigned desire of the Committee, no less than it is their duty, in carrying on their operations to render all due submission to Episcopal authority, and they confidently trust that no cause of offence will in future occur.

The Committee also appeal to their conduct for the last fifteen months—during which period they have suspended all proceedings, as far as possible, in Mr. Humphrey's case—as a proof of their desire to pay the utmost deference to their Ecclesiastical superiors.

The Committee will only add, that they can never contemplate, without deep regret, the necessity of separating from any Missionaries with whom they have been once connected: a paramount sense of duty can alone compel them to such a step—the duty of acting with all fidelity to the trust committed to them by the Subscribers at large, by upholding the principles, on the faith of which the funds are contributed.

"The object of the Society,"—to adopt the words employed by the Society at the conclusion of their Report, May 1841, on the eve of their adoption of the new Laws—"from its very commencement, has been, to endeavour to teach the Gospel to all the Heathen Nations of the world, in obedience to the Saviour's command. This too, from the first, the Society has striven to do, in accordance with the doctrines and discipline of our own Church, as they were established at the Reformation. To preach Christ, and Him crucified, has been the great end proposed to and by your Missionaries, in accordance with and submission to the ecclesiastical order and polity of the Church. This object and these principles your Committee trust will be handed down, undefiled and unimpaired, from year to year."..... "And they trust, that neither faith, nor watchfulness, nor prayer, will be wanting; that the principles of the Society may never be compromised; and that it may continue to be the honoured instrument of sending forth the pure Gospel of Christ, as it was preached by Cranmer, and Latimer, and Ridley, and the Martyrs and Reformers of our Church."

No. I.

THE REV. W. T. HUMPHREY TO MAJOR BROWNE.

Mayaveram Shealy, Sept. 1, 1841.

MY DEAR SIR—Agreeable to the Resolution of the Madras Corresponding Committee, dated February 12, 1840, relative to the erection of any Building on Mission-ground, I beg leave to send, for the Committee's inspection, plans and elevations, &c., of a Church, which it is my heart's desire to erect at Mayaveram.

I dare say you will be surprised at the magnitude of the scale on which I wish to commence; but I hope the Committee will throw no obstacle in my way on this account, as I believe this to be very essential to the effective carrying out of the plans which I have laid down for my future labours. Those Gentlemen of the Committee who know the Tanjore Collectorate know that it is most famous for its magnificent pagodas and religious establishments; nor is there any reason to doubt but that these things tend very much to neutralize the effects of efforts for the conversion of Hindoos: indeed, from the first, mankind have cherished a fondness and a reverence for their sacred places; and have ever, even in the best times, done their best to render them outwardly worthy of the Divine Being whom, whether rightly or ignorantly, they adored. I regard it, therefore, as a reasonable thing, that when we would essay to transfer the devotion of the Hindoos from their unworthy objects to Him who gave them life and breath and all things, we should take good care that we have an antagonist system, fitted, as fully as may be, for the reception of those who through mercy may be brought over.

I own it may appear paradoxical, to make a stir about the building a Church before—as it might almost be said—before we have Christians to enter it; but I am one of those who think that, in Religious matters, the supply should not always wait for the demand. From the little experience I have had of natives, I judge, that, in order successfully to combat the vast influence which their vast and spacious sacred courts crowded with apparently devout worshippers — their secret recesses, hallowed by many a tradition—their seclusion, and a thousand other things with which the minds of Hindoos are every day brought into contact here—if we would successfully compete with these, it must be, not to destroy, but to transfer; not by despising or ridiculing the things which they hold so sacred, but by showing them a more excellent way; by providing hallowed fanes, with hallowing Services; and putting such garb on our Religion, that they may at least not spurn it for its nakedness. With this end in view, therefore, and influenced by a vast number of considerations which for some years have been forced upon me, but which to write at large would be tedious, I propose to erect the Church, the plans of which accompany this Letter. I should say, however, in explanation of my selecting the transept form in preference to the plain rectangular oblong, that I was led to this chiefly with a desire to arrange under one roof several parts proper for the several classes into which it is my plan to divide those whom I may gather round me, so as to hold out each certain portion as being in advance of others. In this, as in many other arrangements, I would follow the leading of the early propagators of the Faith, which I believe to be most fully adapted for this country. I have long been of opinion, that, in our eagerness to extend the Gospel, we unwittingly bar men's hearts against its reception by a too lavish dispersion of the whole naked truth among those who are not yet prepared, by previous discipline, to appreciate it. Without dwelling on the fact, that our bitterest opponents are those who have been initiated into all the Christian doctrines in our Schools, I would rather, in confirmation of my view of the case, point to the fact, that in the only inspired Church history we have, the Acts of the Apostles, I have not been able to find a single instance where it is recorded, or even implied, that the Apostles took the naked Scriptures as their text book, in addressing PURE Heathens. All the assemblies wherein St. Paul or his associates took their arguments from the Word of God, were composed of Jews or Jewish proselytes, as may be seen on reference: and this was a reasonable plan; for THEY ONLY regarded those books as authentic, and to them only was the study of them permitted. And so with the Hindoo of the present day: he will not recognise the Bible as having authority with him, or as binding on him; but simply regards it as the Christian's Vedam, which may be well enough for him. If they did recognise its authority, reason good that its solemn oaths and warnings should be opened to them; but the fact is otherwise; and we must deal with men as they are, if we would make them better than they are. This did St. Paul, 1 Cor. ix. 20—22. It was to JEWS our Blessed Lord had said, Search the Scriptures; for to them were committed the Oracles of God: and therefore to SUCH St. Paul opened out the Word, appealed to the prophets; for these were sources of authority which they recognised. But with pure Gentiles or Heathen he went another way to work: with them he argued even from their own Writers, in order to show how, from a pure mono-theism celebrated by their earlier Poets, they had lapsed most inconsistently and wrongfully into a degraded poly-theism. Another object seems to have been, to induce them first to receive him as a Teacher sent from the One True and Living God; and afterwards, when they were more favourably disposed for its reception, he would more fully instruct them, as soon as their hearts were fit to reverence and receive those things which it concerned them to know and believe to their souls' health. To this end served his pastoral discourses while among those Churches of Converted Heathen which he had planted; and the various Epistles which are yet extant contain the supplemental instruction which, being removed from them, or unable to visit, he was yet desirous of imparting to them: and thence arises the value of the Epistles to those who minister among newly-formed Churches. Now it is remarkable, that in these Epistles he never addresses those to whom he writes, as Heathen—though perhaps even only babes in Christ; consequently we have milk for babes, as well as strong meat for those of riper faith. But we have, I believe, no authority for the system which, at the present day, lays open before the Heathen—the obstinate cavilling Heathen—the open Book of God's Truth from Genesis to Revelation, and says of it, "Now there is God's message to you; read it, and you will be sure to be convinced of its truth and reasonableness." The result proves otherwise. They are not convinced; and the reason is plain—because the mind is gratified at being constituted a judge in such a cause: it is bent on being a pretty sharp judge too, as it has nothing to inspire it with dread of a superior authority. It is, moreover, far from being an unbiassed judge: all its prejudices and prepossessions are in favour of a widely-different system; and therefore the apparent contradictions of God's most holy Word are at once pronounced on as proving its want of Divinity; and the history of the Moabites is triumphantly adduced to show that the God of the Christians is quite as bad as Christians can represent the Hindoo deities. Again, in England, where all are Christians, at least by profession, our Churches, in all parts of them, and each Service, is open to all who choose to attend: this is an Englishman's birthright, or rather the right of his New Birth; and in the present state of society and of discipline we cannot well tell who is, or who is not, fit to attend: but to have the same at Mayaveram for promiscuous attendance cannot be according to the Church's principles. It surely was not intended that unbaptized Pagans should enter Christ's Temple with as little ceremony as if walking into a toddy-shop, and listen to the Prayers; and thus get initiated into all the Christian mysteries, without the preparation of fasting and prayer, and gradual instruction, which our Church plainly deems a pre-requisite (see Office for Adult Baptism, prefatory rubric). If it be objected to this view, that, after all, none can call Jesus Lord but by the Holy Ghost, this is fully granted; but, then, do we expect prayers, which are intended for the USE of CHRISTIANS ripe in the Faith, should serve as the preaching of Peter or of Paul at Athens? or do no evils result from throwing thus the precious things of Christianity before swine? That this was not the custom of the early Church is plain from Justin Martyr, as quoted by Palmer (Compend. Eccl. Hist. pp. 52, 54, 55, 57). The very form of many of our Churches at Home points the same, which is of course more binding upon us to follow. These remarks, my dear Sir, which are the result of much prayer and thought for many past months, will prepare you for the following principles, by which, under the sanction of our Reverend Diocesan, I hope to regulate my labours, and to see them crowned by the Lord and Head of the Church with success in this place.

1. As a fundamental principle—In intercourse with and preaching to Heathen, to be careful only gradually to bring before them the mysteries of the Christian Scheme; pressing on them chiefly repentance and faith, in order to their right initiation into the Christian Church:—this to include carefulness about the measure and the kind of doctrine contained in Tracts; and to discourage a too lavish dispersion of the Word of God, without a Teacher at hand to explain it; and to exclude prayers through Christ from being taught in HEATHEN Schools, by Heathen Masters.

2. To revert to the ancient division of the people, into Hearers, Catechumens, and Faithful; so as to admit the first-mentioned only to preaching APPROPRIATE for them, and prayers FOR them—the Catechumens to be instructed separately, and to join in certain prayers for their fuller illumination—and the Faithful or Baptized alone to be admissible to the present Liturgy of the Anglican Church.

3. With this view I wish to build a Church in the early English style, substantial as to material, and with as much ornament as funds may allow of; and of such a form as to combine under one roof distinct portions for each class, so as to hold out the portion of the Faithful to be the highest and holiest; and in this way to symbolize the inaccessibility of heaven without holiness, and cause men to feel that there was a privilege in becoming a Christian, of which Heathen were not possessed; and thus, one would hope, to lead them more to desire it. A portion should also be assigned for future penitents, who, in conformity with the censures of the Church, shall be inadmissible to full communion.

4. To have, daily, Morning and Evening Service for the Faithful, with all the adjuncts and ceremony allowable or available; e.g. an organ, with chanting; which is much more agreeable to Tamul rhythm than is the singing of Tamul Hymns to English Psalm-tunes, by which both sound and sense is often sacrificed to the metre.

5. The body of Catechists—Native Deacons, when practicable—to be centralised as much as possible, so as to fully carry out the above principles, by assisting at the Prayers and Service of the Faithful—instructing Catechumens, and arguing, under the immediate eye and direction of the Missionary, with the Heathen; who might easily be collected by a little stir, and by the character for piety which, by our daily Service and our attention to Form, we should gain.

6. The adoption by the Missionary and his Assistants of an Ecclesiastical Dress, such as should be appointed by the Bishop—white, if possible; and of such a manner of life as would most strikingly convince the Natives of his being a Teacher sent from God: for until we ourselves act in such a way as will show Hindoos that we believe our Religion to be divine, we may labour long enough before we shall make them reverence it. Until they see us reverence our Faith in a way which THEY CAN APPRECIATE, they will cavil and jeer; but once meet them boldly on ground which they themselves hold as sacred, and the captious exercise of their reason will be checked by their deeply-rooted principle of faith.

Thus much, My dear Sir, with regard to the outline of my plan of labour; which, as far as I am able, I am working on now: though I feel, that until I get my Church built, and three or four good active and zealous Natives about me, I shall but effect little; so that I feel anxious as early as possible to be able to commence this great work, for the completion of which I am ready to make any sacrifice.

A few words now on ways and means. Having fully prepared my plans, Mr. Forbes, the Assistant Collector of Tanjore, kindly offered me the services of the Talook Building Maistry, to make an estimate of the probable cost; which, after a careful examination of the plans, he lays at a little under 5000 Rupees for the erection of the building, which is briefly as follows:—

Brickwork complete, from foundation—of Nave, Chancel, and Transepts	Rs. 3217½
Roofing & tiles—rafters of palms, and nails—of ditto . .	227½
West door 35 Rupees; Windows (31) 434 Rupees; White-wash, 250 Rupees	719
Tower, with 4 substantial pillars, arching, groining, or vaulting, and a spire 28 feet	829½
Total of Rupees,	4993½

(If the Tower piers are of granite, say 100 Rupees more.)

The brick-work is calculated at 3 Rupees per yard, while the work of the Company is done at 2¼: this is, to allow of greater strength and additional ornament, and trouble of new kind of work.

The general breadth (inside) of Nave, Chancel, and Transepts, is 20 feet.

The whole length from east to west (inside) is 100 feet (of which about 40 feet are to form a Nave for hearers, screened off from the remaining 60 feet of Choir and Chancel.)

The whole breadth across Transepts is 60 feet (of which the two extreme twenties are to be screened off from the Choir, as Chapels.)

The foundation of wall is to be 6 feet deep, and 3 feet thick.

The thickness of wall above ground, 2¼ feet.

Buttresses, 32 of them—in height above ground, 20 feet.

Ditto, foundation 6 feet deep; abutment from wall, 2 feet.

Windows (31 lights) 3 feet broad and 12 feet high.

Thence to rise of arch 19 feet—then height of wall in tower, 36 feet.

Then spire, exceeding this, 22 feet; making a total, from level of ground, of 77 feet.

Centre of arch will be about 29 feet from level of outside.

General outside length from E. to W., 106 feet.

I am not decided about having a spire, or simply a plain tower. I have marked the plan for either; but shall need some advice from your Engineer's friend on the subject of the spire.

The sum of 4993 Rupees does not include fittings-up, with organ and loft, font, bell or bells, and choir furniture, which might take 2000 more to do it handsomely; so that we may in round numbers say that about 6 or 7000 Rupees would be needed to complete the work. Now, I have written home to various friends, begging them to do what they can; and hope my appeal to them will not be in vain. I am so sanguine as to look for about £200 or £250 from Home: I hope also, if spared for four years, to devote what will amount to about another hundred; and I am not without hope that the Committee may assist, or at least put me into a way of increasing the amount to what we need; for I should be very sorry to have to curtail the dimensions, seeing that the mere existence of such a sacred building close by one of the grand southern thoroughfares, in a country much resorted to from all parts on account of its religious celebrity, would be likely to have an extensive influence and moral power; and in a territory justly famed for the vastness and the grandeur of its sacred edifices, even worldly wisdom would teach us to make some sacrifice in order to set up what may be deemed an antagonist or rival fane. I trust, therefore, you will take these considerations into account, and set forward my design as far as possible. If you wish for more information, I shall be most glad to furnish it; only I was afraid of becoming tedious.

I would, however, say a word on the subject of the time of commencing the building. I am anxious that there should be as little delay as possible; since I feel, that until it be erected my plans of action will be but half executed. I cannot learn the result of my application Home in less than 5 or 6 months: supposing, however, it should be favourable, and other prospects in India were so too, would the Committee object to advance the money as it might be needed—repaying their treasurers by the in-coming subscriptions until all should be paid off? This would be a great bonus to the undertaking, and might allow of commencing after the Monsoon, as soon as our prospects were ascertained to be cheering. I furnish a rough plan of the locality of the proposed Church; from which you will perceive that it will have a most "desirable frontage," and will be a very imposing object in the prospect. Praying most sincerely that your deliberations may be guided from above, and that the Lord would favourably bless this and all our other works to the furtherance of His irresistible will,

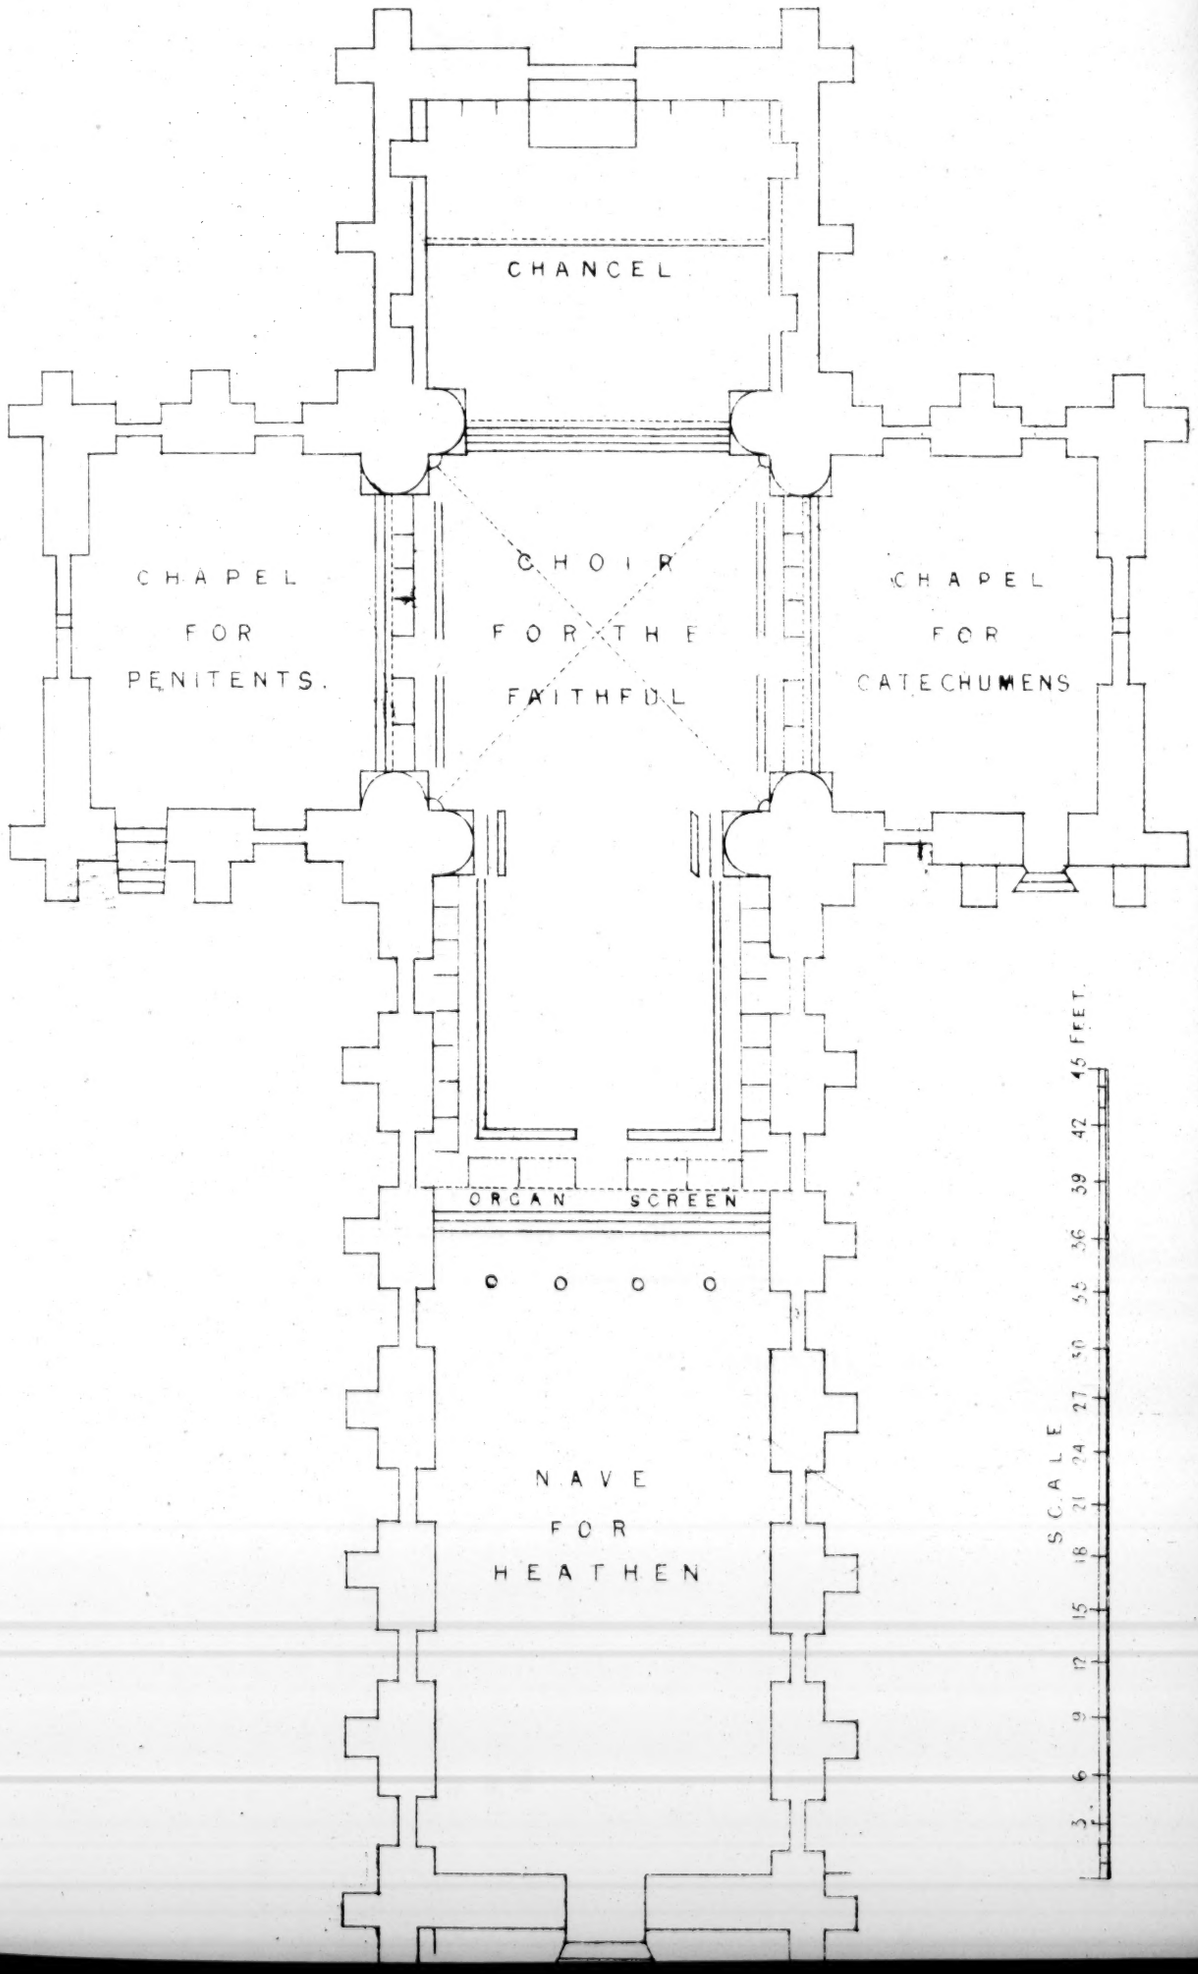
Believe me to remain,

My dear MAJOR BROWNE,

Yours most sincerely,

(Signed) W. TOPLEY HUMPHREY.

BASEMENT PLAN OF THE PROPOSED CHURCH AT MAYAVERAM



No. III.

THE REV. W. T. HUMPHREY TO THE REV. H. COTTERILL, ACTING SECRETARY TO THE MADRAS CORRESPONDING COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Mayaverám Shealy, Sept. 16, 1841.

MY DEAR SIR—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of yours of the 13th instant, giving cover to certain Resolutions of the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society.

As both the Letter and Resolutions state that a copy of the Correspondence is to be laid before the Bishop of Madras, it is inexpedient for me at present to make any observations upon the Letter and Resolutions; but as it is also stated that copies would be sent home to the Parent Committee by the next Mail, I must request you at the same time to forward this my most explicit protest against three of the inferences which you draw from my Letter.

1. "That the Gospel of Jesus Christ is not to be preached to every creature."

2. "That God's Word does not bear so manifest an impress of its Divine character and commission as we poor sinful creatures may bear—that we can be holier and better suited to the wants of God's creatures than His own Book."

3. The obscuration of the Doctrine of the Atonement, or of Christ Crucified.

These three principles are none of mine; and I therefore trust the Committee will see the propriety of enclosing this Note in their Despatch to the Parent Committee.

I remain, my dear Sir,

Most truly yours,

(Signed) W. TOPLEY HUMPHREY.

No. IV.

THE LORD BISHOP OF MADRAS TO THE REV. T. VORES, SECRETARY TO THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Kurnaul, Nov. 20, 1841.

REV. AND DEAR SIR—In accordance with the Thirty-third Rule of the Church Missionary Society, I have the honour to request that the case of the Rev. W. T. Humphrey, a Clergyman of my Diocese maintained here by the Society, and who has been pronounced, without any previous reference to me, by the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society, as unworthy of employment in any Mission of the Church of England, be referred, by the Committee, through His Grace the Primate, to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland.

I beg to enclose a Statement of the Case, as it presents itself to my mind, and a List of the Documents bearing upon it; and which have doubtless been already forwarded by the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society.

Believe me to be, Rev. and Dear Sir,
Your faithful Servant and Brother,
(Signed) G. T. MADRAS.

The Case of the Rev. W. T. Humphrey, Missionary of the Church Missionary Society, and the censures passed upon him by the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society, as laid before His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Parent Church Missionary Society, by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Madras.

The Papers which refer to this Case are as follows[1]:

1. A Letter from the Rev. W. T. Humphrey to the Lord Bishop, detailing his views on Missionary operations, and his plans for Mayaveram[2].
2. Letter from the Lord Bishop, acknowledging the same[3].
3. A Letter to the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society, from the Rev. W. T. Humphrey, on the same subjects as those referred to above[4].
4. Resolution of the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society, dated Sept. 8, condemning Mr. Humphrey.

(1) None of the Papers mentioned were sent to the Committee by the Bishop of Madras.

(2) This Letter has never reached the Committee.

(3) This Letter has never reached the Committee.

(4) Supposed to be that of Sept. 1, 1841.

5. Letter from the Rev. H. Cotterill, forwarding the same to the Rev. W. T. Humphrey, and explaining the same.

6. Letter from the Rev. H. Cotterill to the Lord Bishop, forwarding the same Resolution.

7. Letter from the Rev. W. T. Humphrey, disclaiming the inferences drawn by Mr. Cotterill as Acting Clerical Secretary.

8. Letter from the Lord Bishop, acknowledging the receipt of the same Resolution.

9. Letter from the Rev. H. Cotterill to the Lord Bishop, forwarding Mr. Humphrey's disclaimer[5].

10. Note from Mr. Humphrey to the Lord Bishop on the same subject[6].

11. Letter from the Rev. W. T. Humphrey, in reply to Mr. Cotterill's explanation of the Resolution of the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society.

12. Proceedings of Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society, Sept. 29, offering explanation of their Resolution, and specifying alleged errors.

13. Letter from the Rev. W. T. Humphrey to the Lord Bishop[7].

14. Letter from the Rev. H. Cotterill to the Lord Bishop, explaining the views under which he acted.

15. Letter from the Lord Bishop, acknowledging the same; dated October 14.

16. Letter from the Rev. H. Cotterill, in reply to his Lordship.

17. Letter from the Domestic Missionary Chaplain to the Lord Bishop, to the Rev. W. T. Humphrey[8].

18. Letter from the Lord Bishop to the Rev. H. Cotterill, as Acting Clerical Secretary.

The Case of Mr. Humphrey is so readily gathered from the most cursory perusal of the Papers above detailed, that little need be added, beyond a few words in explanation of them. When Mr. Humphrey addressed his Diocesan, detailing his views and plans, his Letter was received as a candid and straightforward declaration of his views; and although the whole of them were not fully acquiesced in, the general tenour was approved, as evincing a sincere and pious desire to discharge faithfully the duties of the Ministry; and his Diocesan felt convinced, that, on whatever point there might appear a tendency to ultra opinions, a little friendly and, as it was then expected, personal intercourse would have prevented any irregular and extravagant course of actions; and therefore a general approval of his Letter, reserving the discussion of details, was forwarded to Mr. Humphrey. When Mr. Humphrey addressed the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society on the same topics, he appears to have made, in a manly spirit, a free and unsuspecting statement of his views, under the impression that those to whom he was writing would give him full credit for possessing, honestly and truly, the principles of every consistent Clergyman; and that therefore, whatever might appear, at first sight, to be contrary to these would be received with candour, and explanation sought, before ever an opinion was formally expressed. As a public servant of the Church, and employed by the Church Missionary Society, he could not have expected that any body of persons, claiming to be recognised as the representatives of his "Patrons," would have proceeded to pass a summary sentence upon his Letters; especially when aware, as he was, that, sketching out a course somewhat different from that usually practised, he had rendered himself liable to a little misconception: he had offered to give "further information" on his views, if required. But it will be seen, that his Letter to the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society was received in a manner totally unexpected by Mr. Humphrey: not only were his opinions declared summarily to be erroneous and dangerous, but a deliberate sentence was recorded and reiterated, to the effect, that he was unworthy of employment in any Mission of the Church: not only were his plans disapproved by the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society (which disapproval was perhaps the utmost extent to which such a Committee can lawfully proceed), but his views and plans are declared to render him unworthy of being employed in his profession at all: and thus he is threatened with all the evils of deprivation, aggravated by the circumstance of his being possibly left destitute in a foreign land; and all this without any previous reference to the Diocesan. On the contrary, he has been expressly told, that "it is not to the Diocesan, but to the Parent Church Missionary Society, that the correspondence has been referred;" and that the laying of the same before the Diocesan was not to promote the exercise of his Episcopal authority, but merely for the information of the Diocesan. It may be fairly questioned, whether, on any pretence whatever, a Clergyman can be deprived of the privilege of being superintended by his Bishop, in all matters of doctrine and discipline; and whether any attempt at doing so be not an extension of the power of "Patrons" beyond all known or recognisable principles of the Church. To stigmatize a Clergyman as unworthy of employment in the Church, is a proceeding which ought never to be resorted to but in the extreme case of his having neglected all godly admonition, and then it should be effected by the proper Authority.

It may be noted, that the Paper No. 11. is now considered as a public document, both because the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society have referred to it in the proceeding of Sept. 29, and because the Paper contains such an explanation of his views by Mr. Humphrey as induces his Diocesan to believe that, however unhappily he may have expressed his views and plans, they are not intentionally or intrinsically heterodox.

No. 14 has been rendered public by the consent of the Reverend Writer. The Diocesan has no wish to complain formally of his views; but he wishes only, in justice to himself, that the views of those who have acted in a manner contrary to his own ideas of propriety should be fairly known by those whose province it may be to judge in this important matter.

There is one important feature of this case to which No. 8 refers; and that is, the hasty manner in which the Resolution of the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society was forwarded to the Parent Church Missionary Society. It will be seen, by reference to No. 8, that no time was allowed, either to the Diocesan or to the Gentleman censured, to enter into any explanation with the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society, before the departure of the Committee's despatch; which is to be the more regretted, because the ex-parte view of the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society would be for a long time before the Parent Church Missionary Society; operating most disadvantageously to the censured party, who was left, it appears, by the Committee's Letter No. 12, in ignorance of the points on which he was censured.

The questions which arise out of this affair resolve themselves as follows:—

1. After a candid perusal of Mr. Humphrey's Papers, both his Public Letters and demi-official or Public Explanations, is he to be considered heterodox, and therefore unworthy of, or disqualified for, the service of the Church of England as a Missionary?

2. Has any Committee of a Society, which claims to be considered as a Society of the Members of the Church of England, any power to pass a sentence, which virtually amounts to a deprivation from his Cure, on any Clergyman, without reference to his Diocesan?

The sentence of a Committee is a virtual deprivation; because, if entitled to any consideration, it must subject the censured to the loss of his means of support which are dispensed by the Committee.

3. Are the opinions and views of the Clergy, until they are declared heterodox by the Diocesan, a fit subject of condemnation by a Committee; and if any doubts are entertained by a Committee as to the orthodoxy or heterodoxy of a Clergyman supported by the Parent Society, are not the Committe bound, as Members of the Church of England, to seek the interference of the Diocesan, and an explanation of doubtful views through the same channel?

The Diocesan cannot now decide the first question; because the prejudgment of the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society prevents his doing so, with that unshackled liberty of judgment which he ought to possess. The fact of the judgment of the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society being reiterated, without hearkening to the wish expressed for time for explanation, and without listening to the disapproval of the Committee's procedure which the Diocesan had conveyed, leaves the Diocesan unable to act otherwise than to protest against the conduct of the Committee, on the ground of its having attempted to deprive the Rev. W. T. Humphrey of his Diocesan's superintendence and protection. It appears to the Diocesan, that however unintentional such a line of conduct has been taken, the consequence has been the invasion of the Episcopal Office. The Diocesan hopes that the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society could not have intended to neglect his office altogether, and freely acquits them of any intentional disrespect towards himself; but he believes that the Madras Corresponding Committee of the Church Missionary Society acted under erroneous views of the duty of a Committee: and the case is now submitted to superior judgment, not only with an anxious desire to see the character of a faithful Clergyman re-established, but in the hope that the decision which may be given will prevent any irregularities in future.

No. V.

REASONS WHICH LED THE COMMITTEE TO REGARD THE REV. W. T. HUMPHREY'S CASE AS NOT REFERRIBLE TO THE ARCHBISHOPS AND BISHOPS UNDER LAW XXXII. OF THE SOCIETY.

1. The simple question, Whether the Society has a right to dissolve its connexion with a Licensed Missionary, and to withdraw his salary, without the concurrence of the Bishop, could not, in the opinion of the Committee, be fairly considered as coming within the scope of Law XXXII., even if taken separately, inasmuch as it can scarcely be deemed a question relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline *.— But Law XXXIII. seems clearly and distinctly to exempt it; for Law XXXIII. first limits the operation of Law XXXII. to those cases relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline for which no provision had already been made by the Society; and, secondly, it declares that Law XXXII. shall not be so construed as in any other respect to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report. Now, the Committee maintain that the whole argument in Appendix II., relating to these subjects, goes to show that the present question is not one of an Ecclesiastical character; but that the right involved in it does clearly and independently belong to the Committee. But, secondly, Appendix II. points out the respective rights, as claimed and exercised by the Bishop on the one hand and the Committee on the other, in the very case of Missionaries' salaries and licences. If, therefore, it could be maintained, as the Committee

* XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference cannot properly be considered as so bound.

think it cannot, that the question does relate to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, it would still be excluded from the operation of Law XXXII., because it is, at all events, a question for which provision had already been made by the Society.

2. In this Appendix, we shall find the following principles laid down. It is divided into four general Heads.

3. The First general Head is thus concisely, but distinctly, expressed:—

"1. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, AND THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.—THESE ACTS ARE ALTOGETHER WITHIN THE PROVINCE OF LAYMEN."

4. This passage unequivocally, and without any qualification or exception, ascribes to the Committee the exclusive power over the Society's Disbursements Abroad, and consequently over the payment or withdrawing of the Salaries of the Society's Missionaries.

5. Under the Fourth general Head, "THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN," it is observed, that the Colonial Bishop has within his diocese "THE POWER OF WITHHOLDING A LICENCE, OR OF WITHDRAWING IT, AT HIS SOLE DISCRETION, WITHOUT ASSIGNING ANY CAUSE, AS IN THE CASE OF STIPENDIARY CURATES IN THIS COUNTRY." The Appendix then proceeds:—"IF IT BE ASKED, WHAT ARE THE CHECKS AND SAFEGUARDS AGAINST THE UNDUE EXERCISE OF THIS DISCRETIONARY POWER OF THE BISHOP? IT MAY BE REPLIED, IN THE WORDS OF THE BISHOP OF CALCUTTA, IN A LETTER TO THE PARENT SOCIETY, APRIL 12, 1837: 'WE ARE NOT TO TAKE FOR GRANTED THAT DISCRETIONARY POWER WILL BE ABUSED, BUT, ON THE CONTRARY, TO PROVIDE, BY A CHEERFUL AND FRIENDLY SPIRIT AND CONDUCT, AGAINST THE LIKELIHOOD OF SUCH AN OCCURRENCE. IF THE EVENT OF ARBITRARY CONDUCT SHOULD ARISE, OR BE SUPPOSED TO ARISE, THE REMEDIES ARE—PUBLIC OPINION—AN APPEAL TO THE ARCHBISHOP—AND THE SOCIETY'S REFUSING TO MAKE OTHER APPOINTMENTS AND LOCATIONS THAN THOSE UNREASONABLY OBJECTED TO. NOTHING IS THE LEAST LIKELY—AND PROBABILITY IS THE GUIDE OF LIFE—TO ARISE TO IMPEDE OR CRAMP THE COMMITTEE; SINCE THEY UNQUESTIONABLY AND AVOWEDLY POSSESS, THE CHOICE OF MEN—THE APPOINTMENT OF SPHERES OF LABOUR—THE TEMPORAL POWER, INCLUDING PECUNIARY SUPPORT." These words were adopted by the Committee in this Appendix, as descriptive of "the principles and practice of the Society" then existing; and which, by the express terms of Law XXIII., are not to be altered by Law XXXII.

6. Under the same Fourth Head the following passage also occurs:—"THE SOCIETY STANDS TOWARD ITS MISSIONARIES IN THE RELATION OF TRUSTEES OF THE FUND OUT OF WHICH THEIR SALARIES ARE PAID. IN THE CASE OF A BENEFICED CLERGYMAN IN THIS COUNTRY, THE MINISTER IS THE GUARDIAN AND POSSESSOR OF THE TEMPORALITIES OF THE BENEFICE, BECAUSE THE BENEFICE IS AN ENDOWMENT; AND THE PATRON HAS NO FURTHER CONNEXION WITH THE MINISTER WHOM HE HAS ONCE PRESENTED TO THE BISHOP.

IN THE CASE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, THE OFFICE OF PATRON IS, IN A SENSE, PERPETUATED BY THE PAYMENT OF THE SALARY, AND THE POSSESSION OF ALL THE TEMPORALITIES OF THE MISSION."

7. Now, if the Committee are bound to continue the salary of a Missionary so long as the Bishop does not withdraw his licence, in what sense can the office of Patron be said to be "perpetuated by the payment of the salary"? The office of Patron is one necessarily involving, in its exercise, choice and discretion; but if the Committee, when once a Missionary is licensed, have no longer power to withdraw the salary without the Bishop's consent, they have no choice or discretion left; nor, consequently, is their office of Patron in any sense "perpetuated by the payment of the salary." This discretion, therefore, according to the principle laid down in this passage of Appendix II., must still be considered as remaining in the Committee, notwithstanding the Bishop's licence; and they are bound to exercise it, as faithful "Trustees of the Fund" committed to their administration.

8. Another passage, nearly at the close of the Appendix, bears on the subject.

"ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS DEPEND, IN MANY IMPORTANT RESPECTS, UPON A MUTUAL CONFIDENCE AND GOOD UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE COMMITTEE AND ITS REPRESENTATIVES, AND THE ECCLESIASTICAL AUTHORITIES BOTH AT HOME AND ABROAD. IN ITS FOREIGN OPERATIONS, THE SOCIETY PLACES CONFIDENCE IN THE COLONIAL BISHOPS—AS IT HAS BEEN ALREADY SHOWN, IN A QUOTATION FROM THE LETTER OF BISHOP WILSON—THAT THEY WILL NOT EXERCISE AN UNREASONABLE OR ARBITRARY DISCRETION, IN WITHHOLDING OR WITHDRAWING LICENCES FROM OUR MISSIONARIES, OR IN REFUSING ORDINATION TO OUR CANDIDATES. AND THE BISHOPS, BY GRANTING LICENCES AND ORDINATION TO THE MISSIONARIES OF A VOLUNTARY SOCIETY, WHOSE INCOME IS LIABLE TO FLUCTUATIONS, AND WHOSE AGENTS ARE CONTINUALLY CHANGING, MANIFESTLY PLACE CONFIDENCE IN THE COMMITTEES, THAT THEY WILL USE EVERY ENDEAVOUR TO KEEP UP THE MISSIONS ONCE ESTABLISHED; AND THAT THEY WILL NOT, ON THEIR PART, ACT IN AN UNREASONABLE OR ARBITRARY MANNER, OR WITHDRAW THE SALARY FROM A LICENSED MISSIONARY, WITHOUT REASON SUFFICIENT TO PROVE TO THE LICENSING BISHOP THE NECESSITY OF THE PROCEEDING."

9. The passage does not deny, but impliedly admits, the absolute power vested, on the one hand, in the Bishop of withdrawing a licence; on the other hand, in the Committee of withdrawing the salary; while it expresses the mutual confidence, which the Bishop and the Committee place in each other, that this power, though absolute, will not be exercised by either in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner. Either party may, in a particular instance, be disappointed in this confidence. The reasons which appear conclusive to one party may not appear so to the other. But the confidence which rests upon the assumed improbability of such discrepancy can never be construed into an abdication by either party of the right and power inherently belonging to them.

10. The right, therefore, of the Committee to dissolve its connexion with a Licensed Missionary, and withdraw his salary without the Bishop's concurrence, is a principle of the Society contained in its Laws, as explained in this Appendix II.:—it is a principle which Law XXXII. is not to be so construed as to alter: it is not a matter relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision had been made by the Society when Laws XXXII. and XXXIII. were adopted:—and consequently the question raised upon this right is not a question falling within the scope of Law XXXII., as interpreted by Law XXXIII. The Committee, therefore, do not consider that they could refer such question to the Archbishops and Bishops, without violating the trust reposed in them by their constituents.

11. The Committee have from the first contemplated this whole question with extreme pain and anxiety. Nothing but a clear conviction of duty would have induced them to dissolve their connexion with a Missionary educated, and twice sent out to India, at the expense of the Society. They regard the case, however, as involving the vital interests of the Society; and they humbly pray that the same gracious Hand which has hitherto guided them through many a day of trial and perplexity will still support and direct them.

No. VI.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE COMMITTEE, FEB. 11, 1842.

I. THAT it appears, on a reference to the List of Documents which is given by the Bishop of Madras, in his "Statement of Mr. Humphrey's Case," that the first two documents—namely, a Letter from Mr. Humphrey to the Bishop, and the Bishop's Reply to the same, giving a general approval of Mr. Humphrey's views—have never reached the Committee; nor, as the Committee believe, had they been communicated to the Madras Committee when they passed their Resolution of September 8th: neither are these Letters so much as alluded to in Mr. Humphrey's subsequent Letter to the Madras Committee of September 1st; there being only one sentence in that Letter which can bear any reference to this correspondence; namely, "These are the principles by which, under the sanction of our Reverend Diocesan, I hope to regulate my labours;" and this sentence being so ambiguously expressed, as to convey the idea that the execution of his plans was contingent upon his obtaining his Diocesan's approbation, rather than that he had already obtained it. The Committee cannot, therefore, but express their regret in being thus in ignorance of the existence of those communications, which may have given the appearance of a want of courtesy to the Corresponding Committee's proceedings in this case.

II. That the Committee have very carefully considered the case of Mr. Humphrey, with reference to Laws XXXII. and XXXIII. of the Society, in order to ascertain whether the questions arising out of his case fall within the scope of those Laws; feeling themselves called upon to make such inquiry by the terms of Law XXXIII.

III. The Bishop of Madras has enumerated three questions, as arising out of Mr. Humphrey's case; the first of which is the following:—

(1) "After a candid perusal of Mr. Humphrey's Papers, both his public letters and demi-official or public explanations, is he to be considered heterodox, and therefore unworthy of, or disqualified for, the service of the Church of England, as a Missionary?"

Now the Bishop having declined stating any opinion upon this question, the Committee would respectfully remark, that on this point there does, in fact, exist no question between his Lordship and the Madras Corresponding Committee, as a ground of appeal.

The second question is the following:—

(2) "Has any Committee of a Society, which claims to be considered as a Society of the Members of the Church of England, any power to pass a sentence, which virtually amounts to a deprivation from his cure, on any Clergyman, without reference to his Diocesan?

"The sentence of a Committee is a virtual deprivation; because, if entitled to any consideration, it must subject the censured to the loss of his means of support, which are dispensed by the Committee."

With respect to this question, the Committee would observe, that they do not claim—nor have the Madras Corresponding Committee claimed—any right to pass a sentence of deprivation of Mr. Humphrey's cure: the Parent Committee only claim, and has exercised, a right to dissolve their connexion with an Ordained Missionary, and to withdraw his salary. And this right will be found included among the principles and practice of the Society, as they existed prior to its adoption of Laws XXXII. and XXXIII., and explained in Appendix II. to Report 39; and is therefore confirmed by those Laws.

In Mr. Humphrey's case, the Parent Committee have already, by their Resolution of the 30th of November, taken steps toward dissolving their connexion with Mr. Humphrey, in virtue of that right.

The appeal, however, of the Bishop of Madras is against a Resolution of the Madras Corresponding Committee; which was, in fact, a mere Report of their opinion respecting the views and proceedings of Mr. Humphrey, and did not amount to a dissolution of his connexion with the Society. This Report the Madras Committee considered themselves bound to make to the Bishop, by the 3d of the Rules laid down by the Bishop of Calcutta.

The third question of the Bishop of Madras is—

"(3) Are the opinions and views of the Clergy, until they are declared heterodox by the Diocesan, a fit subject of condemnation by a Committee; and if any doubts are entertained by a Committee, as to the orthodoxy or heterodoxy of a Clergyman supported by the Parent Society, are not the Committee bound, as Members of the Church of England, to seek the interference of the Diocesan, and an explanation of doubtful views through the same channel?"

The Committee would respectfully observe, that this question resolves itself, in fact, into the former question of the Bishop of Madras; because, if the right of dissolving its connexion with its Missionary be inherent in the Society, it is competent in its Committees to declare the ground on which their Resolutions are formed.

The Committee do not justify the precise form in which the Madras Committee have expressed their Resolutions; because they conceive that they have gone beyond their proper function, in declaring Mr. Humphrey "unfit for employment in any Missionary Society of the Church": nevertheless, the Committee observe, that this error in the form of expressing themselves involves no question at issue between the Bishop of Madras and the Madras Committee, such as Law XXXII. contemplates.

IV. That for the reasons stated in the preceding Resolutions, the Committee conceive that there is no question at issue, "relating to Ecclesiastical order or discipline," between the Bishop of Madras and the Madras Corresponding Committee, which falls within the scope of Law XXXII., as explained by Law XXXIII.; and that, therefore, there is no ground of appeal in this case to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church.

V. That the Committee, having further considered the complaint preferred by the Bishop of Madras against the Madras Corresponding Committee, of having acted with precipitancy in pronouncing an opinion respecting Mr. Humphrey without previous communication with the Bishop, the Committee would be far from justifying any want of deference to the Bishop; and are persuaded that the Madras Committee will be as ready to apologize, if they have unintentionally fallen into such an error, as they have been to disavow any such intention. But the Committee would remark, that while there are points on which it would be most proper to communicate with the Diocesan in the first instance—and such cases have several times occurred to the Society, in which it has been deeply indebted to the wisdom and promptitude with which Bishops have interposed their Episcopal authority—yet there are cases in which it may be (as Mr. Cotterill argues in his Letter of the 30th of September) more deferential to the Bishop himself, for the Committee to express their own opinion in the first instance; and such a case the Committee conceive the present to be: and that, on this ground, both the Madras Committee in reference to their Resolution of the 8th of September, and the Parent Committee in reference to their Resolution of the 30th of November, will be acquitted of any want of respect to the Episcopal office, or of cordial regard towards the Bishop of Madras, to whose kindness the Society has been under many and great obligations: nor, they trust, shall they be accused of precipitancy, when it is considered, that both the Madras Committee and the Parent Committee regarded Mr. Humphrey's plans and principles as perfect novelties in the operations of the Church Missionary Society, which, nevertheless, he had commenced before they were submitted to the Committee of the Society: for Mr. Humphrey states them to be plans, "which, as far as I am able, I am working on now"; and that he had written home to collect subcriptions for his proposed Church, the erection of which he regarded as essential to the success of his plans.

VI. That though the Committee have determined, by the preceding Resolution No. IV., that the case proposed by the Bishop of Madras to be referred to the Primate, under the provisions of Law XXXII., does not come within the terms of those provisions, and cannot therefore be so referred by them, they deem it right to lay the whole case of Mr. Humphrey, including their own Resolutions, before the Primate and the Bishop of London; and that the Secretaries should respectfully solicit an interview with them, for the purpose of confidential communication with them thereupon.

IX.

ASSOCIATIONS OUT OF LONDON AND ITS VICINITY.

 Annual Subscriptions are considered to be due on the First Day of January in each year.

BENEFACTIONS,
COLLECTIONS, AND ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS, PAID DIRECT TO THE PARENT SOCIETY.

☞ It being necessary, from the great number of Association Lists, to make up this List to the 31st of December in each year, Benefactions, Collections, and New Subscriptions, which are paid after that date, cannot appear in the List of Benefactions, &c. paid direct to the Parent Society, to be appended to the Report presented to the Annual Meeting in the following May.

Benefactions of 10l. and upward, through Associations, are, after the first year, transferred to the General List of Contributions paid direct to the Parent Society, and continued in that List during the life of the Benefactor.

Anonymous Benefactions, and all Benefactions under 10l., are discontinued after having been once inserted.

The Names of Collectors are omitted in all cases where a payment has not been made within the last three years.

Subscribers and Benefactors who pay through the different Associations in London will find their names in the respective Lists of Associations.

Great difficulty being found in making the following List of Contributions correct, the Committee will feel obliged by having any errors, or alterations consequent on death, change of residence, or other causes, pointed out to them.

 Those to which asterisks are prefixed were preached at St. Ann's, Blackfriars; those marked †, at St. Bride's, Fleet Street; the Twenty-third was preached at Christ Church, Newgate Street; the Thirty-first at St. Sepulchre's; the Thirty-second at St. Clement Danes; and the Thirty-third at St. Andrew's, Holborn.

The Collections at the Sixteenth and subsequent Anniversaries include the sums contributed at the Annual Meetings.

Cheshire: Bebington, by Rev. R. Bickmore:
Sermon: Rev. J. E. White 10 11 0

 Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus necessarily vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and 31st March in each year; and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgment to the Local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which has the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose Names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.

LEGACIES.

By the Third Law of the Society, Executors paying Bequests to the amount of Fifty Pounds become Members of the Society for Life. If there be more Executors than one, and the Legacy be not of sufficient amount to constitute each Executor a Member for Life, the Executor first named in the Will is considered to be the Member.

Legacies under 100l., which have been acknowledged in former Years, are omitted in the present List.
